Applicants who are 20 years of age or older and lack the minimum program admission requirements may apply as mature students. Written requests for admission as a mature student will be considered by the Registrar's Office in consultation with the program coordinator, where applicable. Applicants should provide written details of other qualifications or experiences and an academic transcript of education completed. An interview may be required with an academic advisor or with a program coordinator. Language requirements must still be met.

Home Schooled Students

- Home schooled applicants must provide proof that they have met secondary school graduation requirements from a recognized educational jurisdiction and also program specific minimum subject and academic admission requirements.
- In addition, all applicants are required to take provincial exams, or equivalent, for all courses in which they are mandatory.
- In cases where applicants do not meet the above-mentioned requirements, they must submit a Letter of Intent outlining the reasons for not being able to meet these requirements and provide SAT scores and/or any other relevant documentation for admission consideration.

Visiting Students

A student wishing to take a course at Capilano University to transfer back to their home post secondary institution may do so by applying to the University as a visiting student and submitting a letter of permission from their home institution to Capilano University. The Letter of Permission must indicate the course the student is permitted to take at the University and how it will transfer back to the home institution. The Letter of Permission must also specify the term in which the course may be taken. Official transcripts will be requested of Visiting Students depending on the course taken at the University. Permission to register as a Visiting Student must be approved on a term by term basis.

Transfer Students

Students who have successfully completed 12 or more credits in an academic program at a recognized college or university will be granted admission to the Arts and Sciences program based on the work completed.

TRANSFER CREDIT

All public B.C. post secondary institutions accept each other's credit upon transfer if applicable to a program at the admitting institution and if there is suitable equivalency.

Transfer credit may be granted for courses completed at other post secondary institutions. Students seeking transfer credit must complete the Request for Transfer Credit form, attach official transcripts, if not already submitted, or note that transcripts will be sent from another institution, and submit all to the Registrar's Office. For courses completed at out-of-province institutions, detailed course outlines must also be submitted.

All approved transfer credit is noted on the permanent student record. While the credit awarded does not affect the grade point average, the credit will be included in the total number of credits completed and may be used to complete certificate, diploma or degree requirements if applicable.

Limit of Transfer Credits

For diplomas, associate degrees, certificates, and citations, 50 per cent of the credit required must be completed at Capilano University. This may vary for some programs, and there may be additional course or time restrictions. See specific programs for more information.

For the associate degrees, at least 30 of the 60 credits must be completed at Capilano University within five years preceding the awarding of the degree. (See Associate Degree information).

For bachelor degrees, at least 25 per cent of the credit required must be completed at Capilano University and 24 upper level credits must be Capilano University courses. There may be additional course or time restrictions. Please see specific programs for more information.

Approved transfer credit is relevant at Capilano University only.

Students who have achieved strong A-level results may receive first year course credit. Capilano University determines credit for A-Level examined subjects on a case-by-case basis.

Prior Learning Assessment

Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) is a process whereby students may receive university credits for learning acquired in formal and informal situations. This process called Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) is of benefit to mature students who have work and life experiences that equate to courses offered at the University. For example, if you have on-the-job work experience in computers you may be able to receive credits offered in one or more office or business administration courses. You will need to demonstrate that you have acquired the knowledge, skills and values required in the formal courses for which you are requesting credit. This is done by providing evidence of what you have learned. This might include any one or combination of the following: a work site visit, documentation, interview, oral presentation, or portfolio. For more information about whether PLA is an option in the program for which you are applying, please contact the program coordinator.

The regular tuition fee for the course will be required for PLA. Prior Learning Assessment granted will be recorded on the permanent student record and will appear on the student's official university transcript.

Credit for PLA will apply to credentials earned at Capilano University. Students should be aware that other universities and colleges may not grant credit or transfer credit for credit received by PLA.

Registration

RIGHT TO REGISTER

A current Capilano University student who has not maintained satisfactory standing in a program in any term may be denied permission to register in that program in a subsequent term. Individual programs may require a GPA higher than that stated in the Academic Standing Policy to continue enrolment.

Returning Capilano University students who do not attend classes for a Fall or Spring term must apply for readmission. Students who wish to change programs must also apply for readmission. Apply online via Capilano University Apply Now.

Failure to Pay Fees and Charges. Students who fail to pay fees by the established deadlines, have lost library book replacement fees or other university charges, have not repaid emergency loans or in any other manner have not discharged all financial obligations to the University, will not be issued transcripts or permitted to enrol or re-enrol. They will also not be able to take advantage of some university services.

INSTRUCTIONAL YEAR

The instructional year is comprised of three terms:

Registration

Fall: September through December

Spring: January through April

Summer:

- Session I: May through June
- Session II: July through August
- Full Term: May through August

Note

A limited number of courses are offered during the Summer term.

MATH PLACEMENT TEST (MPT)

The Mathematics and Statistics Department offers placement tests for students who lack the prerequisites for the entry level courses listed in the Prerequisite Table for Entry Courses in the Math and Statistics section. For each placement test there is a study guide which provides suggested review material and lists the scheduled test dates. With the exception of the placement test for admission into MATH 097 students are not allowed to rewrite the same level of placement test within a twelve month period. The waiting period to rewrite the placement test for entry into MATH 097 is one month or longer. For more information please contact the Advising Centre or the Pure and Applied Sciences Division, or visit the Mathematics and Statistics Department website at www.capilanou.ca/math

Students wanting to enrol in an entry level course must write a placement test if they do not satisfy the prerequisite requirements for the course.

Students with prerequisites that are more than twelve months old are strongly advised to write the MPT and to follow its placement recommendation. MPT results are valid for a one year period.

Note

The cost to write a Math Placement Test is $25. Payment can either be made in person at the Cashier's Office during regular business hours (www.capilanou.ca/services/Cashiers-Office) or by completing a Math Placement Test Credit Card Payment form found online at www.capilanou.ca/MPT, and by either e-mailing a scanned copy of this completed credit card form to the Cashier's Office at finserv@capilanou.ca or by faxing it to 604.984.1723.

ENGLISH DIAGNOSTIC TEST (EDT)

Students who wish to enrol in English courses must submit the results of the Capilano University English Diagnostic Test (EDT) or the Language Proficiency Index Test (LPI). EDT and LPI results are valid for 5 years from the date of testing.

Students with any one of the following are exempt from this requirement:

1. a final grade of 75% or higher in English 12, English 12 First Peoples or English Literature 12
2. a final grade of 4 or higher in an Advanced Placement course in English Composition or English Literature
3. a final grade of 6 or higher in the International Baccalaureate English A Standard Level, or 5 or higher in the International Baccalaureate English A Higher Level
4. a final grade B+ or higher in BENG 052
5. a final grade of C- or higher in an English transfer course from another university or college
6. a degree from an English-speaking university

7. a C grade or higher in FAL X99 from Simon Fraser University;

Note

Successful completion of any EAP course does not qualify a student to directly enter ENGL 010 or ENGL 100.

Note

Based on the EDT, students are placed in EAP, ENGL 010 or an ENGL 100 level course.

Note

Based on the LPI, students will be placed as follows:

Level	Score	Placement
1	10	EAP
3	18 - 22	English 010
4	24 or higher	English 100 recommended
5	30, 31, 32, 34	Any first-year English course
6	36 - 40	Any first-year English course

Students who wish to enrol in any English course who do not qualify for an exemption must submit the results of the Capilano University English Diagnostic Test (EDT) or the Language Proficiency Index Test (LPI) prior to registration. EDT schedules are available online at www.capilanou.ca/edt or in the timetable.

Note

Students must pay for the EDT through the Cashier's Office, North Vancouver campus. Students may also pay for Sunshine Coast or Squamish sittings of the EDT through those campuses. A fee of $50 is charged for this exam. Photo ID is required to write the EDT. No dictionaries or electronic devices are allowed in the exam.

Adding, Dropping or Changing Courses Before Classes Commence

Course Change Procedure

Students may drop or add courses or change sections following their initial registration. If you registered for your courses via the myCap (Student Information Web Service), you may continue to use this service to drop or add courses or change sections. If you registered for Career, Limited Enrolment, or Foundation courses via a paper Registration form, you must submit another Registration form to the Registrar's Office in order to add or drop a course or change sections.

During this period, instructor signatures are only accepted for changes to Career, Limited Enrolment, and Foundation courses that are submitted via paper Registration form. Career, Limited Enrolment, and Foundation students who registered online can continue to use this service to make changes.

Course drops will not be printed on the Official Transcript of Academic Record, but will be maintained in the permanent student record for accounting and statistical purposes.

Add/Drop Period

Full-Term Courses:

- for regular, full-term courses in Fall and Spring term: 1st through 10th day.
- for Summer courses 12-15 weeks in length: 1st through 10th day.
- for Summer courses seven or eight weeks in length: 1st through 5th day of the session.

All Other Courses: Please refer to the Capilano University website www.capilanou.ca/current/dates for add and drop dates for courses with start and end dates that differ from the full-term start and end dates (Non-Standard Add, Drop and Withdrawal Dates).

Add/Change Sections: Students will be able to add courses or change sections online during the first week of the add/drop period provided they have a valid Registration time ticket and the courses are available for web registration. All other course adds or section changes will require submission of a signed course Registration form to the Registrar's Office with the instructor's signature.

If you registered for Career, Limited Enrolment, or Foundation courses via paper Registration form, you must submit a Registration form to the Registrar's Office in order to drop a course. The instructor's signature is required on all Registration forms.

Course drops will not be printed on the Official Transcript of Academic Record during this period; however, a record for drops will be maintained on the permanent student record for accounting and statistical purposes.

Note

Failure to attend classes does not constitute a course drop. Students who do not formally drop a course(s) will be assessed tuition fees, refunds will not be made, and a grade of Fail (F) will be noted on the Official Transcript of Academic Record. Requests for late adds or late drops will not be granted simply because the student was unaware of, or neglected to comply with, the University policies and procedures.

Audit Status: Only during the Add/Drop Period will you be permitted to register as an audit student, providing space is available and you have the instructor's approval. In order to change from credit to audit or audit to credit during the Add/Drop Period you must submit a Registration form to the Registrar's Office. For those students who do not meet the attendance requirement, their permanent student record and transcript will be annotated with the comment 'Audit Denied'. Audit status is not calculated in GPA, does not have credit and cannot be used toward the completion of a credential. For more information on Audit enrolment please see the Academic Policies and Procedures section of the Calendar.

Withdrawal Period

If you registered for Career, Vocational, or Foundation courses via paper Registration form, you must submit a Registration form to the Registrar's Office in order to withdraw from a course. The instructor's signature is required on all Registration forms.

A withdrawal ("W") will be noted on the Official Transcript of Academic Record.

Post Withdrawal Period

Request for an Application for an Extenuating Withdrawal

Students who have medical or compassionate circumstances may apply for consideration of an extenuating withdrawal. Extenuating withdrawal requests will normally only be reviewed within one year of the course.

The submission of a request does not guarantee that an extenuating withdrawal will be granted. If, in the opinion of the Registrar, the request does not fall under medical or compassionate reasons, or the documentation is insufficient to support the request, the request will be denied. Withdrawal for medical or compassionate reasons will not be granted for lack of academic performance on the part of the student. If a request is granted, the permanent student record will be annotated as Withdrawal for Extenuating Circumstances (WE).

To Submit a Request:

1. Print and complete the Application for Extenuating Withdrawal.
2. Attach a letter explaining the reason for your request along with any supporting documentation (e.g. a letter from a physician, an official copy of an accident report, or official documentation of a family emergency, death certificate, and so forth).
3. Submit all documentation to the Registrar's Office.

Ways to Submit Your Request:

- In Person: Requests submitted in person should be brought to the Registrar's Office at Capilano University, Birch Building, Room 230, 2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver. To confirm the hours of operation for the Registrar's Office, please phone 604.984.4900.
- By Mail: Requests submitted by mail should be sent to Capilano University, Registrar's Office, 2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver, B.C., Canada, V7J 3H5.
- By Email: Requests submitted by email should be scanned and emailed to: registrarasistant@capilanou.ca.

Incomplete Grade "I"

1. If the student believes an exceptional circumstance exists which prevents him/her from completing the course during the regular time frame, the student may petition the course instructor for an incomplete ("I") grade.
2. An incomplete ("I") grade may be given where, in the judgment of the instructor, the student should have reasonable expectation of passing the course, but has not completed the required work.
3. An incomplete is assigned only when the instructor and student have arranged for the work to be completed by a specified date within four months of the end of term. If the student does not complete the work by the specified date, the Registrar will automatically assign a predetermined grade reflecting the work not completed.
4. If the student completes the work by the specified time, the instructor will assign the final grade.
5. If this incomplete procedure cannot be applied in the opinion of the instructor, the instructor is directed to contact the Registrar directly for resolution of the issue.

COURSE OVERLOAD

1. Registration in more than five academic courses or more than the full requirements specified for a career or limited enrolment program constitutes a course overload.
2. Students may choose to register for a course overload (up to a total of 21 credits) as long as they have discussed their need or request for an overload with an academic advisor. Science students, however, are permitted to register for more than 16 credits, as long as the total credits do not exceed 21 credits and registration does not result in more than five courses.
3. Students may not register for a course overload until classes commence.

COURSE CHALLENGE

Admitted students may request a course challenge whereby an examination for achievement may be awarded for a very specific and limited selection of courses at the institution. Certain courses may not be challenged.

Students interested in this procedure should contact their instructor.

The regular tuition fee must be paid for a challenged course. A course challenged successfully will be recorded on the permanent student record.

Note

Credit for courses challenged successfully will apply to credentials earned at Capilano University. Students should be aware that other universities and colleges may not grant credit or transfer credit for credit received by course challenge.

General Education Outcome

In support of the specific knowledge, understanding, and skills developed in individual programs, the institution has identified seven broad learning outcomes for all students. These institutional student learning outcomes are:

- Self-directed learning, awareness, and responsibility
- Up-to-date information gathering and research skills

Graduation

- Communication skills
- Quantitative reasoning ability
- Group and social interaction skills
- Creative, critical, and analytical thinking skills
- Community/global consciousness and responsibility

Student achievement of these outcomes will be defined within the context of each program. While different programs of study will have a different emphasis on each of these outcomes and differing levels of expected competence, all programs will be addressing every outcome.

