Scholarship, bursary, and award opportunities outlined in this document are not administered by Capilano University. This information is intended for general reference only and may be subject to change. Financial Aid and Awards at Capilano University is not responsible for information contained on any third-party websites. Students are responsible for enquiring and applying through the appropriate agency as indicated in the award description. Inclusion of an external award in this document does not imply that Capilano University endorses the award or the organization offering the award.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE:

- ✓ Click the hyperlinked award name in the left “Award” column to visit the organization's website and to learn more details about the award including how to apply, eligibility requirements, deadlines, and award values.
- ✓ Check your Area of Study's column to see if this award may be available for students in your program. If your area of study is highlighted green, then that award may be relevant to you. Notes are provided where possible to elaborate on narrower program criteria; however, it is best to research each individual award for more details.
- ✓ Be sure to look at the Special Criteria column too. Any notes or criteria in this guide should be verified by researching the organization in question.
