This program was prepared in advance of the ceremony and may not reflect last-minute updates. In the event of a discrepancy between this program and the Capilano University graduation roll, the graduation roll shall be taken as correct.

Capilano University respectfully acknowledges that our campuses are located on the territories of the Líl'wat, xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), shíshá'lh (Sechelt), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) and Səlilwətaʔ/Selilwitulh (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations.

CONGRATULATIONS

PAUL DANGERFIELD
President & Vice-Chancellor

As one of our newest Capilano University graduates, you're ready to start creating your future. I'm excited for you, and I'm sure your family and friends are feeling that excitement as well.

Within each of you are the values that have inspired our vision of CapU in the next few years. These values of innovation, commitment and collaboration are reflected in the sacrifices you've made to turn your goals into reality, particularly during these unprecedented times as the world continues to respond to COVID-19. By earning your credentials, you've shown a commitment to lifelong learning and a willingness to do things differently. Through your hard work, I hope you have found a path towards a life filled with purpose and success as defined by you.

I hope your CapU experience has given you a sense of pride in knowing you're ready to go forward in the world. Now, more than ever, I urge you to stay curious and be creative. Curiosity can inspire imaginative approaches in everything you do. And in graduating, you are joining a network of alumni who are doing just that.

I believe your accomplishments from here will enrich a legacy for generations of CapU students who will follow you here.

Congratulations to you all!

Paul Dangerfield
President & Vice-Chancellor
Capilano University

YURI FULMER
Chancellor

Congratulations to you for reaching this triumphant milestone. While I'm sorry that we are not able to gather in person for convocation as we traditionally would, we can still recognize the importance of celebrating your accomplishments and honouring the hard work and perseverance it took to get here. I hope you take this opportunity to reflect on all you have achieved and to take pride in your success.

This is also a time to celebrate with the people who journeyed with you along your path of learning and self-discovery. University life is challenging, and along the way you were supported by family, friends and classmates. Your instructors were also there to encourage you to finish and finish well.

As you leave Capilano University, be confident in knowing your education is valued in today's world. Wherever your life may take you, you have the skills and creative thinking to become the change-makers and self-assured leaders that our society needs.

The legacy of CapU flows through you as you launch your career. I hope you remain connected and will continue to make a positive impact in our campus community and the wider world.

Congratulations and may your future be filled with opportunity. We are very proud of you.

Yuri Fulmer, OBC
Chancellor
Capilano University

BRITTANY BARNES
Chair, CUAA

On behalf of the Capilano University Alumni Association (CUAA), it is my pleasure to congratulate you on your academic and personal achievements. We are so proud to welcome another graduating class of CapU alumni into our community—that includes you.

Today, you join a diverse and talented network with a global reach of more than 95,000 CapU alumni. As you enter this new chapter, we want you to know that the CUAA is here to support you through continued lifelong learning, professional development and exclusive alumni benefits. In fact, your CapU journey does not end here; it continues through the CUAA.

We encourage you to join our CapU Connect alumni platform (alumni.capilano.ca) to connect with a global network of colleagues, community members and friends. Through CapU Connect you will have access to all of the programming and services available to alumni. Additional information can be found at capilano.ca/alumni. Please take a look to learn more about the CUAA and how we can help you continue to thrive.

Once again, congratulations on successfully completing your journey from student to alumni and we hope you keep in touch!

Warm regards,

Brittany Barnes
Chair
Capilano University Alumni Association

2020 HONORARY DEGREES

SUSAN POINT

Doctor of Fine Arts, honoris causa

Susan Point is a renowned x̣ṃəθḳʷəỵəm (Musqueam) artist and a leading influence in the emergence of contemporary Coast Salish Indigenous art. Rooted in the rich culture and traditions of her people, her work continues to push artistic boundaries. She illustrates and communicates using paper, glass, concrete, basalt, granite, bronze, iron, steel, polymers and vinyl as her canvas. Her paintings, sculptures, carvings and mixed media have resulted in numerous prominent examples of public art that is instrumental in presenting x̣ṃəθḳʷəỵəm traditions and culture.

Through symbolism and artistry, Point's work encourages attention, understanding and respect for the life-sustaining contributions of women in Indigenous communities. It offers a connection point to Indigenous cultures for non-Indigenous people. While her art continues to evolve, Point's family values and respect for our connected human spirit endure and deliver an inspiring message of truth and reconciliation.

She is highly regarded for her artistic celebrations of family, creativity, individuality and equality. Leading by example, she serves as a living inspiration to others. Her children and many grandchildren are following in her footsteps and cultivating individual talents as artists.

Susan Point is an Officer of the Order of Canada and a lifetime member of the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts. She has been recognized with a Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal, an Inspire Achievement Award, a YWCA Woman of Distinction Award and a BC Lifetime Creative Achievement Award. In 2020, she was awarded Chevalier in the Ordre des Arts et des Lettres, Order of France, by the French Ministry of Cultural Affairs.