Graduation

The formal Convocation ceremony is held in June. However, credentials are issued 3 times per year after each term.

Students who believe they will complete their program of study by the end of their current term of enrolment must submit an Application for Graduation by the deadline listed in the Academic Schedule at the beginning of this calendar. Late applications will be assessed a $50 late fee. To apply for graduation go to Application for Graduation Assessment on the Capilano University website.

Students should be advised that for Bachelor's Degree completion at Capilano University, 25% of course work must be completed at this institution. In some cases, the 25% requirement may include specific courses or time restrictions. In addition to the minimum overall GPA of 2.0, for baccalaureate degrees a GPA of 2.0 in upper level courses is required. Also, 24 upper level credits must be Capilano University courses. Please see specific programs in this document for details.

In the case of all other credentials (associate degrees, diplomas, advanced diplomas, certificates, advanced certificates, citations and statements of completion) 50% of all course work must be completed at Capilano University. In some cases, the 50% requirement may include specific courses or time restrictions. Please see specific programs for details.

APPLYING TO DO GRADUATE WORK OR PROFESSIONAL STUDIES AFTER COMPLETION OF A DEGREE

Universities in Canada and abroad are autonomous institutions and set their own admission criteria. Applicants are generally considered for admission based on their individual merits according to the admission standards set by the institution, faculty or program. As affirmed by the Council of Ontario Universities (December 7, 2006) "Applicants to provincially assisted universities in Ontario are considered for admission on an individual basis in a process whereby the appropriate range of academic and other relevant evidence is weighed." Students who are interested in further studies after completing degree programs are advised to consult the University's advising service at the institutions to which they are applying about the detailed requirements for admission.

Academic Policies and Procedures

ATTENDANCE (POLICY S1990-01)

Regular class attendance, and participation in course activities and assignments, is expected and likely essential to successfully achieving the course learning outcomes. Students are responsible for any and all content and instructions communicated during scheduled classes, in course handouts, and (if applicable), via course email and web sites. In cases where participation by all students is essential for conducting the planned instructional activities, attendance may be mandatory. In all cases, the attendance expectations and any penalties for missing instructional activities shall be clearly articulated on the course outline.

ENROLMENT STATUS

Full-time Student (POLICY S2002-04): A full-time student at Capilano University is enrolled in nine or more credits in a given term.

Generally, for provincial and federal financial aid purposes, a student registered in a minimum of nine credits will be considered to have met the enrolment requirement for government financial aid. Please verify eligibility with Financial Aid & Awards.

For participation in intercollegiate sports, enrolment in a minimum of nine credits will generally be considered to have met the enrolment requirement.

For most scholarships, the requirement for full-time status is 12 credits. Please refer to individual scholarship applications.

Audit: An audit enrolment indicates the student has registered in and will attend a course without writing examinations or submitting work, papers, lab reports, etc. Full fees are required for audit enrolment. Attendance at lectures, labs and seminars is required. For those students who do not meet the attendance requirement, their permanent student record and transcript will be annotated with the comment AUDIT DENIED. Audit status in a particular course is not calculated in the GPA, does not have credit attached, and may not be used toward completion of a credential.

Students are permitted to register for audit status in a particular course only as of the first day of classes, on a space available basis, with the instructor's signature. Students may change their registration in a course from credit to audit or audit to credit on or before the last day of the Add/Drop Period with the instructor's approval and signature.

ACADEMIC YEAR STANDING

Academic Year Standing is based on the number of credits completed within a program as noted below:

For enrolment verification purposes, Second Year Academic Standing will be assigned based on:

- Arts and Sciences and School of Business: successful completion of 24 credits in that program;
- Career programs: successful completion of 50 percent of the total credits required for a two-year diploma in a specified program, or 30 credits.

For enrolment verification purposes, Third Year Academic Standing will be assigned upon successful completion of 54 credits in a program. Fourth Year Academic Standing will be assigned upon successful completion of 84 credits in a program.

EXAMINATION PERIOD

The last two weeks of the fall and spring terms are designated as an examination period. If a final examination is to be given, it will take place during the examination period and will be up to three hours in duration. The last week of each summer session is designated as the examination period.

For some Career/Limited Enrolment/Foundation programs, classes will continue as regularly scheduled throughout the examination period. In addition, a special examination schedule may be set. Detailed information is available from instructors or program coordinators.

The examination schedule will be posted by the end of the eighth week of instruction for the fall and spring terms.

ACCESS TO RECORDS

All official permanent student records are kept in the Registrar's Office, and are considered confidential.

Students may be provided with a copy of their academic record upon written request to the Registrar's Office. Academic record information will only be released upon presentation of photo identification (i.e. valid driver's

Transcripts: Official transcripts are issued by the Registrar's Office, only at the request of the student, and are mailed directly to the institution or agency or to the student in a sealed envelope. Unofficial transcripts can be printed by students from myCap (Student Information Web Service).

USE OF PERSONAL EDUCATION NUMBER

Personal information on your student record will be used to verify your Personal Education Number (PEN) or to assign one to you. The PEN is a nine digit number assigned to each student as they enter the British Columbia educational system. This identification number follows the student through their K-12 and post-secondary education. The PEN is used for multiple purposes, including the distribution of funding to schools, transition analysis between schools, districts and post-secondary education, exams and student reporting.

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act guarantees the privacy of information that is collected, regulates how it is collected, and who has access to it. The PEN program follows the guidelines set out by the Freedom of Information and Protections of Privacy Act (www.bced.gov.bc.ca/pen/student/penfoi.htm). If you have any questions about the use of PEN, please contact the Privacy Coordinator in writing at: privacy@capilanou.ca or: Privacy Coordinator, 2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver, B.C., V7J 3H5.

PROTECTION OF PRIVACY AND ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Capilano University gathers and maintains information used for the purposes of admission, registration, alumni and other fundamental activities related to being a member of the Capilano University community and attending a public post-secondary institution in British Columbia. In signing an application for admission, or graduation, or a registration form, all applicants are advised that both the information they provide and any other information placed into the student record as per section 35 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of British Columbia, will be used on a confidential basis, for the purposes of admission, registration, research, alumni development, student association, and other purposes consistent with the mandate of the institution. Capilano University reserves the right for the Registrar to share information with the Ministry of Advanced Education, Training and Technology, or other related government agencies. Any questions concerning the collection and use of this information should be directed to the Privacy Coordinator: privacy@capilanou.ca.

EXEMPTION, SUBSTITUTION, TRANSFER CREDIT, PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT AND COURSE CHALLENGE

All requests for exemption, substitution or transfer credit must be submitted to the Registrar's Office on the Transfer Credit Request form. A decision will be made with the recommendation of an appropriate program coordinator, if applicable. The credit or action will be noted and approved by the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified in writing of the final decision.

Exemption	An exemption indicates a student is not required to complete a particular course(s) in a program because of successful completion of a combination of post-secondary courses which, overall, constitute equal content. Exemption Standing does not reduce the total number of credits required to complete a credential. Approved Exemption is not noted on the student's Official Transcript of Academic Record.
Substitution	A substitution indicates a Capilano course used in lieu of another Capilano course to complete a program's requirements. Credit must be equal. Approved Substitution is not noted on the student's Official Transcript of Academic Record.
Transfer Credit	Capilano University (Capilano) is a strong supporter of the articulation of transfer of courses and programs between institutions and supports the following principles: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The primary purpose for transfer is to increase student accessibility to post-secondary education by facilitating mobility between other institutions and Capilano.2. In any transfer arrangement the academic integrity of Capilano's courses and programs must be protected and preserved.3. Canada does not have a national system of accreditation; therefore, the term "recognition" is used in this document. See full policy for more detail: www.capilanou.ca/about/governance/policies/Policies/
Prior Learning Assessment (PLA)	At Capilano University our mission is to enable student success in current and continuing studies, in a chosen career, in the pursuit of knowledge, and in contributing effectively as responsible citizens in a rapidly changing and diverse global community. To accomplish its mission, Capilano University strives to provide a dynamic and secure learning environment committed to excellence in education and to equity of access. To ensure "equity of access" Capilano University recognizes that students may have attained significant learning at a post-secondary level from work, training and other experiences outside the formal post-secondary education system. Those who have gained such learning should be able to receive credit for that learning and build on it in pursuing further education at Capilano University. See policy for my detail at: www.capilanou.ca/about/governance/policies/Policies/.
Course Challenge	Admitted students may request a course challenge whereby an examination for achievement may be awarded for a very specific and limited selection of courses at the institution. Certain courses may not be challenged. Students interested in this procedure should contact their instructor.

Academic Policies and Procedures

The regular tuition fee must be paid for a challenged course. A course challenged successfully will be recorded on the permanent student record.

Note: Transfer credit, exemption, substitution, PLA, or Course Challenge granted is only relevant for Capilano University. Other institutions to which you may transfer will re-evaluate your credits at the time of application to that institution.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Grade performance is expressed in terms of a grade point average (GPA). GPAs are reported on each Official Transcript of Academic Record. To calculate the term GPA, the grade point value for each grade is multiplied by the credit hours to produce a number of grade points for each course. For example, an "A" received in a three-credit course would become, for purposes of the calculation:

$$A = 4.00 \times 3\text{cr} = 12 \text{ grade points}$$

To calculate the term GPA, the sum of the grade points is then divided by the number of credit hours taken in one term only. Similarly, the cumulative GPA recorded is the sum of total grade points for all terms, divided by the number of credits for all terms of enrolment.

The minimum grade point average for graduation is 2.00. Some programs require higher or additional grade point average requirements for graduation purposes. Please refer to the relevant program section of the University Calendar for further information.

Participation

Up to a maximum of 10% of the total grade may be assigned to participation. (A percentage higher than 10% can be assigned with approval of the Dean). Where participation is included in the total grade, the definition of participation will be included in the course outline.

Audit

An audit indicates the student has registered in, and attended a course without writing examinations or submitting work, papers, lab reports, etc. An Audit status is not calculated in the GPA, does not have credit attached, and may not be used toward completion of a credential.

Audit Denied

Students registered as audit status are required to attend lectures, labs and seminars. For those students who do not meet the attendance requirement, their permanent student record and transcript will be annotated with the comment Audit Denied.

Withdrawal - Extenuating Circumstances

Withdrawal from a course after the end of the withdrawal period is only granted for exceptional circumstances, which are often related to a medical situation. Information about the documentation required for such withdrawal is available from the Registrar's Office.

CR or NC Grade

The grades CR or NC are assigned to courses in which a level of mastery is required for successful completion, but is not included in the GPA calculation.

F Grade

All Fail or 'F' grades recorded on the student's Official Transcript of Academic Record are assigned a value of zero in the calculation of a student's term and cumulative GPA.

I Grade

An 'I' grade or Incomplete may be assigned in exceptional circumstances when the student can achieve a passing grade by completing one or more units of the course. It is the student's responsibility to determine from the instructor what must be done to complete the course. If an Incomplete is not cleared within four months, the grade will be changed to the evaluation attained at the time the grade was assigned. For further information please see "Incomplete Grade 'I'" in the Registration section of this calendar.

Academic Appeals (POLICY S2015-03)

This policy applies to appeals on academic or disciplinary matters. In all cases, final appeals will be heard by the Senate Appeals Committee (SAC).

Under this policy, students can appeal from the two following types of University decision-making: academic decisions or discipline.

Academic Policies and Procedures

Academic decisions include:

1. Grades imposed for assignments, final exams, or courses;
2. Denial of withdrawal under extenuating circumstances;
3. Denial of admission or readmission; and
4. Restriction or discontinuation of enrolment.

Disciplinary decisions include those related to academic and non-academic misconduct.

See full policy for more detail at: www.capilano.ca/about/governance/policies/Policies/.

Repeated Courses (POLICY S2003-02)

Without the permission of the instructor, a student may take the same course for a second time (withdrawals are included). The grade for each of these two attempts will be recorded, but the higher of the two grades will be used in the calculation of the cumulative grade point average (CGPA).

With the permission of the instructor of the particular course or a designated faculty member, a student may take the same course for a third time. The grade for each of the three attempts will be recorded, but the higher grade of the last two grades will be used in the calculation of the CGPA.

There are two types of academic honours at Capilano University: term honours and graduation honours.

Other Honours

The Governor General's Collegiate Bronze Medal

This award is presented to the graduate from a two-year program diploma or associate degree program who has achieved the highest cumulative grade point average, and who has attained this grade point average on a minimum of 15 credit hours per term, or full program load as outlined in the University Calendar, during attendance at Capilano University.

The Lieutenant Governor's Silver Medal

Awarded for academic excellence and contribution to the University and community to a graduate in a Career/Limited enrolment program of less than two years duration.

Academic Standing (POLICY S2003-03)

This policy is to provide direction regarding the assessment of student academic performance during their studies at Capilano University.

This policy relates to all students who register in credit (academic) courses at Capilano University.

Continuing and Professional Education (CE) courses at Capilano University and the students completing these courses are not subject to this policy.

Academic Policies and Procedures

Academic standing assessment is designed to provide feedback to students at the end of each term in regard to their term/cumulative standing to assist the student in maintaining an awareness of their ongoing academic standing.

Academic standing assessment is not designed to be a punitive tool. Instead, is meant to provide ongoing feedback of student academic standing. The assessment criteria is designed to ensure that students are provided with notification of standing in a fashion that is time sensitive and allows students the opportunity to seek academic assistance, if needed, and maintain or return to Good Academic Standing throughout their studies at Capilano University. To ensure that students have sufficient time to seek assistance, students cannot move more than one step lower in their academic standing in any given term but are able to return to Good Academic Standing over one term.

The Academic Standing Policy outlines the University standard for assessment of academic standing and continuance in University registration. Please note that individual programs, when approved by Senate, may have continuance standards separate from this policy. When program continuance standards are separate from this policy, it is expected that these standards are made available to their prospective and current students through their program web sites and in person.

Definitions

TGPA - Term Grade Point Average - the average of the final grades for all credit courses taken within that given term

CGPA - Cumulative Grade Point Average - the average of the final grades for all credit courses taken since first admission to the university

RTW - Required to Withdraw

Academic Performance Assessment Criteria

Capilano University will assess Academic Standing based on the following criteria:

1. Upon completion of 9 credits of course work after the first admission to the university
2. Using only grades assigned by Capilano University
3. Using only standard letter grades A+ through F.

