Research Paper: A research paper of 3000-4000 words, drawing upon course themes, readings, and independently researched materials. Topics and instructions will be distributed and discussed during the second day of class.

Midterm Exam: The midterm exam will evaluate students on their comprehension and understanding of the course material. It will cover all material from lectures, readings, fourth hour activities, and any audio-visual materials used in the course prior to this point.

Final Exam: The final exam will be cumulative and will cover all the material from lectures, readings, fourth hour activities, and any audio-visual materials used in the course.

Fourth Hour Activities:

Information and directions related to "Fourth Hour" activities will be discussed during the first week of class.

Participation: Participation grades are based on several factors including proper preparation for class; active and useful participation in discussions both formal and informal of readings; on attitude to the class, towards the material, and towards others. "Make-ups" are not available for missed activities counting towards your participation grade. Details related to the group discussions will be announced and discussed in class.

OPERATIONAL DETAILS:

Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grade), Student Conduct, Cheating and Plagiarism, Academic Probation and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.

Attendance:

In essence, it is virtually impossible to do well if you do not attend. Those students frequently absent from class will be at a considerable disadvantage, as lectures may draw on but will not generally duplicate the text or readings. Should you miss a class, understand that it is your responsibility to make yourself aware of all the material covered during the class.

Late Essay Assignments:

Late essay provisions will be included with the essay directions.

Missed Exams: Make-up tests are given at the discretion of the instructor. They are generally given only in medical emergencies or severe personal crisis. Students should be prepared to provide proof of inability to write the test on the scheduled date (e.g.

letter from doctor).

English Usage: It is the responsibility of students to proof-read all written work for any grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors. Marks will be deducted for incorrect grammar and spelling in written assignments.

Incomplete Grades: Given at the discretion of the instructor. These are generally granted only in medical emergencies or severe personal crises.

Electronic Devices: No personal electronic devices (cell phones, pagers, calculators, electronic dictionaries, etc...) may be used during an examination without prior approval from the instructor. During an exam, turn off all cell phones and pagers and remove them from the desk.

Emergency Procedures

Students are expected to familiarise themselves with the emergency procedures posted on the wall of the classroom.
