OPERATIONAL DETAILS:

Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grades), Student Conduct, Cheating and Plagiarism, Academic Probation and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.

Attendance: Regular attendance is expected. Students are responsible for all assignments distributed, announcements made and material covered in their absence.

Participation: Students should participate actively in class discussions and group work and co-operate in the spirit of the course goals.

Late Assignments: Assignments will be collected promptly at the beginning of the class. Assignments submitted at the end of class will be considered late. Late assignments will incur the following deductions: 15% on the first day, increased to 30% on the second day (including weekends), etc. The instructor will accept the electronic submission of assignments, but the student should bring a hard copy to the next class.

Missed Exams: Make-up tests are given at the discretion of the instructor. They are generally given only in medical emergencies or severe personal crisis.

Students should be prepared to provide proof of inability to write the test on the scheduled date (e.g. letter from doctor).

Incomplete Grades: Given at the discretion of the instructor. Generally given only in medical emergencies or severe personal crises.

Electronic Devices: No personal electronic devices (cell phones, pagers, calculators, electronic dictionaries, etc...) may be used during an examination without prior approval from the instructor. During an exam, turn off all cell phones and pagers and remove them from the desk.

Emergency Procedures: Students are expected to familiarise themselves with the emergency procedures posted on the wall of the classroom.
