OPERATIONAL DETAILS

Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grade), Student Conduct, Cheating and Plagiarism, Academic Probation, and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.

Attendance: Student attendance at each class is vital, and students are responsible for all announcements made in class. Attendance alone, however, does not constitute adequate participation. Any reading assignment should be prepared before the class in which it will be considered. Expect quizzes on readings. Failure to participate and/or to prepare work will result in a low mark for participation. In-class work will be completed only during the class in which it is assigned.

Late Assignments: Penalty: 10% a day up to 3 days, then zero for the assignment. Students may establish their date of submission by emailing the instructor their assignment as an attachment and handing in their hard copy at the next class meeting. Students are granted 6 extension days per term and may use a portion of them on any of the three essay assignments; such essays receive my usual forms of comment. Late essays receive no comments, only a grade.

Missed Exams: Make-up tests are given at the discretion of the instructor. They are generally given only in medical emergencies or severe personal crisis. Students should be prepared to provide proof of inability to write the test on the scheduled date (e.g. letter from doctor).

English Usage: It is the responsibility of students to proof-read all written work for any grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors. Marks will be deducted for incorrect grammar and spelling in written assignments.

Incomplete Grades: Given at the discretion of the instructor. Generally given only in medical emergencies or severe personal crises.

Electronic Devices: No personal electronic devices (cell phones, pagers, calculators, electronic dictionaries, etc...) may be used during an examination without prior approval from the instructor. During an exam, turn off all cell phones and pagers and remove them from the desk.

Emergencies: Students are expected to familiarise themselves with the emergency procedures posted on the wall of the classroom.
