ASSIGNMENTS:

- 1. Master Class #1- Up tempo/Ballad: There will be a Master class performance of an Up-tempo or Ballad chosen from the Musical Theatre repertoire. Students will be expected to have their repertoire memorized and staged. The repertoire will be performed for the class, and adjustments will be given by the instructors. Students will be assessed on their ability to adjust to direction in terms of singing and acting.
- 2. Master Class #2-Ballad/Up tempo: The second Master Class performance of the term will be a Ballad or Up-tempo song chosen from the Musical Theatre repertoire. Students will be expected to have their repertoire memorized and staged. The repertoire will be performed for the class, and adjustments will be given by the instructors. Students will be assessed on their ability to adjust to direction in terms of movement, singing and acting.

3. Written Assignments for Master Class #1 and #2: Students will research each musical in which their repertoire appears for character arc and historical relevance. They will analyze the song within the context of the musical, and provide a synopsis of the play. This work is due on the first day of Master Class performance.
4. Ensemble Piece(s): Students will work as a team under the instructors' guidance to create choreographed pieces. This may take the form of dance, movement, or acting style, depending on the repertoire chosen by the instructors. Assessment will be based on individual pick up, participation, preparedness and commitment.
5. Mid-term and Final Showcases: Students will be evaluated on their performance at mid-term and at the end of term. These performances will include a solo song at mid-term, and a solo song as well as the two ensemble pieces learned in class at the end of term. The instructors will assess the performance in terms of vocal skill, dance skill and a successful combination of all of the techniques learned throughout the term.
6. Professional Behaviour: Students must demonstrate professional behaviour as outlined in the Theatre Department Standards of Professional Behaviour. Students will receive a midterm progress report. In addition to forming part of the grade for this course, the end-of-term Professional Behaviour reports are reviewed by the Theatre Department audition committees.

Incomplete Grades

Grades of Incomplete "I" are assigned only in exceptional circumstances when a student requests extra time to complete their coursework. Such agreements are made only at the request of the student, who is responsible to determine from the instructor the outstanding requirements of the course.

Late Assignments

Assignments are due at the beginning of the class on the due date listed. If you anticipate handing in an assignment late, please consult with your instructor beforehand.

Missed Exams/Quizzes etc.

Make-up exams, quizzes and/or tests are given at the discretion of the instructor. They are generally given only in medical emergencies or severe personal crises. Some missed labs or other activities may not be able to be accommodated. Please consult with your instructor.

English Usage

Students are expected to proofread all written work for any grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors. Instructors may deduct marks for incorrect grammar and spelling in written assignments. Students are expected in oral assignments to remain accurate to the text chosen.

On-line Communication

Outside of the classroom, instructors will (if necessary) communicate with students using either their official Capilano University email or Moodle; please check both regularly. Official communication between Capilano University and students is delivered to students' Capilano University email addresses only.

Attendance

Students are expected to be on time for classes, and to attend all classes and rehearsals. Attendance is essential for successful completion of the course. Students who miss more than 10% of classes will not receive credit for the course. Students are responsible for all material covered in class, even if absent, including announcements and day-to-day assignments.

Policy Statement (S2009-06)

Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grade), Student Conduct, Academic Integrity, Academic Probation and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.

Academic Integrity (S2017-05)

Any instance of academic dishonesty or breach of the standards of academic integrity is serious and students will be held accountable for their actions, whether acting alone or in a group. See policy S2017-05 for more information: <https://www.capilanou.ca/about-capu/governance/policies/>

Violations of academic integrity, including dishonesty in assignments, examinations, or other academic performances, are prohibited and will be handled in accordance with the Student Academic Integrity Procedures.

Academic dishonesty is any act that breaches one or more of the principles of academic integrity. Acts of academic dishonesty may include but are not limited to the following types:

Cheating: Using or providing unauthorized aids, assistance or materials while preparing or completing assessments, or when completing practical work (in clinical, practicum, or lab settings), including but not limited to the following:

- Copying or attempting to copy the work of another during an assessment;
- Communicating work to another student during an examination;
- Using unauthorized aids, notes, or electronic devices or means during an examination;
- Unauthorized possession of an assessment or answer key; and/or,
- Submitting of a substantially similar assessment by two or more students, except in the case where such submission is specifically authorized by the instructor.

Fraud: Creation or use of falsified documents.

Misuse or misrepresentation of sources: Presenting source material in such a way as to distort its original purpose or implication(s); misattributing words, ideas, etc. to someone other than the original source; misrepresenting or manipulating research findings or data; and/or suppressing aspects of findings or data in order to present conclusions in a light other than the research, taken as a whole, would support.

Plagiarism: Presenting or submitting, as one's own work, the research, words, ideas, artistic imagery, arguments, calculations, illustrations, or diagrams of another person or persons without explicit or accurate citation or credit.

Self-Plagiarism: Submitting one's own work for credit in more than one course without the permission of the instructors, or re-submitting work, in whole or in part, for which credit has already been granted without permission of the instructors.

Prohibited Conduct: The following are examples of other conduct specifically prohibited:

- Taking unauthorized possession of the work of another student (for example, intercepting and removing such work from a photocopier or printer, or collecting the

- graded work of another student from a stack of papers);
- Falsifying one's own and/or other students' attendance in a course;
  - Impersonating or allowing the impersonation of an individual;
  - Modifying a graded assessment then submitting it for re-grading; or,
  - Assisting or attempting to assist another person to commit any breach of academic integrity.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

All Members of the University Community have the right to work, teach and study in an environment that is free from all forms of sexual violence and misconduct. Policy B401 defines sexual assault as follows:

Sexual assault is any form of sexual contact that occurs without ongoing and freely given consent, including the threat of sexual contact without consent. Sexual assault can be committed by a stranger, someone known to the survivor or an intimate partner.

Safety and security at the University are a priority and any form of sexual violence and misconduct will not be tolerated or condoned. The University expects all Students and Members of the University Community to abide by all laws and University policies, including B.401 Sexual Violence and Misconduct Policy and B.401.1 Sexual Violence and Misconduct Procedure.

Emergencies: Students are expected to familiarise themselves with the emergency policies where appropriate and the emergency procedures posted on the wall of the classroom.

PROGRAM OPERATIONAL DETAILS

Class Participation

Students must come prepared to contribute to all activities in a positive focused manner.

Outside Productions

Involvement in outside productions during the term affects a student's level of commitment and the quality of program work. The quality and pedagogy of outside productions cannot be guaranteed and may be detrimental to the progress of the student. For these reasons, the Theatre Department will not permit students to be involved with productions, which are not officially part of the program.

Students who engage in outside productions will receive 0 for Professional Behaviour and may be asked to leave the program.

DEPARTMENT OPERATIONAL
DETAILS THEATRE DEPARTMENT
*Standards for Professional Behaviour

Professional behaviour is essential in employment situations in professional theatre, film, and television. Professional behaviour, combined with professional craft skills are the essential components that casting directors, directors, and producers consider when deciding to cast an actor. Acknowledging this, the Theatre Department fosters professional behaviour by evaluating each student according to these standards.

In classes where professional behaviour forms part of the mark, students will be given interim reports in order to adjust behaviour that needs improvement. Students should be aware that directors consider the actor's professional behaviour reputation when casting. These standards indicate the behaviour that is expected in class, in rehearsal and performance situations, and in all interactions in the Theatre Department environment.

The desired behaviours are described below as "outcomes" which are followed by a list of criteria against which the student's behaviour will be measured.