Good Academic Standing	Students at Capilano University are deemed to be in Good Academic Standing if both their TGPA and their CGPA are 1.80 or higher. The notation "Good Academic Standing" is recorded on the student's permanent student record and the student transcript for each term where this standing is granted. Until such time that a student has completed 9 credits at the university there is no Academic Standing evaluation completed for the student and the notation "Good Academic Standing" will be noted on their student record and their student transcript. Academic Standing will be evaluated at the completion of every term after the first standing evaluation occurs.
Academic Alert	Students who achieve a TGPA and/or CGPA of less than 1.80 are placed on Academic Alert. The Academic Alert notation is listed on the student's permanent record but is not noted on the student transcript. Students on Academic Alert will continue to have the notation of Good Academic Standing on their student transcript.

The Academic Alert standing is designed to provide students with an early warning regarding the potential shift in the academic standing. This early warning is provided to ensure that students are able to seek out services, both at the university and otherwise, to support their learning.

Academic Probation

Students who achieve a CGPA of less than 1.67 are placed on Academic Probation. The Academic Probation notation is listed on the student's permanent record and is noted on the student academic transcript.

Required to Withdraw

Students on Academic Probation will be RTW if they achieve a CGPA of less than 1.59 and a TGPA of less than 1.67. The RTW notation is listed on the student's permanent record and is noted on the student academic transcript.

Students will be RTW for a minimum of one major term (Fall or Spring). Students who have registered for a subsequent term but who are RTW will be deregistered from that subsequent term and will be refunded their fees in full.

Re-Admission After Required to Withdraw Status

To return to studies students are required to submit an Application for Admission/Readmission with the required application fee. Students who are readmitted are readmitted on Academic Probation and are subject to the conditions of Academic Probation as outlined in the previous sections.

ONLINE PROGRAMS

Attend a course at anytime, from anywhere. Whether you are working full time, travelling for your business, or prefer to learn at home, there is nothing more convenient than online learning.

For more information, see webapps.capilano.ca/moodle.

CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION

Co-operative education integrates a period of the classroom learning with periods of work experience to enable students to apply their knowledge and skills. Students alternate periods of full-time study with periods of paid and unpaid employment in business, industry, government and non-profit organizations. The goal is to develop high caliber graduates, better able to assume productive jobs.

Employers may use co-op students to assist in building a work force that meets the short term needs of their organization. Students can undertake special projects and provide relief for permanent staff who may be undertaking other tasks. In the longer term, employers have a cost effective means of evaluating potential future employees.

Co-op education also helps the university to develop contracts with the business community in general, as well as receive immediate feedback on the quality of relevance of our program and the quality of our students.

Obtain valuable hands-on experience. The co-op experience provides students with a superior, well-rounded education enriched by the practical application of their skills.

Capilano University offers the following cooperative education programs:

The counsellors at Capilano are professionals trained to provide a variety of counselling services designed to promote and support students' academic success, identification and achievement of appropriate career goals, and personal growth.

At present, the Counselling Department offers the following services to Capilano students:

Student Success Counselling helps students explore issues related to academic success such as time management, goal setting, motivation, procrastination and stress management. Students are advised to consult with a counsellor when experiencing academic difficulty. Students must see a counsellor when pursuing a Final Grade Appeal.

Personal Support Services

Career Counselling offers help to students who are having trouble deciding on a career, who perhaps feel unsure, confused, or lacking motivation. Counselling and assessment can help students make realistic career plans based on their interests, abilities and values. Students can also use Career Cruising, an online self-directed program to explore career choices.

Personal Counselling is available to help students who are experiencing personal difficulties which affect their ability to succeed in post-secondary studies. Counsellors can help students to clarify issues, overcome obstacles and find effective ways of dealing with their problems. Counsellors can also refer students to community agencies for further assistance.

Workshops and Outreach Programs designed to help students succeed are offered throughout the term in such areas as career exploration, goal-setting, test anxiety, procrastination, stress management, self-esteem, assertion training and anger management.

USS 100, Introduction to University Success Strategies, is a three credit course that teaches students the academic and personal skills necessary to succeed at university.

CHILD CARE

Capilano University offers full-time child care for infants, toddlers and three to five year olds at the Children's Centre on the North Vancouver campus. Some part-time spaces are also available. Child care spaces are first offered to children of Capilano University students, then children of employees. Children of community members may be admitted if space is available. The Centre provides a balance of activities that help children to progress in their social, emotional, physical and cognitive development. Through collaboration with parents the Center is able to develop a quality child care community that respects and values the uniqueness and contribution of all children and families.

Groups are small and program activities are planned so that children can successfully meet challenges and learn positive ways of interacting with one another. Clear and reasonable limits are set to ensure the safety of each child, the protection of personal rights and protection of property. The daily program includes a regular schedule of indoor and outdoor play, bathroom routines, snack and lunch, rest time and group times.

Because the Centre is located on the beautiful North Vancouver campus of Capilano University, occasional group walks are planned. In addition, the Center benefits from the services and facilities of the university including availability of campus health services, campus security, emergency preparedness, and facilities maintenance.

The Centre works closely with the Early Childhood Care and Education department. Students in the Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) program at the University are learning to be teachers in child care and other pre-school centres. Because practical experience is an essential part of their education, ECCE students observe and participate in Centre activities to learn how classroom techniques apply to a quality child care program. A limited number of students participate as student assistants for an extended period, working with the staff to provide a program children will enjoy. All student activities are carefully supervised by the staff of the Centre and ECCE instructors, and the needs of the children are always given first consideration.

The Centre is open weekdays except statutory holidays.

Provincial Child Care subsidies are available through the Ministry of Children and Family Development.

Applications for childcare are available at the Children's Centre.

STUDENTS' SOCIETY

The Capilano Students' Union (CSU) is a democratic autonomous organization dedicated to advancing the interests of students by working to achieve a system of post-secondary education which is accessible to all. Membership in the student society commences at registration and includes both part-time and full-time students. The society works to protect the rights of students and to advocate wherever decision making affects the quality of life for students at Capilano University. For example, the society appoints student representatives to university committees to ensure that student perspectives are a part of the University's decision making processes. The society also organizes social, political and cultural events and provides a variety of low-cost services to members.

The CSU's Board of Directors coordinate the campaigns, services, and activities of the society. Elections for all vacant or expiring positions on the board are held in the Spring term. Students interested in getting involved with their students' society are invited to drop by the Services Desk in the Library building or stop by the Administration office in the Maple building for an orientation. Students who wish to be involved in the campus community can join committees, participate in planning campaigns and events or relax and socialize in the student lounges.

Several valuable services are provided by the society such as the U-Pass BC, CSU Health & Dental Plan, tutor & housing registry, and more. The CSU Used Book Sale allows students to buy and sell used textbooks and save significantly on their textbook expenses. Students are encouraged to get their free copy of the Capilano Students' Union Handbook and Day Planner, which serves as a guide to the many resources the CSU has to offer. STUDENT NEWSPAPER

The Capilano Courier is Capilano University's student publication published 24 times throughout the fall and spring semesters. The courier works to cover stories important to students on and off campus. The Courier is run by an independent staff of students, autonomous from the student society and University administration.

Since the Courier is written, organized, and laid out on campus, there is always a need for help. Students are encouraged to take part in news and feature writing, reporting, editing, layout, photography, artwork, desktop publishing, graphic design and advertising.

The Courier welcomes input from the entire University community. Classified ads (which are free to students, staff, and faculty), letters, and other contributions can be submitted to their offices in room 122, Maple building.

Mandatory medical insurance is a condition of being a student at Capilano University. Quick Reference Sheet for Health & Dental Plans can be found under Health Insurance.

Basic Medical Insurance

The province of British Columbia requires all residents, including temporary residents on Study Permit, to purchase BC Medical Service Plan (BC MSP) coverage.

All residents of British Columbia are required by law to enrol with the Medical Services Plan (MSP) health insurance. 'Resident' is defined as a person who stays in BC longer than six months. There is a 3 month waiting period for BC MSP. During this period, students are required to purchase private interim coverage provided by Guard.Me. The cost of this plan is $2.00 per day for a minimum of 90 days.

The Extended Health and Dental insurance plan is organized by the Capilano Student Union (CSU) per referendum. This coverage provides extensive extended health, vision, travel (home country exception) and dental coverage. The cost of this insurance is $226.03 and covers the students from Sept 1 to Aug 31. The rate is prorated for students who begin their studies in January. The Student Union has created opportunities for part time students; and students who will study at the Sechelt or Squamish campuses with an opportunity to opt into this plan. See the CSU for more information or check www.ihaveaplan.ca.

Arts & Sciences

General Information

The Faculty of Arts and Sciences (FAS) at Capilano University provides students with a variety of options. Students can select from Bachelor degrees, Associate degrees, and diplomas. Students can enroll in FAS programs on a full or part-time basis. In addition, Arts and Sciences courses serve Capilano degree students in other Faculties as well as students who plan to transfer to other universities.

Academic instruction at Capilano is both disciplinary and interdisciplinary. Capilano carefully reviews the content and the delivery methods of its Arts and Sciences courses to ensure that those courses are current and that they meet university standards.

All courses require basic literacy in written and spoken English. That is, students must be able to understand the texts, other written materials, the instructor's spoken words, and they must be able to write assignments in correct English. Students who are uncertain of their oral and written English should speak to the instructor or to an advisor prior to registering for a course.

For those students who need extra help in basic skills, Capilano offers preparatory courses and academic support services (see Writing Centre, the Learning Specialist and the Math Learning Centre in the Services section of this Calendar).

Capilano library offers online and print collections, and research services to support all courses.

TRANSFER

Full information on transfer of specific courses is available from the Registrar's Office, Advising, or in the pertinent instructional division.

The BC Transfer Guide is available online at www.bctransferguide.ca. Students are urged to consult the online transfer guide when establishing their programs of study.

Transfer to Other Institutions

The Faculty of Arts and Sciences maintains transferability of their courses with other post-secondary institutions. Capilano's representatives meet regularly with those of other institutions to ensure that Capilano's first and second year courses are fully transferable.

Transfer from Other Institutions

There is agreement among all public B.C. post-secondary institutions to accept each other's credits upon transfer, if applicable to a program given in the admitting institution, and given suitable equivalency. Capilano University reserves the right to review individual course credit.

Transfer credits are granted to students on admission for acceptable work done at other institutions; the transfer credits reduce the total number of credits which are required at Capilano University for a certificate, diploma, or Associate Degree. Students wishing transfer credit should present suitable documentation to the Registrar's Office for adjudication by the appropriate faculty. All approved transfer credits are noted on the student's permanent student record.

Arts and Sciences Course Descriptions

Full descriptions of all Arts and Sciences courses can be found in the alphabetical listings in the course description section of this calendar. Students are urged to carefully read the general discipline information included in each section. Students are responsible for being familiar with the special information needed to select Arts and Sciences courses which transfer to other universities.

COURSE SELECTION AND ADVISING

Advising and Counselling departments can assist students in selecting the best program of studies. The final responsibility for course selection, however, rests with students. All Arts and Sciences students are advised to see an Admissions and Academic Advising Officer to plan their courses of study.

Anthropology

GENERAL INFORMATION

Anthropology is the study of humankind, offering views on the human condition from evolutionary and comparative perspectives. By developing an understanding and appreciation of cultural and biological diversity, courses in anthropology should be beneficial to all students. Students who have career aspirations as anthropologists may find work in teaching, research, or museum studies. They may also work as consultants to governments, corporations, and First Nations groups or Indigenous organizations.

Major branches of anthropology are social anthropology, archaeology, and biological anthropology. Students intending to take third and fourth year courses in any of these branches at UBC should take ANTH 121, 123, and any other 200-level anthropology course. Students intending on taking upper level courses in archaeology or biological anthropology at SFU should take ANTH 123, 124, 232 and 233. Those intending on taking third and fourth year courses in social anthropology at SFU should take ANTH 121, and at least one 200-level course numbered from 200-225.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/anthropology

Art History

GENERAL INFORMATION

Art history concerns itself with visual culture both past and present. Visual art is explored and analyzed in order to understand how it is composed and constructed and how it functions as a carrier and producer of meaning within society. Analytical tools that promote the critical decoding of images, so relevant in today's world, are emphasized in all art history courses.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/ahis/

TRANSFER CREDIT

Art history courses offered at Capilano University are transferable to UBC, SFU, UNBC, and UVic. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

CONCENTRATION IN ART HISTORY

To qualify for an art history concentration, students must complete an Associate of Arts Degree, including all six courses from List A below, and at least two courses from List B.

List A (Choose all). AHIS 100, AHIS 101, AHIS 106, AHIS 107, AHIS 210, AHIS 211

List B (Choose two). AHIS 104, AHIS 105, AHIS 109, AHIS 215, AHIS 220, AHIS 221, AHIS 231, AHIS 232

The role played by images and objects in constructions and perceptions of reality are both powerful and profound. This art history concentration within the Associate of Arts degree will provide students with a broad knowledge of art history and will cultivate a critical visual awareness with which to view the art and visual culture of both past and present.

Because the nature of art history is interdisciplinary, it draws not only from aesthetics and history, but also from religion, philosophy, politics, museum and culture studies, media and film studies, feminism and women's studies, and discourses on technology, thus giving students an understanding of the interconnectedness of cultural expressions that will be of value whether they enter the work force or continue on in academic studies.

The course requirements for this concentration include two first year chronological surveys, one that emphasizes the western European perspective and the other the art of the Americas, Africa, India, China, and Japan. This is in addition to the second year offering of a critical approach to the study of art in Europe and North America from the Enlightenment to the 21st century. Electives range in the first year from courses in the Introduction to Visual Culture to Women and Art, and in the second year, from the History of Textiles to Italian Renaissance Art and the Art of Technology.

Apply to the Registrar's Office to have the concentration in art history added to your Associate of Arts Degree at the time of graduation.

Biology

GENERAL INFORMATION

Biology is an increasingly exciting and rapidly expanding science. As the science of life, biology not only encompasses the study of the chemicals and cells of which organisms are composed, but extends to the study of global ecosystems and global biodiversity. Genetics, microbiology, cell biology, botany, zoology, ecology, evolution and conservation and restoration ecology are just a few of the fields of study embraced by the science of Biology.

