SENATE MEETING

Tuesday, May 12th, 2020 4:00 pm
VIA MS TEAMS

MINUTES

4. Correspondence Received

Correspondence from a student was previously received and the contents discussed at the April 7th Senate meeting. Accordingly, Senate was provided with a copy of the response from the VP Academic and Provost as indication that Senate had fulfilled its commitment to respond to the student concerns.

5. Business Arising

5.1 Vice-Chair Nominating Committee

Presented by: Bridget Stringer-Holden

The Chair of the Vice-Chair Nominating Committee reported that a call for nominations for Senate Vice-Chair was sent out to all Senators, and one nomination, Stephen Williams, was received. The Chair of the Vice-Chair Nominating Committee then called three times for further nominations, and on hearing none, Stephen Williams was acclaimed as Vice-Chair of Senate for a one year term, August 2020 to June 2021.

5.2 Self-Evaluation Committee

Presented by: Robert Thomson

Members were reminded to complete the Senate self-evaluation survey prior to closing on May 22nd. To date, only seven responses were received, and a further reminder will be sent out. Members were encouraged to complete the survey.

5.3 Academic Plan

Presented by: Laureen Styles

Senate was provided with an overview of the process and key components for the development of the next Academic Plan. The Academic Plan will utilize and build on the consultations and engagements that occurred during Envisioning 2030 as well as focus specifically on the foundation of the University. The Academic Plan is intended to be an expression of key University constituents' collective aspirations and interpretations of the themes and commitments embedded in Envisioning 2030.

Under the Vice President Academic & Provost, an ad-hoc advisory group will be struck with membership from key constituents. Calls for participation will be sent out to the University community shortly. The advisory group will be responsible for reviewing and making recommendations on approaches, hosting participation events as available, key content areas, and reviewing drafts. Additionally, the Senate Academic Planning and Program Review Committee will be actively engaged in commenting on key aspects of the plan (the framework) as well as providing input and perspectives with drafts through to final recommendation to Senate.

5.4 Academic and Teaching Continuity

Presented by: Laureen Styles

In order to support timely academic adjustments and adaptations during the COVID- 19 pandemic, Senate was presented with the following recommendations:

Recommendation 1

THAT the Senate, considering the evolving nature of the COVID-19 pandemic, delegates the President (or designate), considering relevant advice of the EOC Policy Group, and in close consultation with the Vice President Academic & Provost, with the authority to enact plan(s) that maximize approaches to learning/courses and academic continuity for the academic year 2020-2021 including, but not limited to, program start and end dates, changed sequencing of courses in programs based on their approved program profile, the start and end dates of courses, and mode(s) of instruction.

On review and discussion of the proposed motion, several concerns were raised with the wording around Senate's role, and it was suggested that there may be more comfort with the motion if the words "and schools and/or Faculties," be included in the motion.

Laureen Styles moved and David Fung seconded:

20/21 THAT the Senate, considering the evolving nature of the COVID-19 pandemic, delegates the President (or designate), considering relevant advice of the EOC Policy Group, and in close consultation with the Vice President Academic & Provost, and schools and/or Faculties, with the authority to enact plan(s) that maximize approaches to learning/courses and academic continuity for the academic year 2020-2021 including, but not limited to, program start and end dates, changed sequencing of courses in programs based on their approved program profile, the start and end dates of courses, and mode(s) of instruction.

Recommendation 2

THAT in order to facilitate planning and operations and to maximize as much certainty as possible for programs and courses, adapted approaches will be utilized with ongoing flexibility for continuity of learning and essential or critical functions. Determining adapted approaches will be undertaken in a consultative manner within programs, Schools, Faculties and across university units. Updates on adaptations on relevant academic matters will be provided to Senate on a regular basis by the Vice President Academic & Provost.

On review and discussion of the proposed motion, it was suggested that as some wording within the motion was explanatory and should not be included, the following suggested wording was provided:

Laureen Styles moved and Stephanie Wells seconded:

20/22 THAT in order to facilitate planning and operations and to maximize as much certainty as possible for programs and courses, adapted approaches will be utilized with ongoing flexibility for continuity of learning and essential or critical functions, the determination of which will be undertaken in a consultative manner within programs, Schools, Faculties and across university units, and updates on adaptations on relevant academic matters will be provided to Senate on a regular basis by the Vice President Academic & Provost.