DEREK LEE

Doctor of Laws, honoris causa

A proud lifelong resident of the North Shore, Derek Lee is one of British Columbia's most accomplished real estate professionals. He is currently the president and CEO of Prospero International Realty Inc., a local brokerage and property management firm, which owns and manages a diverse portfolio of properties across B.C., including apartments, mobile home parks, seniors' residences, low-income housing and marinas.

Throughout his busy professional career, Lee has also devoted his time and talents to serving on the boards of community organizations such as S.U.C.C.E.S.S., Tennis BC, Heart & Stroke Foundation and BC Artscape. His commitment to community service comes from his upbringing, where his father and grandfather taught him that great countries and provinces start with great cities and communities.

Recognizing the important role education played in helping him realize his ambitions, Lee is committed to supporting great institutions like Capilano University to ensure British Columbians have the education and guidance they need to achieve their own dreams.

FACULTY EMERITUS

JENNY PENBERTHY, PhD

Jenny Penberthy taught for 24 years in the English department at Capilano University. A widely published and renowned scholar in the field of modern poetry and poetics, she made crucial editorial and critical contributions to the study and appreciation of American poet Lorine Niedecker while remaining deeply engaged in every facet of life at the University.

Penberthy served on numerous committees, directed the Leon and Thea Koerner Foundation Lecture Series, expanded the operations of the Writing Centre and founded CUE Books. She edited The Capilano Review (TCR) for six years while maintaining its national reputation as a lively magazine of experimental literary and visual arts and ensuring the magazine survived in its transition to off-campus production in 2015. In her capacity as TCR editor, she pioneered Sacred Space: The Tom Cone Festival of New Plays, a hugely successful annual festival of innovative short plays.

Since retiring in 2016, Penberthy has remained dedicated to both her scholarship and the continued vitality of TCR. In the year of her retirement, Flood Editions in Chicago published The Art of Language: Selected Essays of Kenneth Cox, which was edited by Penberthy, and the collection Poetics and Praxis 'After' Objectivism from the University of Iowa Press featured her essay on Lorine Niedecker and Lisa Robertson. She is working on a collection of letters by Lorine Niedecker and a history of Fulcrum Press.

Still tirelessly committed to funding and programming initiatives as Board Chair of the Capilano Review Contemporary Arts Society, Jenny Penberthy's presence and imprint on our local arts communities remains profoundly felt.

STUDENT SPEAKERS

CEREMONY ONE

CLAIRE DUYVEWAARDT

Bachelor of Tourism Management Degree,
Faculty of Global & Community Studies

Claire Duyvevaardt is graduating with a Bachelor of Tourism Management. During her time at Capilano University, she has received the dean's list recognition for academic achievement and a distinction of merit. In the spring of 2020, Duyvevaardt studied abroad at Management Centre Innsbruck in Austria. Due to COVID-19, she returned to Canada and completed her term abroad online. Navigating time zones, online learning and the uncertainty of a pandemic brought a whole new dimension to her studies.

One of many highlights during her degree was being accepted into the competitive Student Work Experience Program for the Fairmont Hotels and Resorts. Duyvevaardt started as a room attendant at the Fairmont Banff Springs Hotel in the summer of 2018. The following summer, she was invited back for another internship and was promoted to a front-desk position. While demanding, this experience showed her the importance of a team-oriented atmosphere and the role it plays in creating a first-class guest experience.

The next chapter for Duyvevaardt includes pursuing opportunities at eco-resorts around the world. This goal blends her passion for guest engagement and ocean conservation.

CEREMONY TWO

JACQUELINE PILCHER

Bachelor of Business Administration Degree,
Faculty of Business & Professional Studies

Jacqueline Pilcher transferred to Capilano University in 2018. During her time at the University, her experiences were filled with fun, laughter, learning and growth. Today, she graduates with a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting and is pursuing a master's degree in professional accounting at the Edwards School of Business (Saskatoon) in May.

While at CapU, Pilcher was a Student Life Hub assistant. She attributes her work with the student affairs team as pivotal in challenging her to get out of her comfort zone, meet new people and become more engaged in the campus community.

Currently, Pilcher has an accounting position at SwiftRent Crest Realty and a contract with Union Gospel Mission. As part of her journey to become a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), she looks forward to starting an accounting position in the enterprise core services department at KPMG this October. One day, Pilcher hopes to take all her expertise and skills to become a chief financial officer at a Christian non-profit.

Pilcher is grateful to her husband, family, friends, community and everyone at CapU and the Business Administration program for supporting her in completing her bachelor's degree.

OUR TRADITIONS

THE COAT OF ARMS

Supporters

A bear in blue with light blue wings is depicted on each side of the shield. Each bear stands on a rocky base.