Capilano University's Biology Department offers courses to meet a variety of educational needs. BIOL 104 and 105 meet the laboratory science requirements for Arts students and are general interest Biology courses. BIOL 112 and 113 are equivalent to first year human anatomy and physiology in many Human Health Science programs. (See online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca.)

Students planning a major in Biology or another life science, such as botany, cell biology, ecology, genetics, marine biology, microbiology, physiology, oceanography or zoology, should enrol in BIOL 110 and BIOL 111.

A complete selection of second year courses is available which meet the credit transfer requirements of all B.C. universities. Some of these courses may be included in the requirements for pre-professional programs, and for specific life science programs. Students who intend to enter professions such as agriculture, dentistry, medicine and pharmacy should consult the institutions offering the programs to determine the specific biology and other courses they require. * Not all second year courses are offered each year*. Students may also earn an Associate of Science Degree with a concentration in Biology. For more information, see Associate Degrees in Arts and Sciences: General Information.

All biology courses except BIOL 200 and BIOL 202 require weekly laboratory periods and/or field trips. Lab manuals for those courses requiring them must be purchased. Some courses have field trips which have extra costs associated with them. Some courses may have material costs associated with them.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/biology

*Refer to the above website for course offerings.

TRANSFER CREDIT

All biology courses transfer to B.C. post-secondary institutions. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

Chinese

GENERAL INFORMATION

All courses in Mandarin Chinese consist weekly of two lectures with an instructor plus one hour of conversation practice, and assignments in the multimedia lab on a drop-in basis (involving approximately 45 minutes on a weekly basis).

Students with a competence in the language beyond the level of the course in which they are registered will be required to withdraw. For example, native speakers of Mandarin and/or other Chinese dialects and those who have taken Mandarin courses in high school are not allowed in the first year courses. Students with some knowledge of Chinese must consult with the instructor for placement. University rules governing such students differ within departments, but the Languages department has correspondence dealing with matters relevant to credit transfer and point of entry. In order to avoid misunderstanding, students are invited to discuss these problems with the department prior to enrolment.

Students who are not sure of their language level must consult the instructor.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/languages/chinese

TRANSFER CREDIT

All Chinese courses at Capilano University transfer to other post-secondary institutions in British Columbia. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

Computing Science equips students with the fundamentals of computers and programming. First year courses are available. Second year courses are not currently offered. Students enrolled in these courses have excellent access to the University's computing facilities. Students planning to major in computing science will take COMP 121/126/202 to satisfy the first year computing science course requirements. Non-computing science majors seeking an introduction to computers and programming normally take one or more of COMP 101, COMP 106, COMP 107, COMP 108, and COMP 165.

Transfer Credit

Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

Prerequisites

Students must earn at least a C- grade in a prerequisite before being permitted to proceed with a subsequent course. Students should note that while a C- is the minimum required to proceed, a better grade is recommended to ensure the best chance of success in the subsequent course and a satisfactory GPA for transfer to a university.

Students will not be allowed to retake a prerequisite once they have completed a subsequent course with a C- grade or better.

Creative Writing

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE - CREATIVE WRITING

Creative writing involves the study and production of literary and non-literary texts through focused experimentation with language. Proceeding from the idea that good writing is produced at the intersection of expansive reading, informed critical thinking, and participation in a vibrant writing community, the Associate of Arts degree in Creative Writing combines instruction and practice in both creative and critical writing, hosts a literary readings series, supports a student magazine (The Liar), and provides internships, scholarships, bursaries, and awards.

Students in the first year of the concentration work in several genres (poetry, fiction, drama, screenwriting, mixed-genre, and new media). At the second-year level, students are expected to focus on poetry, fiction and/or children's literature. Students at all levels are encouraged to develop their work to the point where it would become acceptable for publication.

While the Associate of Arts degree in Creative Writing is designed to stand on its own, students who complete the program will obtain first and second-year transfer credit in both English and Creative Writing, allowing them to major or minor in either subject should they decide to transfer to another university.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/creative-writing/

Economics

GENERAL INFORMATION

Economics is the social science concerned with the allocation of scarce resources and the production, distribution and consumption of goods and services.

ECON 100 is an introductory course which raises and explores the kinds of issues that economists deal with. It therefore serves both as a survey course for those students planning to major in other areas of the social sciences and as an introduction to the discipline for those who are undecided about their future plans.

Students who plan to major in economics must complete ECON 111 and 112 before proceeding to second year courses at Capilano or other universities. Students who plan to major in economics at SFU are also advised to complete their second year economics requirements from ECON 210, 211, 212, 250, 252, 255, 290 or 291. ECON 250 and 252 are designed both for students majoring in economics and for other second year social science students who need economic history courses to complement their studies, e.g. political studies. Students who plan to enter the Commerce program must take ECON 111 and 112 in their first year.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/economics

Engineering

GENERAL INFORMATION

Capilano University is recognized provincially for producing high-quality engineering transfer students. The engineering transfer programs at Capilano are multidisciplinary, integrating the areas of chemistry, computing science, mathematics and physics through lectures, tutorial workshops, laboratories and hands-on projects. Seminars featuring invited speakers from other academic institutions, as well as from industry, are also used to complement the learning environment. Specifically Capilano University offers two engineering transfer programs: (i) the First-Year Engineering Program and (ii) the Engineering Transition Program. Since both programs are university transferable, the student transfers directly into the second year of the engineering program at the receiving institution.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/engineering

FIRST YEAR ENGINEERING PROGRAM

The First-Year Engineering Program at Capilano University, which is modelled after the common first year at the University of British Columbia's engineering programs, provides students with a comprehensive first-year university transfer program in engineering. The program is aimed at strong academic high school graduates and highly motivated post secondary science transfer students.

University Transfer

University of British Columbia (UBC)

The First-Year Engineering Program at Capilano University is modeled after first year engineering at the University of British Columbia (UBC). Students who complete the First-Year Engineering Program are guaranteed admission to second-year engineering at UBC, provided they satisfy the UBC requirements at the UBC Engineering Transfer Program Admissions website. The Faculty of Applied Science at UBC offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Applied Science (B.A.Sc.) degree in the following areas of engineering: Biological and Chemical, Civil, Computer, Electrical, Geological, Integrated, Mechanical, Materials, Mining, and Engineering Physics. Please consult the UBC Calendar or the UBC engineering website for more detailed information.

Simon Fraser University (SFU)

Students who complete the First Year Engineering Program with a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 and have completed a minimum 12 credit course load in the last term prior to transfer will be considered for admission to second-year engineering at SFU. The School of Engineering Science at SFU Burnaby offers four-year programs leading to a Bachelor of Applied Science (B.A.Sc.) degree in Biomedical Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electronics Engineering, Engineering Physics and Systems Engineering. Mechatronics Systems Engineering is available at SFU Surrey. Please consult the SFU Calendar or the SFU website for more detailed information.

University of Victoria (UVic)

Students who complete the First Year Engineering Program compete on an equal footing with UVic students for placement directly into second year engineering. The Faculty of Engineering at UVic offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Engineering (B.Eng.) degree in civil, electrical, mechanical, biomedical, software and computer engineering. UVic also offers a Bachelor of Software Engineering (B.S.Eng.) and a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science (B.Sc.) Please consult the UVic Calendar or the UVic website for more detailed information.

Admission Requirements

- BC Secondary School Graduation (Grade 12) or equivalent OR Mature Student status.
- A minimum grade of A in Pre-calculus 12, or a minimum grade of B in both Calculus 12 and Pre-calculus 12; and a minimum grade of B in both Physics 12 and Chemistry 12; and a minimum grade of C- in either English 12 or English 12 First Peoples.

Engineering

- English Language Requirement for students whose primary language is not English: Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): paper=560, computer=220, internet=83, or English Language Assessment (ELA)=145, or International English Language Testing System (IELTS)=6.5 overall, and no one score less than 6, or Canadian Academic English Language Assessment (CAEL)=70, or Pearson Test of English (PTE Academic)=56 or Capilano University EAP 100 and 101 with a minimum B+ grade in each course.

Admission/Application Notes

General

To apply for admission to the First-Year Engineering Program, students must complete the University's Application for Admission form with First-Year Engineering as their program of choice. This can be done in person or online. This form, together with official transcripts and other pertinent documents should be received by the Registrar's Office before the end of April. Entry to the program is limited to the fall term. Enrolment is limited and students are selected on the basis of their academic record. Students who apply to the program after April risk having their applications denied due to a lack of available space.

Qualified candidates are notified of their acceptance into the First-Year Engineering Program by mail. Acceptance begins in May, and continues through June. If you have not heard directly from us by July 1st, it indicates that your application has been reviewed and you have been placed on a waiting list. Depending on the number of applicants who accept or decline, additional offers will be made in July and August. Students must reply to the acceptance letter by a deadline, submitting a non-refundable deposit, to ensure a seat in the program.

Note

- Applicants who do not meet the minimum math requirement may write the Capilano University Math Placement Test (Calculus MPT) to be considered for admission.
- Students with less than 75% in English 12 or English 12 First Peoples will be required to write the EDT (English Diagnostic Test) or LPI (Language Proficiency Index) prior to registering in an English course.

Admission from Secondary School

Please see the admission requirements below. In addition, high school students are encouraged to graduate with Calculus 12 and at least one tech course if they intend to study engineering.

Admission from First Year Science

Students may apply for admission to the First-year Engineering Program after completion of some or all of first-year science. A minimum 2.5 GPA in courses, which transfer as part of the program, is required to be eligible. First-year science transfer students would typically take a mix of first-year engineering and second-year science courses. Students are advised to speak with the Engineering Convenor before applying to discuss program and transfer requirements.

Admission as Mature Student

Students who have been out of school for a number of years and those who wish to begin their studies towards an engineering degree are encouraged to apply for the Engineering Transition Program (see the relevant section of the Engineering website or the Capilano University Calendar).

Advancement in the First-Year Engineering Program

Any student whose Fall term GPA is below 1.8 in the core courses of the First-Year Engineering program, or who has failed to achieve the necessary prerequisite for Math 126 by the end of the Fall term will normally be required to withdraw from the First-Year Engineering program.

Scholarships

A number of scholarships administered by the University are available to engineering students. These include, but are not limited to, the following: Capilano Excellence Scholarships, Capilano Achievement Awards, the Eliza Kuttner Memorial Award, Jack Edson Scholarship, and the Dr. Fiorenza Albert-Howard Scholarship. For further information about award opportunities, visit the Financial Aid and Awards website.

ENGINEERING TRANSITION PROGRAM

The primary objective of the Engineering Transition Program is to give mature students an opportunity to obtain an applied science degree, and subsequently, to become professional engineers. However, the program will also cater to recent high school graduates who aspire to become engineers but lack the prerequisites for entry into a traditional engineering transfer program.

Transfer

University of British Columbia (UBC)

The Engineering Transition program was constructed for transfer to UBC. Completion of this two-year academic program with a grade point average of at least 2.8 on their most recent 30 credits would not only guarantee Capilano University students a clean transfer to second-year engineering at UBC, but once there, would also ensure them a reduced second-year workload. The Faculty of Applied Science at UBC offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Applied Science (B.A.Sc.) degree in the following areas of engineering: Biological and Chemical, Civil, Computer and Electrical, Geological, Integrated, Mechanical, Metals and Materials, Mining, and Engineering Physics. Please consult the UBC Calendar or the UBC engineering website for more detailed information.

The wide selection of courses and resources available reflect the variety of programs and professional degrees that English as a creditable discipline can facilitate. Presenting students with the principles and techniques of university-level writing and reading, English study remains fundamental to an array of opportunities and professional goals including freelance writing, teaching, publishing, law, art, social work, and business, among many others.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/english

TRANSFER CREDIT

All English courses (except for ENGL 010) transfer to other British Columbia universities. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

For first-year English transfer credit to the universities, students must take two courses of:

ENGL 100, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107 or 109.

For second-year English transfer credit to other universities, English majors should take English 200/201; all other second year students can take any two second-year level English courses.

British Columbia Secondary School Graduation (Grade 12) or equivalent with a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 (60%) calculated on English 12, or English 12 First Peoples, and three academic Grade 12 courses. Please see the Admission section of this calendar for a complete list of courses.

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE - ENGLISH CONCENTRATION

The Associate of Arts Degree with a Concentration in English offers small, discussion-oriented classes where students have the opportunity to think critically about English literature written in traditional and experimental modes, in a wide variety of genres and in the context of contemporary issues. Their reading could include Chuck Palahniuk's Fight Club, Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, George Bowering's Changing on the Fly, Kathy Acker's My Mother: Demonology, Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient, and much more. The concentration is designed to stand alone as a two-year Associate of Arts degree or to facilitate transfer to a minor or major in English at another British Columbia university.

History

GENERAL INFORMATION

History teaches an understanding of the past that helps people cope with the present and suggests possibilities for the future. Critical thinking and analysis form the core of this discipline and are essential skills in a rapidly changing society.

Students planning to major in history should take at least four history courses at the University. These can be ANY four courses. An intended major should also have a broad sampling of courses in social sciences and humanities. Students planning to major in history at SFU should take six history courses in the first two years. For UBC the requirement is four history courses. Students planning to take honours should acquire a reading knowledge of an appropriate non-English language.

Students who intend to become teachers may need some Canadian history. If you plan to teach history in British Columbia at the secondary level, you must complete your BA with a major in History according to the requirements of the university you attend. If you plan to teach at the elementary level, the requirements also vary by institution. The education program at SFU requires that you have completed 3 credits in Canadian history. UBC requires 3 credits in either Canadian history or Canadian geography, plus a further 3 credits in Canadian studies, which may include Canadian history/geography. UVic asks for 6 credits of Canadian history.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/history/

Please note that 100 level and 200 level history courses have no prerequisites.

TRANSFER CREDIT

100 and 200 level history courses at Capilano (including WGST 220) transfer to SFU, UBC, UNBC and UVic and count as Humanities credit for the Associate Degree. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

Liberal Studies

GENERAL INFORMATION

Program Overview

The Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies is a multidisciplinary undergraduate degree in the liberal arts tradition. Students acquire foundational knowledge and utilize the critical approaches and research methods central to the fields of study associated with the liberal arts.

