Credits:	3	E-mail:
Classroom/Lab:		Office
Scheduled:		Hours:

COURSE FORMAT: 3 hours per week for 15 weeks, plus fourth hour activities

PREREQUISITES: 15 credits of 100 level or higher coursework including TOUR 111, or REC 111, or TOUR 160

FOURTH HOUR: Fourth hour activities for this course may include on-line instruction, small group meetings with faculty, tutorials, field trips, or industry events.

COURSE OUTCOMES: This course provides students with a broad understanding of the Food and Beverage division in a hotel, with exposure to both front and back of house areas. The course looks at the decisions hotel Food and Beverage departments need to make in order to run efficient, competitive, lean and profitable operations. Students will review current business practices, discuss process for improving efficiency in order to minimize resources and maximize customer experience in the Food and Beverage department. Students will address how the Food and Beverage division interacts with guests and the overall hotel. Topics will include service, culinary and stewarding operations, menu planning, and selling the products. This course is not a culinary course, but rather is focused on the operations of the overall Food and Beverage division. This course combined with TOUR 252 provides the same theoretical foundation as TOUR 250, with additional content related to the Food and Beverage division of hotels.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to demonstrate competence in the following abilities and skills:

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- 1. Understand key concepts and terminology in order to effectively communicate with Food and Beverage staff
- 2. Demonstrate an understanding of the importance of operations management to the success of the Food and Beverage division of hotels.
- 3. Apply various quality techniques in order to measure quality, ensure safety and maintain consistency.
- 4. Effectively manage inventory to meet customer demand while maintaining efficient levels for business.
- 5. Apply techniques such as process flowcharting to analyze processes in all functional areas of the Food and Beverage division
- 6. Use revenue management principles to understand issues such as business volume and section sizes.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES:

Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grade), Student Conduct, Cheating and Plagiarism, Academic Probation and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.

In addition to the policies of the university, the Faculty of Tourism and Outdoor Recreation has the following policies governing the management of classes and curriculum.

FACULTY POLICIES:

Attendance:

Regular class attendance, and participation in course activities and assignments, is expected and likely essential to successfully achieving the course learning outcomes. Students are responsible for any and all content and instructions communicated during scheduled classes, in course handouts, and (if applicable) via course email and web sites. In cases where participation by all students is essential for conducting the planned instructional activities, attendance may be mandatory. In all cases, the attendance expectations and any penalties for missing instructional activities shall be clearly articulated on the course outline.

Attendance for weekend courses is mandatory.

No exemption from class time will be granted without appropriate medical documents or a proven emergency. Should a student choose to be absent they will receive a 15% deduction off the total final grade in the course for any day/or portion thereof missed. Students are required to make up all class work for which they were not in attendance.

Professional Behaviour:

Students must demonstrate a professional attitude and behaviour toward work, fellow students and their instructors. Each student should demonstrate reliability, respect for and co-operation with colleagues. A willingness to work calmly and courteously under difficult conditions as well as a determination to achieve first-class work while meeting deadlines is necessary. Students should have respect for equipment and systems. Students should display a constructive response to criticism.

Professional behaviour includes appropriate language use. Appropriate language use involves using respectful, moderate, and inclusive language at all times.

Cheating and Plagiarism:

Cheating is an act of deceit, fraud, distortion of the truth, or improper use of another person's effort to obtain an academic advantage. Cheating includes permitting another person to use one's work as their own. Plagiarism is the presentation of another person's work or ideas as if they were one's own. Plagiarism is both dishonest and a rejection of the principles of scholarship. Information about how to avoid plagiarism by proper documentation of sources is available in the Library, the Writing Centre and is published on the University website.

Penalties for Cheating and Plagiarism:

A grade of '0' for an examination, quiz or assignment or 'F' for the course may be assigned if cheating or plagiarism has taken place. First incidents deemed by the instructor to be particularly serious or second or subsequent incidents of cheating and plagiarism will be dealt with under the provisions of the University Policy on Cheating and Plagiarism (See the University website). All students should familiarize themselves with the University Policy on Cheating and Plagiarism as such behaviour can result in suspension from the University.

Missed Exams or Quizzes:

Will receive a grade of "0" unless PRIOR arrangements (wherever possible) are made with the instructor. Permission to make up an exam will only be given in extraordinary situations such as illness of the student or the death of a close family member. A doctor's certificate, or other proof supporting the reason for the absence, may be required.

English Usage:

All assignments are marked for correct English usage, proofreading and formatting, up to a maximum of 15% of the total mark for that assignment.

Assignments:

Homework assignments are due at the start of class on the due date unless otherwise advised by your instructor. Late assignments will only be accepted if prior approval for a late submission date has been given by the instructor.

Programmable Tools:

The use of programmable items such as calculators, and dictionaries etc. is forbidden during tests, quizzes, and exams. Cell phones are not to be brought to any test, quiz, or exam.

Incomplete Grades:

Incomplete grades will not be given unless special arrangements have been made with the instructor prior to the exam period.

Copyright Policy:

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and abide by the University's Copyright Policy. The University's Copyright Policy is published in the University website.