In local First Nations cultures, bears are symbols of strength and are a link between the natural and supernatural realms. In medieval bestiaries, bears were said to give shape to their own young; therefore, bears represent the 'forming' of the young—a metaphor for education. The wings refer to the idea of aspiration and can allude to ravens, recognized for their intelligence and creativity by local Indigenous Peoples. The rocky base refers to the nearby Coast Mountains, which are a dramatic aspect of the local landscape.

Crest

Two books with blue binding and white pages are stacked with their bottom edges visible. On either side are several maple leaves and dogwood flowers, all in white. This is set on a wreath of twisted cloth in white, light blue and blue.

The books are a traditional symbol of education and the arrangement is inspired by the corporate emblem used when we were Capilano College. The maple leaves and dogwood flowers make reference to the fact that the University is located in British Columbia, Canada.

Arms

The main part of the shield is white, depicting a salmon. Salmon are an important feature of local wildlife and are shown here in the artistic style of Coast Salish Peoples. The waves at the bottom of the shield indicate the University's location near the Pacific Ocean and the top section represents the nearby Coast Mountains.

MACE

The mace depicts the authority vested in the University to grant degrees and also incorporates the history and tradition that surrounds both the territory near our regional campuses and the vision of Capilano University.

The mace's design portrays the unique territorial qualities of our region, which extends from Deep Cove to Mt. Currie to Earls Cove on the Sunshine Coast. These qualities include reference to the animal world, to the landscape, to directional symbolism and to the human element. The mace is carved from yew, which is a natural wood found in our region.

Responsibilities for bearing the mace originated in the office of the Bedellus, or Beadle, and date back to the University of Glasgow, which was founded in 1451.

The function of the Bedellus was to keep the students in order, and on the days of public functions, he arranged the seats for dignitaries.

The duties of the Bedellus have varied greatly over the centuries. In the 17th and 18th centuries, the incumbent was required to regulate bonfire settings and purchase university supplies. Officially, the Bedellus is responsible for administration of the university's facilities.

The most prominent role of the Bedellus was and continues to be on ceremonial occasions, leading the academic procession and carrying the university mace. In 2021, our ceremonial mace will be carried by Stephen Williams, vice-chair of the Capilano University Senate.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners suspended on a crossbar. They are one of the traditional components of academic ceremonies that lend colour and dignity to processions and stages. At Capilano University, gonfalons are used in the Convocation ceremonies and represent each of the University's five faculties: Faculty of Arts & Sciences (teal), Faculty of Business & Professional Studies (dark blue), Faculty of Education, Health & Human Development (orange), Faculty of Fine & Applied Arts (red) and Faculty of Global & Community Studies (light green).

LEGACY CANOE

In celebration of our 50th anniversary in 2018, CapU commissioned Squamish Nation master carver Ses siyam (Ray Natraoro) to build a traditional Coast Salish canoe as a legacy for future generations and a symbol of the University's commitment to Truth and Reconciliation.

The 30-foot-long seaworthy canoe, named Skw'cháys in the Squamish Nation language, was carved at the North Vancouver campus in the winter of 2019, giving students, employees and the community the unique opportunity to witness the transformation from tree to canoe, and learn first-hand about Coast Salish traditions and culture.

REGALIA

The chancellor and vice-chancellor robes are based on traditional academic ceremonial gowns. Capilano University's chancellor's gown is black brocade with a woven dogwood flower motif, trimmed in gold brocade and edged with royal blue silk trim.

The dogwood is British Columbia's official flower. The four gold bands on both the upper and lower gothic sleeves each represent Capilano's more than four decades as an educational institution.

The vice-chancellor's robes are in the same black brocade with the dogwood motif, trimmed in silver brocade and edged with royal blue silk.

The robes were designed by Jane Still from CapU's Costuming for Stage and Screen program in the School of Motion Picture Arts. They were built by Deborah Gyug, a master of costume construction.

HOW CAPILANO UNIVERSITY GOT ITS NAME

In 1968, residents of the North Shore submitted names for the newly formed regional college operating on the grounds of West Vancouver Secondary School. The name Capilano was selected to honour Sa7plek (Chief Joe Capilano), a well-known Coast Salish carver, a spokesperson on history and culture, and an advocate for education.

Born in 1850, Sa7plek was a respected leader and chief of the Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation. Skwxwú7mesh is a reference to 'people of the sacred water,' as the Squamish River was well-known for its curative qualities. Capilano University's North Vancouver campus sits on Skwxwú7mesh territory, which encompasses parts of the Lower Mainland and Sea-to-Sky Corridor.

In 1906, Sa7plek led a delegation of chiefs to England, with the intention of meeting with King Edward VII. While there, he was introduced to Canadian poet Pauline Johnson. They became good friends and after she moved to B.C.'s West Coast, Sa7plek shared his legends, which she later recounted in her books and poetry.

Capilano University was named after Sa7plek (Chief Joe Capilano) of the Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation. Photo (taken in 1906) courtesy of the North Vancouver Museum and Archives.