During their first two years of study, students take required Liberal Studies core courses and courses in the Humanities, Pure and Applied Sciences, and Social Sciences. This academic foundation prepares Liberal Studies students for the sustained critical inquiries and focused research projects central to their upper level coursework.

In addition to their upper level coursework, all Liberal Studies students complete three one credit "exploratory" Tutorials in advance of embarking upon a three or six credit Graduating Project on a research topic of their choice. The Graduating Project functions as a capstone course in which students synthesize their learning and knowledge in an original undergraduate research and/or creative project.

The Liberal Studies degree fosters the development of the focused analytical skills upon which creative cross-disciplinary collaborative problem-solving builds. A liberal arts education prepares graduates to pursue a wide range of professional, educational, and personal opportunities. Graduates have gone on to pursue careers in education, law, library and information sciences, finance, professional/graduate programs, and other related fields.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/liberal-studies/.

Transferring in From Other Programs or Institutions

When transfer arrangements already exist with other institutions, the process of credit transfer is carried out through the Registrar's Office. When no such arrangements exist, students are required to submit a detailed course outline or syllabus containing a statement of the course content, assignment profile, general course objectives, and learning outcomes. These submissions will be made via the Registrar's Office. The documents will be reviewed by faculty in the appropriate department. When equivalency in all of these areas can be found with a particular Capilano University course, equivalent credit may be awarded.

In such cases, the prior course will substitute for a degree requirement. Liberal Studies students may transfer up to 90 credits from other post-secondary institutions. Of the remaining 30 credits, 24 of these credits must be upper-level Capilano courses.

The Faculty of Arts and Sciences recognizes that there are occasions on which applicants may have met some of the program requirements or learning outcomes from sources other than prior post-secondary study. In such case, prior learning assessments may be conducted to grant credit for prior learning as appropriate. Such dispensation will normally be granted only to students seeking entry in years two or three of the Liberal Studies degree as it is expected that all students will complete their upper-level credits at Capilano or at a recognized post-secondary institution subject to the limits imposed by the Capilano University residency requirements. (See the Graduation section in this calendar.)

Further Information

100- and 200-level Arts and Sciences courses can be taken at the North Vancouver, Sechelt and Squamish campuses. All 300- and 400-level courses are delivered at the North Vancouver campus.

Who Should Apply?

New and current students may apply for admission to the Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies.

Arts and Sciences students may apply for direct admission into the Liberal Studies BA in their first year or request a change in program status at any point after admission so long as they remain in good academic standing.

Capilano students originally accepted into other program areas at university who meet the Faculty of Arts and Sciences admissions standards and remain in good academic standing may also apply for admission to the Liberal Studies BA.

Applicants who are 20 years of age or older who lack the minimum Arts and Sciences admission requirements may apply as mature students. Written requests for admission as a mature student to the Faculty of Arts and Sciences will be considered by the Admissions Office in consultation with an Academic Advisor and the Liberal Studies Degree Coordinator. Applicants should provide, in writing, details of other qualifications or experiences and an academic transcript of education completed.

Mathematics and Statistics

GENERAL INFORMATION

Patience, problem solving, critical thinking and discipline - these are among the skills that improve when you learn mathematics. Studying mathematics opens doors and benefits future scientists, doctors, teachers, lawyers, sociologists, criminologists and many more. The Mathematics and Statistics department offers first and second-year courses in mathematics and statistics as well as preparatory courses. For more information, see Associate Degrees in Arts and Sciences: General Information or the website www.capilanou.ca/math

ENTRY COURSES

For the prerequisite requirements for each of the following entry courses check the Mathematics Placement Test (MPT) section and the individual course listing.

1. Preparatory

MATH 097 is a course designed for students who need to improve their algebraic skills in order to prepare for a precalculus course or a course that requires algebraic skills. It serves as a prerequisite for MATH 101 (Introduction to Statistics), Math 105 (Precalculus) and MATH 190 (Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers).

2. Precalculus

MATH105 is a precalculus course designed to prepare students to take calculus. Although MATH 105 is recognized by post-secondary institutions as an equivalent course to Pre-calculus¹² taken in high school, it is common for students having taken this high school math course to take MATH 105 in preparation for calculus.

3. Calculus I

MATH 108 is a calculus course designed primarily for students planning to pursue a business or life science program, whereas MATH 116 is oriented to the sciences. Students in programs which require a full year (two terms) of calculus should take Math 116 followed by Math 126.

4. Introductory Statistics

MATH 101 is an introductory statistics course designed primarily for non-science students wanting to fulfil a science or math elective requirement.

5. Mathematics for Elementary Teachers

MATH 190 is a course designed for future elementary school teachers. This course is required by elementary education programs in BC. This course is not normally available for credit to students in science programs.

MATH PLACEMENT TESTS (MPT)

The Mathematics and Statistics Department offers placement tests for students who lack the prerequisites listed in the Prerequisite Table for entry courses. For each placement test there is a study guide which provides suggested review material and lists the scheduled test dates. With the exception of the placement test for admission into MATH 097 students are not allowed to rewrite the same level of placement test within a twelve month period. The waiting period to rewrite the placement test for entry into MATH 097 is one month or longer. For more information please contact the Advising Centre or the Pure and Applied Sciences Division, or visit the Mathematics and Statistics department website at www.capilanou.ca/math

Students wanting to enrol in an entry level course listed in the table must write a placement test if they do not satisfy the prerequisite requirements for the course. Students with prerequisites that are more than twelve months old are strongly advised to write the MPT and to follow its placement recommendation.

SPECIFIC PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Students should use the following three sections as guidelines for selecting math courses at the first-year level. Due to the specialized needs of some programs, the Mathematics and Statistics department advises students to consult an advisor or math instructor for appropriate course selection.

1. Science and Engineering

Students planning to pursue science or science related programs are required to take MATH 116 and 126. Engineering students should consult the Engineering section in the Calendar. Common first year courses for science students are:

- MATH 116 and 126
- PHYS 114/115
- CHEM 110/111
- ENGL (6 credits)

2. Arts, Social Science

To fulfil a one-year science elective requirement non-science students typically take MATH 101 or 190, although any of the precalculus/calculus combinations also meet this requirement.

3. Business, Economics

Students planning to pursue a business or economics program may wish to take MATH 108 (and MATH 105 if the prerequisite requirements for 108 are not met).

Graphing Calculator

The Mathematics and Statistics department believes that the graphing calculator greatly enhances mathematics instruction and learning. Students enrolling in any course, with the exception of MATH 097, MATH 190, and MATH 300 are required to have a graphing calculator. Specific recommendations on make and model can be found online at: www.capilanou.ca/math

TRANSFER CREDIT

Math courses at Capilano carry transfer credit to other BC post-secondary institutions. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for transferability to other B.C. institutions.

THE MATHEMATICS LEARNING CENTRE

The Math Learning Centre (MLC), located in the Birch Building (BR289), provides individual assistance with mathematical or statistical problems related to any course at the University. The MLC is staffed by faculty from the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. The instructor schedule is posted outside the MLC and on the MLC website.

The MLC has two large study areas: one room where students may work in groups and another room for silent, independent study. In addition, there is a video/computer room equipped with computer stations, a printer and a video station where students may view videos on topics in calculus, precalculus, algebra and statistics. A library of mathematical and statistical reference texts is available for students to use in the MLC or to borrow for a period of time.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR THE ARTS AND SCIENCES PROGRAM

Philosophy

GENERAL INFORMATION

The word philosophy comes from the Greek word philo meaning 'love', and sophia meaning 'wisdom.' So philosophy means 'love of wisdom.' Philosophy courses are about the ultimate nature of things, including knowledge, reality, reasoning, the human mind, religious belief, truth, free will, human nature, democracy, as well as ethical issues in biology, medicine, law, politics, and the environment. The Philosophy department at Capilano University offers a wide range of first and second year arts and sciences courses introducing students to most of these issues.

Philosophy is the activity of creating thoughtful answers to many of our most important questions. Philosophy is excellent preparation for any profession, but the most important reason for studying philosophy is to satisfy human curiosity about fundamental problems concerning the nature of reality and how we ought to live. As Socrates said, "The unexamined life is not worth living."

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/philosophy

TRANSFER CREDIT

Philosophy courses offered at Capilano University have transfer credit to other universities in B.C. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE APPLIED ETHICS CONCENTRATION

To qualify for an Applied Ethics Concentration, students must complete an Associate of Arts Degree, including all six courses from List A below, and at least two courses from List B.

List A (Choose all). PHIL 101, PHIL 102, PHIL 110, PHIL 207, PHIL 208, PHIL 209.

List B (Choose two). PHIL 117, PHIL 120, PHIL 141, PHIL 150, PHIL 151, PHIL 200, PHIL 201, PHIL 220, PHIL 221, PHIL 222, PHIL 240, PHIL 242.

The concentration in applied ethics within the Associate of Arts degree gives students a credential in a practical sub-discipline of philosophy. Biomedical ethics, environmental ethics, and business ethics form the core of applied ethics, and all have recently become important interdisciplinary specialities in their own right. Each area is concerned with inquiring into what we ought to do from an "all things considered" point of view. The requirements for this concentration include courses in all three areas, and other philosophy courses such as Introductory Ethics and Critical Thinking. The electives range from political philosophy to studies in human nature, gender relations, criminal justice, the philosophy of religion, the philosophy of culture, and the analysis of ethical issues in literature. They all throw light on the many ethical dimensions of our lives. The Philosophy Department at Capilano University has several talented ethicists and moral philosophers among its faculty.

Apply to the Registrar's Office to have the concentration in applied ethics added to your Associate of Arts degree at the time of graduation.

Political Studies

GENERAL INFORMATION

Women and men preparing for careers in journalism, law, business management, international banking, market research, arbitration, urban and regional planning, the foreign service, consulting, labour negotiations, international development, and education enrol in political studies courses. So, too, those hoping to bring about change in their own communities in such areas as health, education and the environment, choose politics as their vocation. That's because political studies is concerned with power — what it is and who gets it, how it is used and how it is abused. Along with understanding power and the role it plays locally, nationally, and internationally, political studies students graduate with excellent research skills and effective oral and written communication skills — all very much in demand in the new global economy.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/political-studies

TRANSFER CREDIT

All Political Studies courses at Capilano are transferable to SFU, UBC, UNBC, and UVic. Please refer to the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for further information.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR THE ARTS AND SCIENCES PROGRAM

Psychology

GENERAL INFORMATION

Psychology courses teach students theory and research findings in psychology that can help students understand themselves and others. Students can apply what they learn about parenting, interpersonal skills, problem solving, stress management and emotional intelligence to their lives and their work. Psychology courses also help students think critically about social issues and the claims of pop psychology. Courses in psychology are required for careers in many occupations including teaching, child-care, health care, and business.

As most of our second year courses are offered only once a year, students who wish to major in psychology should be aware of the various first and second year course requirements of SFU, UBC, or other transfer institutions, so they can take the courses they need for entry into third year at other universities.

Talk to any of our faculty about career options, our course offerings, and/or transferability, or see our website for further information: www.capilanou.ca/psychology

Business & Professional Studies

General Information

The world of business is constantly changing, often challenging and always demanding. People with solid business skills are called to every walk of life. They play an integral role, whether they run a small business or a multinational corporation, whether they work in an office of one or a company employing thousands around the globe.

Law offices, professional sports teams, humanitarian organizations and local government – they all need people with a business education. The skills and knowledge gained at Capilano can be applied to any organization or career, regardless of the path you choose.

Capilano offers a variety of employment-related programs. The programs offered are under constant review to make certain that students are taught the latest techniques and skills. Advisory committees, composed of employers, review and recommend content of all programs.

Admission is limited and applicants are considered on the criteria established for each program area. In general, Grade 12 graduation is required for students applying to two year diploma programs or degree programs, although others may be admitted on the basis of their experience and abilities. Due to the timely nature of these programs, requirements and profiles may change.

Contact the individual program areas for current information.

All courses require basic literacy in written and spoken English. That is, students must be able to understand the texts and other written materials, and the instructor's spoken words, and must be able to write assignments in correct English. Students who are uncertain of their oral and written English should speak to the instructor or an advisor before registering for a course.

TRANSFER TO AND FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS

There is agreement among all public B.C. colleges to accept each other's credits upon transfer, if applicable, to a program given at the admitting college, and given suitable equivalency. Capilano University reserves the right to review individual course credits.

Transfer credits are granted to students for acceptable work done at other institutions. Students wishing transfer credit should present suitable documentation to the Registrar's office for consideration. Full information on transfer of specific courses is available from the Registrar's Office, the advisors, and in the program area.

GRADUATE EMPLOYMENT

Employment opportunities for graduates are excellent; however, Capilano does not guarantee jobs for its graduates.

ADMISSION DATES

Enrolment is limited due to space and equipment limitations. Consequently, those students who contemplate entrance are encouraged to apply early. Applicants may be required to have an interview with the Program Coordinator prior to admission.

PRACTICUMS

For some practicums, students may be required to have a Criminal Records Check.

The second year offers the opportunity to concentrate in a particular area of specialization. Six of the 10 second-year courses are electives: four business electives and two breadth electives. Use these electives to concentrate your studies, focus on career goals, or broaden your education.

Business electives must be courses offered by the School of Business at Capilano University (BADM, BCPT, BFIN, BMKT, or IBUS courses). You can use the business electives to commence specialization in any of these management areas:

- Accounting / Finance
- General Management
- Marketing
- Human Resources
- International Business

Flexibility is a key aspect of all our program offerings. You have the option of completing your Business Administration diploma on a full-time or part-time basis, depending upon your needs. As your needs and those of employers change, we are able to respond with customized education packages that enable you to ladder into different areas or levels of specialization. This includes the option to obtain an Advanced Diploma specializing in Accounting, General Management, International Business, or Marketing or the option to obtain a Bachelor of Business Administration degree at Capilano University.

A full-time course load provides a minimum of 20 instructional hours weekly (typically, one course equals four instructional hours). We suggest that at least 40 hours weekly of outside studies and preparation time will be required.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/business/Business-Administration-Diploma

INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT GRADUATE DIPLOMA PROGRAM AND MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT (UNIVERSITY OF HERTFORDSHIRE)

General Information

Today, over 35% of Canada's jobs relate to international trade. In the future, the continued globalization of trade will have a significant impact on Canada's role on the world stage. These factors make an international business education very valuable in the business world. This program offers undergraduate business students an opportunity to specialize in the area of international business management.