6. New Business

6.1 Results of By-election

Presented by: Kyle Vuorinen

The Registrar reported that Iana Dokuchaeva was acclaimed as the support staff representative. No nominations were received for the faculty representative from Arts and Sciences. Nomination will remain open until a candidate comes forward.

6.2 Graduates

Presented by: Kyle Vuorinen

The Registrar submitted a list of 856 graduates, verified by the Registrar's Office, to have met the graduation requirements of their program.

Kyle Vuorinen moved and Lara Duke seconded:

20/24 Senate accept the students as graduates.

CARRIED

6.3 June Convocation Date

Presented by: Kyle Vuorinen

Due to COVID-19, the University will not be holding an in-person June convocation, but will be changing to an online format. In order to accommodate for the changes to the format from an in-person ceremony to online, Senate was requested to approve a change to the ceremony date.

CARRIED

6.4 Honorary Degrees / Faculty Emeritus

Presented by: Kyle Guay

As a result of the June 2020 convocation moving to an online ceremony, the University will postpone honouring the recipients of the Honorary Degree and Faculty Emeritus until the February convocation.

7. Committee Reports

7.1 Academic Planning and Program Review Committee

Presented by: Michael Thoma

The Committee met on April 14th and continued discussion on processes, particularly in light of the COVID-19 crisis. At the Committee meeting, Dr. Laura MacKay, Director, Centre for Teaching Excellence (CTE) provided a presentation noting that program review may benefit from consultation with CTE during development, rather than approaching CTE after the program review is complete. As well, Academic and Initiatives Planning (AIPO) will assist with the desk research and presentation of program reviews for areas participating in the 2020/21 academic year, which may involve formalizing the work between CTE and AIPO.

7.2 Bylaw, Policy and Procedure Committee

Presented by: Marnie Findlater

VIA MS TEAMS

The Committee met on May 11th and the VP, Finance and Administration provided a presentation on the considerations and parts of the budget that will be reviewed to meet the current needs of the University, including framework, next steps, timelines and consultations. A further meeting of the Committee was scheduled for June 1st and if required, June 8th.

8. Other Reports

8.1 Chair of Senate

Paul Dangerfield provided the Chair's report, including the following highlights:

- Chancellor David Fung was acknowledged and thanked for his work and leadership at Senate during the past four years. Chancellor Fung's term will be ending towards the end of the month, and the University has announced the new Chancellor, Yuri Fulmer who will be installed at an upcoming installation.
- The University and the CFA recently came to an agreement with respect to the Collective Agreement, and both sides were thanked and acknowledged for their work and diligence.
- In terms of recovery planning on the operational side, the EOC Policy Group have been requested to do a review of what has worked to date, and what may need some amendments in moving forward. As well, work will be undertaken on how the University can move to adaptive service deliveries.
- With respect to the budget, the University continues to work to ensure there is no unnecessary spending until there is more clarity around the forecast for the fall. The priority will remain to pivot toward adaptive and online learning and applying resources in this direction. The Ministry has also advised the University that there will be no hold back on the operating grant and that the University can move ahead with capital expenditures.

8.2 Vice-Chair Senate

Stephen Williams provided the Vice-Chair's report, including the following highlights:

SENATE MEETING

Tuesday, May 12th, 2020 4:00 pm
VIA MS TEAMS

- The teaching and learning working group was acknowledged for their perspectives and collaborative process during the development of a new teaching and learning committee. Draft terms of reference for the new committee were presented at the Bylaw, Policy and Procedure Committee for feedback and it is anticipated that a draft will be presented at the June Senate meeting.
- The various Senate Committee Chairs were recognized and acknowledged for their work, leadership, determination and guidance in keeping their committees operating at a high standard as the University transitioned to online.

8.3 VP Academic and Provost

Lauren Styles provided the VP Academic and Provost report, which included the following updates on components of change that have occurred since the last Senate meeting:

- The decision to move to online teaching over the summer, as well as options for final exams. A memorandum from the VP Academic and Provost was sent out to instructional faculty on April 15 in relation to summer courses focussing on adaptive delivery, including adaptations to evaluations and flexibility within faculties and programs working on current syllabi to be reflected in an adaptive model.
- The temporary acceptance of Duolingo English testing given the closure and inaccessibility of a number of testing centres that the University is using with international students. The temporary acceptance of Duolingo English testing is in effect and is covering both the current and spring semesters given the University's recruiting and application processes.

