COURSE FORMAT

100 hours of supervised applied learning experience over 15 weeks

COURSE PREREQUISITES

60 credits of 100-level or higher coursework

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Directed Studies is a student driven course intended for students that demonstrate clear interest and capabilities in a selected topic in a subject area that is not included in any other available course. The purpose of this course is for students to gain relevant experience, and to make an easier transition into the workforce. Major emphasis of this experience is to allow students to put existing tourism skills into practice while learning new sector-related skills and knowledge in the context of their applied topic.

COURSE NOTE

Individual TOUR 306 proposal approved through a departmental approval process. Students must work with their instructor to clearly articulate the intended outcomes for their term of directed study.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND/OR RESOURCES

Resources are determined by the student in consultation with the faculty advisor

COURSE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

On successful completion of this course, students will be able to do the following:

1.	Develop a detailed project charter that includes a statement of the purpose and scope of the directed study
2.	Negotiate the learning outcomes and project deliverables with the faculty supervisor.
3.	Utilize existing skills, learn new skills, and experience life as part of the workforce.
4.	Demonstrate competence in a written or oral communication by producing a report that fulfills the agreed-on deliverables

COURSE CONTENT

1	Students will meet the instructional objectives of the course under the guidance and direction of the faculty liaison.
2	Students will meet or contact the faculty liaison when necessary to discuss their progress and performance.
3	The student will write a comprehensive directed study report following the guidelines listed in the directed study report documentation.
4	The student will ensure specified deliverables are met and are documented.

EVALUATION PROFILE

Policy Statement (S2009-06)

Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grade), Student Conduct, Academic Integrity, Academic Probation and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.

Academic Integrity (S2017-05)

Any instance of academic dishonesty or breach of the standards of academic integrity is serious and students will be held accountable for their actions, whether acting alone or in a group. See policy and procedures S2017-05 Academic Integrity for more information: <https://www.capilanou.ca/about-capu/governance/policies/>

Violations of academic integrity, including dishonesty in assignments, examinations, or other academic performances, are prohibited and will be handled in accordance with the Student Academic Integrity Procedures.

Academic dishonesty is any act that breaches one or more of the principles of academic integrity. Acts of academic dishonesty may include but are not limited to the following types:

Cheating: Using or providing unauthorized aids, assistance or materials while preparing or completing assessments, or when completing practical work (in clinical, practicum, or lab settings), including but not limited to the following:

- Copying or attempting to copy the work of another during an assessment;
- Communicating work to another student during an examination;
- Using unauthorized aids, notes, or electronic devices or means during an examination;
- Unauthorized possession of an assessment or answer key; and/or,
- Submitting of a substantially similar assessment by two or more students, except in the case where such submission is specifically authorized by the instructor.

Fraud: Creation or use of falsified documents.

Misuse or misrepresentation of sources: Presenting source material in such a way as to distort its original purpose or implication(s); misattributing words, ideas, etc. to someone other than the original source; misrepresenting or manipulating research findings or data; and/or suppressing aspects of findings or data in order to present conclusions in a light other than the research, taken as a whole, would support.

Plagiarism: Presenting or submitting, as one's own work, the research, words, ideas, artistic imagery, arguments, calculations, illustrations, or diagrams of another person or persons without explicit or accurate citation or credit.

Self-Plagiarism: Submitting one's own work for credit in more than one course without the permission of the instructors, or re-submitting work, in whole or in part, for which credit has already been granted without permission of the instructors.

Prohibited Conduct: The following are examples of other conduct specifically prohibited:

- Taking unauthorized possession of the work of another student (for example, intercepting and removing such work from a photocopier or printer, or collecting the graded work of another student from a stack of papers);
- Falsifying one's own and/or other students' attendance in a course;
- Impersonating or allowing the impersonation of an individual;
- Modifying a graded assessment then submitting it for re-grading; or,
- Assisting or attempting to assist another person to commit any breach of academic integrity.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

All Members of the University Community have the right to work, teach and study in an environment that is free from all forms of sexual violence and misconduct. Policy B401 defines sexual assault as follows:

Sexual assault is any form of sexual contact that occurs without ongoing and freely given consent, including the threat of sexual contact without consent. Sexual assault can be committed by a stranger, someone known to the survivor or an intimate partner.

Safety and security at the University are a priority and any form of sexual violence and misconduct will not be tolerated or condoned. The University expects all Students and Members of the University Community to abide by all laws and University policies, including B.401 Sexual Violence and Misconduct Policy and B.401.1 Sexual Violence and Misconduct Procedure (found on Policy page <https://www.capilanou.ca/about-capu/governance/policies/>)

Emergencies: Students are expected to familiarise themselves with the emergency policies where appropriate and the emergency procedures posted on the wall of the classroom.