The program aim is to provide a range of subject matter and learning experiences that both meet the needs of a diverse student group and offer opportunities for multicultural interaction. The program is a contemporary, critical, integrated and applied program of study offered at a graduate level.

During this one year program students expand their international learning experience and complete 6 months of the program abroad at Hertfordshire University in England. There students benefit from an international study abroad experience as well as learn from international faculty. This provides an excellent opportunity to create lifelong connections with students from around the world. During the final summer term students complete their final integrated international business plan or research report.

School of Communication

GENERAL INFORMATION

The School of Communication offers degree, diploma and certificate programs in a wide variety of areas related to professional communication practice. Bridging the gap between theory and application, the communication programs are designed to guide students in the development of key communication skills and abilities and to give them the critical and analytic skills required of communication professionals. The following programs are available through the School of Communication:

- Bachelor of Communication Studies (120 credits)
- Communication Studies Diploma (60 credits)
- Advanced Professional Communications Certificate (30 credits)
- Magazine Publishing Certificate (18 credits)
- Professional Communications Certificate (15 credits)

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/cmns

Information for Prospective Students

Communication programs are designed for the differing needs of students. Our Bachelor's degree builds on both critical, analytic and applied communication skills and provides advanced study in areas of professional communication leading to a variety of careers. For those with an academic focus, the Communication Studies diploma is a 2-year transfer program leading into year 3 of Simon Fraser University's bachelor's degree. Our professional and advanced professional certificates offer upgraded communication skills to those who are either looking to advance in their career or change careers. And the Magazine

Publishing Program equips students with both training and practicum experience in the field of magazine publishing.

Students wishing to enrol in a communication program should write directly to the School of Communication after applying for general admission to the university. Please write to: School of Communication, Capilano University, 2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver, BC, V7J 3H5, or telephone 604.990.7939. The email address is cmns@capilanou.ca.

Many communication courses are university transfer courses. Students wishing to enrol in open sections of communication courses must meet general university admission requirements.

COMMUNICATIONS COURSES

Communication courses cover a wide variety of subjects from writing, editing and public speaking skills, to critical analyses of digital media, to how to put together an effective public relations campaign. Our lower level courses serve as an introduction to both applied communication skills and the critical study of media, communication and culture. Our upper level courses focus on specific areas of professional practice and development and involve intensive study of communication issues as well as the application of professional principles to communication projects.

The School of Communication also designs and delivers courses tailored to the needs of various career and professional programs. Among the programs we serve are Business Administration, Outdoor Recreation and Tourism Management, and Legal Administrative Assistant. Students admitted to these programs can register for the required communication courses. By special request, students may be able to register in these courses even if they are not admitted to a particular program.

Many communication courses carry credit as electives for students in Arts & Science, and Business programs, and many of our courses are open for general registration, particularly at the upper (300/400) level. However, please note that the School of Communication cannot guarantee seats in program courses to students not registered in a communication program.

University Transfer

Most communication program courses transfer to one or more British Columbia universities. All courses in the Communication diploma transfer to Simon Fraser, and many professional writing courses are university transferable at the first- or second-year level. As university transfer status changes over time, students are advised to consult the online B.C. Transfer Guide at www.bctransferguide.ca for the most up-to-date information.

BACHELOR OF COMMUNICATION STUDIES DEGREE

General Information

The Bachelor of Communication Studies (BCS) combines the critical analysis of communication, media and culture with applied communication skills. It directs these towards both scholarly investigation of and practical experience in specific areas of professional communication, including:

- Public and media relations
- Communication ethics, policy and law
- Critical media and communication studies
- Professional writing, editing and publishing
- Negotiation, mediation and crisis communication
- Intercultural, organizational and interpersonal communication

The general aim of the BCS is to supply its students with the professional competencies and critical thinking perspectives necessary for diverse careers or graduate-level study in communication fields.

In years 1 and 2, students are introduced to key theoretical frameworks and critical traditions as well as to foundational communication skills (writing, editing and public speaking). In year 3, students take advanced seminars that explore areas of strategic communication practice. In year 4, students enrol in project-based courses that bridge the classroom and the real world and through which they can build experience in communication as a professional practice. Students also complete either a capstone internship or graduating project.

Further Information

All courses in the BCS are delivered on the North Vancouver campus of Capilano University. Students enrolled in full-time study (5 courses per semester) can expect to complete the program within 4 calendar years. Students may elect to enrol part-time, with the expectation that it will take longer to complete the program, depending on the course load students are willing to take on.

Students should expect to spend about 1 hour of preparation (not including assignments) for every hour of class time (approximately 8 hours per week per course). Courses often include both individual and group assignments and it is expected that students exercise a degree of professionalism in completing such assignments, including showing initiative in the co-ordination and management of course work.

Career & Educational Opportunities

The Bachelor of Communication Studies prepares students for careers in:

- Public relations

School of Communication

- Media relations
- Publishing, writing, & editing
- Communication research and policy analysis
- Journalism
- Communication co-ordination & management

It also supplies a rigorous academic foundation for students interested in pursuing graduate level study in communication or cognate areas such as sociology, cultural studies, political studies, journalism or literary studies.

Transferability/transfer credit/PLA

Students are able to enter the BCS at three points – at first, second, or third year. Students transferring into the BCS at a stage later than direct first year admission must meet the general admission requirements noted below, and (if they completed post-secondary studies at an institution other than Capilano) initiate the credit transfer process described in the next paragraph. Such students should consult with a program advisor to determine their stage in the degree curriculum and to plan course selection to ensure timely completion of degree requirements.

Students wishing to transfer credits from other post-secondary institutions must ensure that the courses they seek equivalency for correspond in substance to program requirements in the BCS. The transfer process is initiated by the students through the Capilano Registrar's Office. For courses taken at other British Columbia post-secondary institutions, please refer to the (www.bctransferguide.ca) to check transferability.

The School of Communication at Capilano University recognises that there are occasions on which applicants may have met program objectives or outcomes in ways other than through recent prior post-secondary study. In such cases, prior learning assessments may be conducted to grant credit for prior learning as appropriate.

Admission Requirements

- BC Secondary School Graduation (Grade 12) or equivalent or Mature Student status
- English 12 or English 12 First Peoples or equivalent with a minimum grade of "B"
- For students with previous post-secondary experience, a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 (on a scale of 4.33) or equivalent.
- English Language Requirement for students whose primary language is not English: Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): paper=560, computer=220, internet=83, or English Language Assessment (ELA)=145, or International English Language Testing System (IELTS)=6.5 overall, and no one score less than 6, or Canadian Academic English Language Assessment (CAEL)=70, or Pearson Test of English (PTE Academic)=56 or Capilano University EAP 100 and 101 with a minimum B+ grade in each course.
- A letter of intent and resume must be submitted by all students with previous post-secondary experience, and may be requested of other applicants.

Admission/Application Notes

- Please note that the admission requirements are minimum requirements. Admission is competitive.
- ENGL 100 is a required course in the Communication Studies diploma. In order to enroll in any English course, students must submit the results of the Capilano University English Diagnostic Test (EDT) or the Language Proficiency Index Test (LPI) unless they meet the EDT/LPI exemptions listed in the university calendar or on the Capilano website at www.capilanou.ca/english/English-Diagnostic-Test.

The Bachelor of Communication Studies runs over eight semesters, with core courses and communication electives generally being offered in Fall and Spring semesters. A limited number of communication courses are offered in the Summer, so students wishing to continue their studies in the Summer semester are encouraged to take non-communication elective credits.

Admissions to the BCS are competitive, based on a maximum total annual intake of approximately 100 students. Applications remain open until the program is full. We begin reviewing applications in February of each year, and we encourage interested applicants to apply starting in January. Applications are reviewed individually by program faculty and admissions are granted on a first come-first served basis. We reserve a percentage of seats annually for students applying directly from high school. Students will be notified by email and post of the outcomes of the application process.

Students who meet the BCS admission requirements but apply after the program intake has been reached are encouraged to apply to General Arts & Sciences and to reapply in a subsequent year as a transfer student. Courses taken in Arts & Science can generally count as electives towards the Bachelor of Communication Studies.

Information meetings are generally held in March, April, May and October. Students should consult the School of Communications web pages for details: www.capilano.ca/cmns.

Who Should Apply?

The BCS is designed for those interested in a range of communication professions, and will enable and support their interest by establishing, broadening, and diversifying their academic knowledge and professional skills. The program is of interest to those embarking on careers in the communication fields, or those with work experience seeking professional advancement or a career change.

Application Deadlines/Admission Dates

The BCS admits students on a first come-first served basis until the program is full. The total annual intake is approximately 100 students. We do not have any formal application deadlines, but we begin considering applications in February and continue until all seats are taken. Applications for Fall admission are best sent in between January and May. We reserve a number of seats for students applying directly from high school, since such applications cannot be fully considered until interim grades are posted in May.

COMMUNICATION STUDIES DIPLOMA PROGRAM

General Information

Communication Studies is a new and growing field whose central concern is to examine the role played by communication practices, processes and media in human societies. Communication studies promotes a critical exploration of connections between the structures of human communication (media technologies, industries, and policies) and their impacts on meaning-making, social relationships, cultural practices, power and the economy.

The Communication Studies Diploma is a 60-credit program consisting of 10 communications courses – all of which transfer to SFU's Communication BA program – plus 10 academic electives.

Learning outcomes include the ability to think discerningly about communication issues; the development of critical media literacy; an understanding of key historical and contemporary social and ethical issues in media and communication; and an awareness of the various ways in which communication practices support social life and culture.

School of Legal Studies

GENERAL INFORMATION

Capilano University's Paralegal Program was designed to meet the needs of the legal community by providing substantive and skills-based legal education for paralegals. The first Diploma (full-time) and Certificate (part-time) options were developed in 1976. The curriculum and course content were designed in consultation with the BC Law Society and mirrored the American Bar Association requirements for paralegal education. In 2010, a four year full-time degree option was added. The School of Legal Studies is a member of the British Columbia Paralegal Association and the American Association for Paralegal Education.

There are three Paralegal program options offered at Capilano University:

1. The full-time two-year Diploma option is designed for people who may not have current legal experience, but who have two years post-secondary education or equivalent learning experience.
2. The part-time Certificate option is designed for people currently employed in a legal setting and who have at least two years legal administrative assistant experience or equivalent learning experience (see below under Paralegal Certificate, Admission Requirements).

There are two delivery options:

- a) Evening and Saturday (summer term only) option for those living locally.
 - b) Online option for those living outside of the Greater Vancouver area.
3. The full-time four-year Degree option is designed for those who have no post-secondary education or legal experience. It will also appeal to students with some post-secondary education, perhaps even another degree, who would like to have a degree in this field. High school graduates with high academic standing are eligible.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/paralegal

PARALEGAL DIPLOMA

Students in the full-time two-year Diploma option attend classes during the day at Capilano University's North Vancouver campus. They complete course studies in substantive law, procedural law and legal skills. Courses offered are preset and require students to attend classes during the fall and spring terms (from September through April) for two consecutive years.

Upon completion of the two-year course of studies, students must complete a six-month practicum under the supervision of a lawyer. Students are paid by their employer during this practicum.

At the end of a successful practicum, the student is eligible for graduation. Faculty work closely with students and with the legal community to assist students in obtaining successful practicum placements.

PARALEGAL CERTIFICATE

The Paralegal Certificate is a part-time option designed for students who are working in a law office, legal department or other legal setting. Students study substantive law and legal skills courses while gaining their procedural law skills on the job. Some procedural law courses, such as Litigation Procedures, are available as electives.

The Paralegal Certificate is available in two delivery modes: onsite and online. The curriculum is the same for both; the only difference is the method of delivery. For registration purposes, we use two names to describe this program option based on delivery mode. Paralegal Certificate refers to regular onsite delivery where students attend lectures in person at a set time. Onsite courses are held in the evening at a downtown

Vancouver location - currently the BCIT campus on Seymour Street (with the exception of LAW 210 Legal Research, which takes place at the North Vancouver campus on Saturdays).

Paralegal Certificate (Online) refers to online delivery where students learn at a distance without physically attending classes. For admission to the Paralegal Certificate (Online) option, preference is given to students living outside the Greater Vancouver area. Local students are generally expected to register in the Paralegal Certificate; however, they may be able to register in online courses in the event of seat availability or exceptional circumstances.

The Certificate (Online) option was the first fully online credential for paralegals available in Canada, and it has been a source of paralegal education for students in BC, across Canada, and around the world for over a decade (including the US, Cayman Islands, Virgin Islands, Czech Republic, Netherlands, New Zealand and United Arab Emirates).

Please note that the credential obtained after completing all the credit requirements is the same - Paralegal Certificate - regardless of the delivery method of your courses and the name used to describe the program option when you registered. The following information applies to both the onsite and online versions of the Certificate option, unless otherwise noted.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/paralegal/Paralegal-Certificate

Global & Community Studies

School of Global Stewardship

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE - GLOBAL STEWARDSHIP

General Information

The two-year Global Stewardship Associate of Arts degree program was initially designed for young people pursuing careers in the not-for-profit sector, either internationally or in Canada. But over the years, graduates of the program have gone into a wide variety of careers, including international development, social work, journalism, teaching, law and even nursing. Students in the program study in cohort (that is, together) a wide range of courses in world politics, environmental biology, geography, economic history, anthropology, world history, languages, literature and philosophy as a means to understanding the global forces at play today. They also take management courses, and partake in seminars delivered by leaders in the not-for-profit sector in order to hone their leadership, teamwork, communication, budgeting and time-management skills. They also gain hands-on service learning experience volunteering with a non-government organization, either locally or overseas. Graduates receive an Associate of Arts degree, which is easily transferable to any university in B.C. and recognized by a number of universities across Canada.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/global-stewardship.

Career Opportunities

According to the Voluntary Sector Human Resources Council, nearly 900,000 Canadians work for pay in the voluntary sector, about the same number that work in the construction, mining, and oil and gas industries combined. The number of people working internationally for non-governmental organizations is unknown, but they most certainly number in the millions. Graduates of the Global Stewardship Program enter this network of not-for-profit employees early in their academic career. Those who want to pursue such a career will most certainly go on to complete their bachelor's degree, and possibly a masters in the future. Other graduates of the Global Stewardship Program are pursuing careers in teaching, social work, nursing, and international law. Graduates of the Global Stewardship Program are eligible for the paid internship positions supported by CIDA.