8.4 Board Report

A report was not provided as the presenter was absent.

9. Discussion Items

No discussion items were presented.

SENATE REPORT

AGENDA ITEM:	Senate Teaching and Learning Committee
PURPOSE:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Approval <input type="checkbox"/> Information <input type="checkbox"/> Discussion
MEETING DATE:	June 3, 2020
PRESENTER:	Stephen Williams

PURPOSE

To establish a new Senate committee by approving the Senate Teaching and Learning Committee Mandate and Structure document.
 To retire the Senate Instructional Technologies Advisory Committee (SITAC) by rescinding that committee’s Mandate and Structure document.

BACKGROUND

Earlier this academic year, the Senate directed the vice-chair to create a working committee that would draft a mandate and structure document for a Teaching and Learning Committee. The working committee reviewed the terms of reference documents of a wide number of BC university Senate committees where the focus was teaching and learning. The committee consulted and received input from a variety of departments, including input from the Senate Bylaw, Policy and Procedure committee. The working group members included Debbie Schachter, Mark Vaughan, Alea Rzeplinski, and John Molendyk.

DISCUSSION

By approving the first motion, the Senate is creating a new committee. By approving the second motion, the Senate will be retiring a committee.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. THAT the Senate approve the Senate Teaching and Learning Committee Mandate and Structure policy document.
2. THAT the Senate rescind the Senate Instructional Technologies Advisory Committee Mandate and Structure policy document.
3. THAT the Senate thank the members who have served on SITAC over the years for their service, dedication, and contribution.

Faculty of Global and Community Studies

Terms of Reference

May 2, 2013

The Faculty of Global and Community Studies is established under the terms of the University Act and the Capilano University Senate Minutes of June 5, 2012

1. Chair: The Dean of the Faculty of Global and Community Studies will serve as the Chair of the Faculty Meeting. A Vice-Chair will be elected by the Faculty. The vice-chair will be elected on an annual basis without restriction to re-election in subsequent years.
2. Voting: The following individuals will have voting rights at meetings of the Faculty of Global and Community Studies:
  - a) All Faculty members as defined by Senate.
  - b) Support staff of the Faculty at the DDA4 level plus one additional DDA appointed by the Chair of the Faculty
  - c) One student representative from each School of the Faculty plus one additional from each School offering a degree program.
  - d) The Dean of the Faculty of Global and Community Studies
  - e) The President or his/her delegate
3. Quorum and Representative Attendance: A quorum will consist of at least 11 faculty members in attendance; it is the responsibility of all faculty members to attend
4. Non-voting members: Non-voting members include members of other Faculties (as determined by Senate) with current teaching assignments in courses unique to the Schools of the Faculty plus other DDA's and support staff that work for the Schools of the Faculty.
5. Faculty Business:
  - a) Faculty business including general administration and curriculum review will be carried out by the Deans Advisory Committee (DAC). Voting membership in the DAC is comprised of School Chairs or Coordinators, Program Conveners, Program Managers (as determined by the Dean), Standing Committee Chairs, and the DDA4 plus one other DDA (as determined by the Dean). Non-voting members include Ad-hoc Committee Chairs (approved by the Dean), Project Managers (as determined by the Dean), and DDA's. The Dean of Faculty of Global and Community Studies will be the Chair of this committee. The DAC will report at the regular Faculty meetings through the Chair.
  - b) Standing committees will be established including an Academic Planning Committee. This will consist of the Dean, the Chair or Coordinator of each School and, where the Chair oversees more than one School, a program convener from those respective Schools as determined by DAC. The Academic Planning Committee will make academic decisions and report to DAC.
  - c) Ad-hoc committees may be struck as needed

6. Agenda and Minutes:

- a) Faculty meeting agendas will be prepared by the Dean and published 7 days before the scheduled Faculty meeting and circulated to all members of the Faculty. Minutes of these meetings will be taken and produced by the assistant to the Dean.
- b) Minutes will be kept and circulated to Faculty members as designated in the terms of reference by the Assistant to the Dean.

7. Meeting Times: The Faculty will meet at least twice a year, in the Spring and Fall terms.
