COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

This course employs a communicative approach and French is the primary language of instruction. This approach requires that students spend a significant amount of time preparing for class if they are to succeed. Prior to class students must read assigned grammar sections with care and attention and complete the associated exercises.

Online Learning

All students must complete on-line quizzes and send them to the instructor via Moodle prior to each chapter exam. These on-line quizzes are available at www.mhhe.com/deuxmondes7 and will comprise a portion of the participation grade. Further explanation on this assignment can be found on the Moodle site of FREN 101.

Cahier personnel de devoirs

Students will write out grammar exercises from Deux Mondes in the assigned notebook (provided in class). Corrections will be made and identified in coloured pen. This notebook will be brought to EACH class for further questioning of the grammar content. There will be random assessment of the completion of these exercises through pop quizzes. Students must make an appointment with the instructor once in the beginning of the semester to discuss the cahier work. The cahier and appointment will comprise a portion of the grade.

Lab (Language Resource Centre)

Language labs provide the opportunity to further develop listening and pronunciation skills. Students must attend the Language Resource Centre (LRC in Arbutus 117) to complete assigned material (typically 45 min per week). The LRC will be open on a drop-in basis. Mark will be based on completion of weekly assignments.

Conversation

During conversation classes you have the opportunity to practice speaking French in small groups. Mistakes and risk-taking are a normal part of the learning process; you are therefore encouraged to participate to the best of your ability. Students will participate in a one hour conversation seminar on a weekly basis, during which oral exercises will be conducted based on lessons learned in the lecture.

Participation

Participation represents a significant part of the course, not just in the percentage of your grade but, more importantly, in the impact that it has on your learning and the environment in which we all work. Students are expected to come prepared to participate in all course activities by having done the assigned homework beforehand. During these activities, students should speak French as much as possible. Students are also expected to follow the basic rules of courtesy (and the Capilano Student Code of Conduct).

Exams

Exams will be given in-class following each text chapter and include comprehension, reading, and writing components.

EVALUATION PROFILE

Final grades for the course will be computed based on the following schedule.

Cahier work	5%
Participation	10%
Conversation seminars	13%
Lab	12%
Chapter exams	(10%, 15%, 15%) 40%

In the case of illness proper medical documentation must be given. Make-up tests are given at the discretion of the instructor.