School of Outdoor Recreation Management

GENERAL INFORMATION

The School of Outdoor Recreation Management at Capilano University stresses practical, field-based, outdoor learning, combined with academic study in the classroom. Our instructors are experienced in the outdoor recreation industry and help students turn their passion for the outdoors into rewarding careers in this vibrant industry. Our class sizes are limited, allowing students to benefit from direct contact with their instructors. All School of Outdoor Recreation Management certificates and the diploma can be laddered into the Bachelor of Tourism Management.

In this section you will find information on the following programs:

- Advanced Wilderness Leadership Certificate Program
- Mountain Bike Operations Certificate Program
- Outdoor Recreation Management Diploma Program

Our programs are continually updated to ensure that students learn the latest skills and techniques needed by outdoor recreation employers. On-going consultations with employers, graduates, students and faculty, allow us to ensure the content of our programs is relevant to current and emerging industry needs.

Graduates from the School of Outdoor Recreation have developed careers in a variety of areas, including:

- Outdoor education
- Wilderness guiding and instructing (e.g. rafting, hiking, canoeing, sea kayaking, professional scuba diving, mountain biking)
- Parks (e.g. interpreters, wardens, information hosts, programmers)
- Trail design and building
- Managing outdoor-based businesses
- Outdoor business ownership
- Municipal recreation coordination/programming
- Consulting in outdoor recreation

- Employment with non-profit organizations

Admission into our programs is limited and applicants are considered on the criteria established for each program area. In general, Grade 12 graduation is required for students applying to two year Diploma Programs, although others may be admitted on the basis of their experience and abilities. Due to the timely nature of these programs, requirements and profiles may change.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/global-community

All courses require basic literacy in written and spoken English. That is, students must be able to understand the texts and other written materials, and the instructor's spoken words, and must be able to write assignments in correct English. Students who are uncertain of their oral and written English should speak to the instructor or an advisor before registering for a course.

Transfer to and from Other Institutions

There is agreement among all public B.C. colleges to accept each other's credits upon transfer, if applicable, to a program given at the admitting college, and given suitable equivalency. Capilano University reserves the right to review individual course credits.

Transfer credits are granted to students for acceptable work done at other institutions. Students wishing transfer credit should present suitable documentation to the Registrar's office for consideration. Full information on transfer of specific courses is available from the Registrar's Office, the advisors, and in the program area.

Graduate Employment

Employment opportunities for graduates are excellent; however, Capilano does not guarantee jobs for its graduates.

Admission Dates

Enrolment is limited due to space and equipment limitations. Consequently, those students who contemplate entrance are encouraged to apply early. Applicants may be required to have an interview with the Program Coordinator prior to admission.

Unsuccessful applicants should contact an advisor to determine an appropriate educational alternative.

Practicums

For some practicums, students may be required to have a Criminal Records Check.

Co-operative Education

Some Career programs include a co-op education option. Co-operative education integrates a period of classroom learning with periods of work experience to enable students to apply their knowledge and skills. Students alternate periods of full-time study with periods of paid employment in business, industry, government and non-profit organizations. The goal is to develop high calibre graduates, better able to assume productive jobs. For more information, see www.capilano.ca/programs/Cooperative-Education.

That is, students must be able to understand the texts and other written materials, and the instructor's spoken words, and must be able to write assignments in correct English. Students who are uncertain of their oral and written English should speak to the instructor or an advisor before registering for a course.

Transfer to and from Other Institutions

There is agreement among all public B.C. colleges to accept each other's credits upon transfer, if applicable, to a program given at the admitting college, and given suitable equivalency. Capilano University reserves the right to review individual course credits.

Transfer credits are granted to students for acceptable work done at other institutions. Students wishing transfer credit should present suitable documentation to the Registrar's office for consideration. Full information on transfer of specific courses is available from the Registrar's Office, the advisors, and in the program area.

Graduate Employment

Employment opportunities for graduates are excellent; however, Capilano does not guarantee jobs for its graduates.

Admission Dates

Enrolment is limited due to space and equipment limitations. Consequently, those students who contemplate entrance are encouraged to apply early. Applicants may be required to have an interview with the Program Coordinator prior to admission.

BACHELOR OF MUSIC THERAPY PROGRAM

General Information

The Music Therapy program at Capilano offers the third and fourth years leading to the Bachelor of Music Therapy. This degree program is designed so that students may enter third year with a variety of backgrounds: music, general arts, education, or nursing etc. All four years may be completed at Capilano University.

This program provides students with the opportunity to gain knowledge and develop competencies in such areas as music therapy and practice; clinical disorders; assessment, planning and intervention; improvisation and music of many eras and cultures; interpersonal skills and group dynamics; basic research, and documentation.

The program blends academic and experiential course work. Students deepen their experience of music, creative expression and the role of the arts. They are encouraged to explore their values, beliefs, feelings and communication patterns, to increase their effectiveness in the field. They have field work in a different setting for each of the four terms, in which they are given increasing responsibility to design, implement and evaluate their own treatment programs, under clinical supervision.

Continuance in the Music Therapy program will be contingent upon an adequate level of personal, academic and clinical skills as jointly evaluated each term by the Music Therapy faculty. Music therapy is a helping profession in which music therapists work with clients who are in a state of disability. In the therapist/client relationship, there is an assumption that the therapist is in a well enough state of health and well-being to mediate client difficulties with an appropriate clinical approach. In other words, the therapist must function in clinically suitable ways, be emotionally stable and able to respond generally vis-a-vis the client's needs. The therapist is the helper. The role of the Music Therapy program, in addition to student education, is to safeguard the standards of practice of the professional music therapy community through monitoring student readiness to work with members of the community-at-large who are at risk because of disability, disease, cultural and social deprivation, and otherwise disadvantaged. Safety of clients is essential.

Music therapists use the creative process inherent in musical participation to assist individuals and groups to improve their mental, physical and emotional functioning. Music therapists work with deep emotions in special therapeutic programs, run exercise and dance programs, lead choirs, instrumental ensembles and music appreciation groups as they contribute to therapeutic goals. Music therapy is increasingly identified by health care professionals as an effective catalyst for client motivation, stimulation and communication.

Graduates of the Capilano University Music Therapy program receive a Bachelor of Music Therapy.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/music-therapy

Career Opportunities

REHABILITATION ASSISTANT DIPLOMA PROGRAM

General Information

A Rehabilitation Assistant, also known as an "OTA/PTA/SLPA" or "RA", is a para-professional who works as a member of the health care team under the supervision of and in collaboration with occupational therapists, physiotherapists and speech-language pathologists to support patients or clients of all ages who have experienced disease or injury. This work, most frequently in the areas of gerontology, neurology and orthopaedics, may be carried out in a variety of settings including hospitals, rehabilitation clinics, extended care facilities and in the community in which we live.

The two year Rehabilitation Assistant Diploma program at Capilano University is designed to provide students with opportunities to develop the knowledge, skills, values and attitudes necessary to provide a vital supporting role in delivering efficient and effective rehabilitation services within the public and private health care delivery system. Working closely with peers and instructors, the program prepares students to be well-rounded RA's by delivering an integrated approach consisting of scientific knowledge, professional skills, rehabilitation theory and practical skills, case study integration and clinical fieldwork. Students will also learn how to apply the principles and practices of Rehabilitation Assistance in their everyday work

Graduates of the program will:

- demonstrate professional behaviour
- promote optimal client independence
- develop, implement and modify treatment plans with clinical supervision
- provide training which enables clients to develop, maintain or restore physical, psychosocial, cognitive and/or communication skills according to the plan
- train clients/significant others in a variety of mobility, communication, self-care, work and leisure activities
- apply strategies to manage cognitive and psychosocial skills

School of Access & Academic Preparation

GENERAL INFORMATION

The School of Access and Academic Preparation offers adult learners the opportunity to complete prerequisites for entry to a wide range of programs both at Capilano and other colleges and universities. Our focus is on a student centered experience where you study in small classes with knowledgeable instructors who understand the diverse needs and experiences that adult learners bring to their studies. Programs are offered at all three of the university campuses as well as in many community locations around the lower mainland and in our regional communities. The Adult Basic Education program, the English for Academic Purposes program and the College and University Preparation program are designed to prepare students who lack course prerequisites for university transfer and career/vocational programs. The Access Work Experience programs provide practical knowledge and support for students who have barriers to employment.

Many of these courses are taught in 1.5 hour classes that meet twice a week for an academic term (15 weeks). In addition, considerable independent study is required outside of the formal instruction period. Certain courses offered in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences departments may also satisfy the student's upgrading needs.

Most courses in the School of Access and Academic Preparation have no tuition fees for Canadian citizens or landed immigrants. International students pay International student fees (please see the Fees & Fee Payment section of the website).

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/education-health-development

ADULT BASIC EDUCATION

General Information

The Adult Basic Education (ABE) program enables students to upgrade their knowledge of English, mathematics, biology, chemistry, physics, history, social studies and computers. Students may select from one to five subjects, depending upon their educational and occupational goals. Students can pursue any of the following goals:

- academic studies (including university and college programs)
- preparation for employment
- personal desire to upgrade or refresh mastery of a subject
- secondary school qualifications demanded by employers
- vocational training (including apprenticeships)
- career training
- technical training

The program operates from September to June, offering instruction in 1.5 hour classes. Both self-paced and term-paced classes are offered. Placement in courses is based on pre-registration assessment of academic background.

Many students benefit by enrolling in ABE courses while registered in university transfer or career/vocational programs at the University.

Students who need more than four months to complete a course may re-register if they are attending and progress is satisfactory. Students who finish a course before the end of the term may immediately register for the next higher course in the given subject.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/abe

Class times are as follows:

Morning classes:	8:30 a.m., 10 a.m., and 11:30 a.m.
Afternoon classes:	1 p.m., and 2:30 p.m.
Evening classes:	6 p.m.

Admission Requirements

Students should be at least 18 years old and preferably out of the public school system for a minimum of one year. Exceptions will only be made with departmental approval. Students should apply at least three months prior to anticipated date of entry. Students with English as a second language may be referred to the English for Academic Purposes department before enrolling in ABE classes.

How to Apply

Apply for Admission/Readmission online or by downloading and completing an application form. Completed applications must be accompanied by the appropriate application fee, official transcripts and other pertinent documents, and should be submitted to:

Fax: 604.984.1798

Note

All students must participate in an assessment/interview before registration in order to determine the course(s) or program which best meets their educational goals. Students may not be accepted into the program if, after assessment and interview, it is determined that their learning needs will not be met by the program. Call (604) 983-7578 to book an assessment/interview.

Offerings and procedures at the Sunshine Coast campus are slightly different. Contact the local campus reception desk or ABE coordinator.

Registration

Regular attendance and satisfactory progress are conditions for re-registration in ABE courses. Students may be directed to other programs if their attendance and performance in ABE does not match their stated educational goals.

Note

Offerings and procedures at the Sunshine Coast campus are slightly different. Contact the local campus reception desk or ABE coordinator.

ABE Certificates & Diploma

To be eligible for a diploma or a certificate, a student must have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher.

The B.C. Adult Dogwood Graduation Diploma, issued by the Ministry of Education, Skills and Training, provides an alternate route for adults to achieve a Grade 12 standing to post-secondary institutions in B.C.

Intermediate & Advanced Certificates are issued by Capilano University and provide prerequisites for career and vocational programs throughout the province.

Fundamental level instruction provides basic reading and writing skills and number skills.

ABE certificates/diploma also satisfies most employers' high school requirements. Certain high school courses may qualify as transfer credit toward ABE certificates.

Advanced and Provincial level ABE courses may be used for transfer credit towards a B.C. Regular or Adult Dogwood Certificate.

The ABE program offers courses at four levels as outlined in the chart below.

General Information

The Discover Employability program is an employment exploration program with a unique focus and approach. The program is based on a developmental perspective and is committed to working with young adults with special learning needs. Students are encouraged to accept the responsibilities of independent living as young adults, as well as the demands of competitive entry-level employment, and will have the opportunity to address social or emotional issues which may pose barriers to employment. The Discover Employability program combines in-class instruction with practical work experience, emphasizing the development or maintenance of skills which may be used in employment situations. Students meet with faculty to discuss an individual work experience plan which will be monitored throughout the year.

For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/access/Discover-Employability

Students who will find the Discover Employability program beneficial are those with learning difficulties, developmental delays, and/or individuals who have physical disabilities that still allow them to meet employment requirements.

Students who will obtain the most benefit from the Discover Employability program are those who have reached a moderate level of independence (i.e., self-care management; social skills, travel independently locally; have had some work or volunteer experience; can articulate several areas of interest or a willingness to try various work sites).

Admission/Application Notes

Entry is by referral and interview. Each candidate is interviewed by the program faculty, and a maximum of 14 students will be admitted.

An information meeting is held in March followed by appointments for interviews which take place in March, April and early May. Letters to the successful candidates will be sent by May 30.

COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY PREPARATION PROGRAM

General Information

The object of the program is to improve the participation and success rates of students who are planning to attend post-secondary institutions. The program helps students to gain confidence at college and university by developing academic skills while gaining academic qualifications.

Typical students in the program include those who want to:

- try school again after at least one year away;
- refresh their skills and improve their GPA before entering a college or university program;
- upgrade high school courses in a supportive learning environment;
- develop skills for participating in computer-based/online courses, but would like to be introduced to this technology with the help of a teacher in the classroom;
- explore career and education choices before selecting a further program of study.

Students may start the program in either September or January. The program is full-time (classroom activities Monday through Thursday, plus online activities) for 15 weeks. Students should begin the application process as soon as possible prior to the start of classes.

The program makes extensive use of computers. In addition to two computer courses, the English, Math and Career Planning courses use computers for portions of the course content. Learners do not need strong computer skills to enter the program, just the desire to improve their skills using computers.

There is a computer lab dedicated to the program, and there is one computer for each student. These are instructor-led classes supported by a computerized Learning Management System. Attendance and participation are keys to student success. The maximum class size is 20 students.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/cup

Program Objectives

Students will gain confidence working in a post-secondary setting, and acquire life and academic skills useful for pursuing:

- career and vocational programs at a university, college or technical institute;
- university or university transfer programs at a university/college;
- skills to become a successful online student;
- further academic upgrading to pursue a chosen course of study.

At the completion of the program, students will have created their own personal educational plan to guide and assist them in reaching their educational and career goals.

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP AND SOCIAL CHANGE DIPLOMA

General Information

The Community Leadership and Social Change Diploma is an innovative program that prepares students for rewarding careers in the community development and non-profit sector in Canada. The curriculum and class room environment reflect the principles of community development, social change and social justice. Students gain an in-depth and critical understanding of the history, theory and current practice of CD in North America. They develop skills in applying leading edge community development research and planning methods in various community settings. Through experiential learning opportunities, they become facilitators of community processes that build consensus and foster non-violent and collaborative dialogue. In their final term, students take a leadership role in a Capstone Project, applying their knowledge and skills in a particular role in a specific community sector such as literacy, food security, health promotion etc. But most importantly, students will form deep and lasting relationships with people from all sectors, cultures, and classes and with organizations serving all parts of our community in all aspects of community life.

Graduate Employment

The National Survey of Non-profit and Voluntary Organizations (NSNVO), last conducted in 2003, indicates that there are approximately 161,000 non-profit and voluntary organizations in Canada with over 2 million employees and revenues exceeding $112 billion. British Columbia's non-profit and voluntary organizations employed 113,000 people not including those who worked in hospitals, universities and colleges; a workforce larger than the total employment in the forestry, fishing, and mining, oil and gas. Twenty five percent of organizations experienced difficulty attracting qualified staff and as many as 50% had difficulty securing qualified volunteers.

School of Access & Academic Preparation

In this program students develop working relationships with staff, management and volunteers in various community organizations in their community. Successful graduates may find employment as program coordinators, fundraisers, volunteer coordinators, settlement workers, health promotion workers, or food network coordinators. They will develop a personal pathway to leadership in community development that could involve transferring to a degree program, working in the non-profit sector, being active as a leader in their community or working independently as a project consultant.

Program Location

Two required courses - CCB 100 and CCB 105 - will be offered only at a community location in Vancouver on Wednesday evening. The remaining required courses will be offered at Capilano University, North Vancouver Campus, during the weekday.

Service Learning

Two service learning courses provide students with an opportunity to gain credits for doing what they love: volunteering in their community. In addition to required community volunteering, these courses will include faculty support, coaching and specific thematic seminars. A Capstone course can also be used to earn credit and undertake a specific community project.

Fine & Applied Arts

General Information

Capilano offers a variety of employment-related fine and applied arts programs in media, motion picture, visual and performing arts.

The highly trained faculty of artists active in their fields makes certain that students are taught the timeless traditions of their chosen craft as well as the latest techniques and skills. Relevancy is ensured by advisory committees composed of employers, alumni, and other experts who review and recommend content of all programs.

Programs range from short certificates to four year degrees. A limited number of students are selected for each program. Applications are considered based on the criteria established for each program area, which may include an interview, audition or portfolio review. In general, Grade 12 graduation is required for applicants, although some students may be admitted on the basis of experience and ability.

Contact the individual program areas for current information as requirements and profiles may change due to the continual assessment within these programs.

All courses require basic literacy in written and spoken English. That is, students must be able to understand the texts, other written materials and the instructor's spoken words, and they must be able to write assignments in correct English. Students who are uncertain of their oral and written English should speak to the instructor or an advisor before applying for a program.

TRANSFER TO AND FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS

There is agreement among all public B.C. post secondary institutions to accept each other's credits upon transfer, if applicable, to a program given at the admitting institution, and given suitable equivalency. Capilano University reserves the right to review individual course credits.

Transfer credits are granted to students for acceptable work done at other institutions. Students wishing transfer credit should present suitable documentation to the Registrar's Office for consideration. Full information on transfer of specific courses is available from the Registrar's Office, the advisors, and in the program office.

GRADUATE EMPLOYMENT

Employment opportunities for graduates are excellent.

ADMISSION DATES

Students contemplating entrance are encouraged to apply early as enrolment may be limited because of space and equipment limitations. Applicants may be required to have an interview, a portfolio review, and/or an audition prior to admission.

Unsuccessful applicants should contact an advisor to determine an appropriate educational alternative.

PRACTICUMS

Several programs include a practicum or short period of work placement as part of their program requirements. Students gain relevant experience in their area of interest through the practical application of the knowledge and skills learned in the classroom.

For some practicums, students may be required to have a Criminal Records Check.

STUDENT COURSE AND WORK LOAD

Students are advised not to undertake other activities that require large time commitments, including employment, while undertaking the full-time studies of this program.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

To be eligible for a certificate, a student must have:

1. Completed program requirements, 50% of which must be completed at Capilano University.
2. Achieved a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher. Some programs require a higher than 2.0 cumulative grade point average in order to receive a certificate.

DIPLOMA PROGRAMS

To be eligible for a diploma, a student must have:

IDEA School of Design

GENERAL INFORMATION

The IDEA School of Design currently offers a full-time 4-year degree program in Visual Communication, with an embedded full-time 3-year advanced diploma.

- Bachelor of Design in Visual Communication (124 credits)
- Visual Communication Advanced Diploma (93 credits)

BACHELOR OF DESIGN IN VISUAL COMMUNICATION

General Information

Built on the highly successful 3-year IDEA diploma program in illustration and graphic design, the new Bachelor of Design is a career-oriented 4-year undergraduate degree program that prepares students for employment as visual communicators. This is an intensive, full-time program with all-day classes. Students enjoy dedicated lab or classroom desk space, and fees include equipment such as a camera, materials kit, laptop computer, and professional association membership fees.

The Bachelor of Design is a cohort program, but a small number of seats in all first and second year classes, and a limited number in third year, are open to other students at Capilano. The program has a career focus, and courses are taught by industry professionals.

What is Visual Communication?

Visual communication encompasses a variety of subject areas and outcomes, all of which involve the ability to think strategically and communicate visually, whether it's through traditional media like drawing and painting, through print, through digital media, or through the design of services or experiences. In years 1 and 2, students are introduced to key foundational concepts and industry-relevant skills. In year 3 optional concentration options in branding, interactive design, and traditional or digital illustration are offered. In year 4 students work in collaborative groups, focus on preparation for professional practice, host a graduation show and undertake a 3-month industry practicum.

The IDEA Program Legacy

Students and graduates of the IDEA diploma program (the foundation of the Bachelor of Design) are highly regarded by industry – both for design and illustration – and consistently win more student awards and scholarships than any comparable program in British Columbia. This tradition of excellence will continue in the Bachelor of Design. Graduate work from the IDEA program can be seen at: www.ideagradshow.com.

Career Opportunities

The aim of the Bachelor of Design is to prepare students with the professional competencies and creative perspectives increasingly required by businesses and organizations of all kinds. Graduates work in-house in a diverse array of industries, enjoy careers in communication/interactive design studios or advertising agencies, build freelance or contract-based practices (particularly in illustration), and work in fields such as publishing, exhibit design, packaging design, gaming or concept art.

Admission Requirements

- BC Secondary School Graduation (Grade 12) or equivalent OR Mature Student status.
- A minimum grade of C in either English 12 or English 12 First Peoples
- English Language Requirement for students whose primary language is not English: Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): paper=560, computer=220, internet=83, or English Language Assessment (ELA)=145, or International English Language Testing System (IELTS)=6.5 overall, and no one score less than 6, or Canadian Academic English Language Assessment (CAEL)=70, or Pearson Test of English (PTE Academic)=56 or Capilano University EAP 100 and 101 with a minimum B+ grade in each course.
- Interview required if portfolio review is successful
- Visual Communication Program package, which comprises: two letters of reference, written submission documents, and a portfolio. Portfolios are reviewed by an admissions committee on the basis of drawing, design, use of colour, creativity, media variety, skill and presentation. Applicants whose portfolios meet the standards of the program will be required to submit a sketchbook for review, attend an interview, and complete tests in drawing, written communication, and creative thinking.

Admission/Application Notes

Admission is competitive, and requires completion of a Visual Communication Program package described above. Contact the department for information on how to submit the Visual Communication Program package, and application deadlines (two per year, in January and April). Late submissions will not be accepted.

Please note that ENGL 100 is a required course in the first term of the Bachelor of Design. In order to enroll in any English course, students must submit the results of the Capilano University Diagnostic Test (EDT) or the Language Proficiency Index Test (LPI) unless they meet the EDT/LPI exemptions listed in the university calendar or on the Capilano website: www.capilanou.ca/english/English-Diagnostic-Test/

3D Animation Diploma Program

General Information

3D Animation for Film and Games is an intensive two-year diploma that gives artistically- and technically-minded students with drive and ambition a chance to become successful digital artists in film, animation, and video game industries.

Behind the animated 3D characters, digital environments of movies, and fantastical worlds of video games stands a talented and motivated force of digital artists whose passion and creativity drive the entertainment industry. Their artistic talent, fused with cutting edge computer graphics technologies, bring images and stories to life, create memorable characters and instil admiration in viewers.

It is no secret that the entertainment industry is highly competitive. Consequently, our training methods are designed to give graduates a significant advantage in becoming a professional: we train students in traditional skills of design, anatomy, drawing, and composition. In order for an idea to become a successful design or animation, its core artistic message must be identified and distilled into a clear concept that incorporates all necessary visual elements such as form, colour, mood, and setting. Digital artists, like traditional designers, are visual communicators and therefore must have an excellent command of the visual language.

Following a concept is the process of digital production. Uniqueness of our technical training lies in the creative application of digital tools. We give our graduates an advantage by teaching them how to make software do what they need, rather than simply training them how to push buttons in different applications. Our graduates are technical problem solvers, and are able to research, assess, and implement complex technologies, a skill that is highly valued in the industry.

As a result of our approach, Capilano graduates evolve from students into an independent creative force. Because of a strong traditional foundation, they continue to appreciate core artistic values and build upon them. As digital artists, they are able to research, learn, and implement complex computer graphics technologies successfully and efficiently.

Capilano has been successfully training 3D artists and animators for over fifteen years, and is well known among local and international studios for producing top talent. Our computer labs and facilities, located in the state-of-the-art Bosa Centre for Film and Animation, are the best and largest in Western Canada. Over the years, our graduates have continued to build and enjoy successful careers in major studios in Vancouver and abroad, such as Electronic Arts, Pixar Animation, Relic Entertainment, Bardel Animation, Nerd Corps, and many others. Capilano graduates are highly sought after because of our unique training, professional calibre portfolios, and industry-ready skills.

LIGHTING FOR DIGITAL IMAGING AND FILM PROGRAM

This program is a 3-credit course lead by industry experts. In response to industry demand, the course has been designed with an intensive one-month schedule, consisting of four weeks of instruction, five days per week.

The course consists of a combination of classroom lectures and practical demonstrations followed by extensive practical experience with the gear, and with lighting setups in a close approximation of true on-set and location shooting conditions.

All aspects of the new paradigms of digital imaging, from the underlying technology to the special considerations from a lighting work standpoint, will be thoroughly and rigorously studied and practically applied through exercises designed to exactly mimic the working conditions of real-world filmmaking.

INDIGENOUS INDEPENDENT DIGITAL FILMMAKING PROGRAMS

General Information

The Indigenous Independent Digital Filmmaking (IIDF) programs at Capilano University have provided basic production training for Indigenous students since the spring of 2000. The certificate and diploma programs are a response to the expanding demand for trained professionals in all areas of the Indigenous production industry. The industry is growing and so are the opportunities for creative, committed and skilled producers, writers, directors and technicians. The Indigenous Independent Digital Filmmaking programs are committed to providing Indigenous students with high-quality production training from the Indigenous perspective. Instructors are experienced, connected and respected Indigenous professionals working in the industry. IIDF student participants come from all areas of the country.

Through a combination of lectures, hands-on instruction, and production projects, students receive instruction and practical experience in all aspects of the film and television production process, from initial concept to finished production. All aspects of the program are related to Indigenous production.

In addition to lectures, hands-on instruction and project work, students have the opportunity to participate in a work experience practicum. This enables students to obtain on-the-job experience in the professional production environment and make connections with industry experts and potential employers.

Upon completion of the full IIDF diploma program students are eligible to apply for enrollment in the 3rd year Motion Picture Arts bachelor degree program at Capilano University.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/iidf.

Career Opportunities

Career opportunities in all areas within the TV and film industry sector are expanding. The creation of the Aboriginal People's Television Network (APTN) established a national network for Aboriginal people. The Canadian feature film industry has also grown rapidly. This industry development has greatly expanded the opportunities for Indigenous people to build careers in the film and television industries. Most opportunities involve contract employment. While there are staff production positions with broadcasters and production companies, the major opportunities are in the field of independent production. Employment is typically by contract for a specific production or series. Graduates of the IIDF certificate program have obtained entry level positions as production assistants, camera assistants, editing assistants and in some cases been mentored into production manager positions. Graduates of the IIDF diploma program have obtained further opportunities as camera operators, editors, writers, production managers and have developed their own production companies.

Indigenous Independent Digital Filmmaking Diploma Program

IIDF diploma program students learn to identify story development techniques in traditional Indigenous storytelling and explore the historic treatment of Indigenous identity in film & TV industry as it relates to their present role in the industry. They learn advanced use of appropriate technology tools: video camera, lights, sound, grip, and editing equipment. Students apply management practices and procedures, proper set etiquette and crew teamwork for the assembly, organization, management and leadership of small crews of digital technicians using industry standard production protocols. IIDF students learn principles of directing narrative stories from script analysis to methods for establishing creative collaborative relationships with actors in the pursuit of creating memorable performance for their short narrative productions, as well as techniques for factual documentation for the purpose of executing documentary productions.

Admission Requirements

- BC Secondary School Graduation (Grade 12) or equivalent OR Mature Student status.

School of Performing Arts

BACHELOR OF PERFORMING ARTS DEGREE

General Information

The Bachelor of Performing Arts (BPA) is a full-time, cohort-based capstone program that enrolls 25 students in a fourth year. Students earn the last 33 credits of a 120-credit bachelor's degree over nine months. The degree is conferred by the three-partner consortium of Capilano University, Douglas College and Langara. In the BPA program, students examine the historical and cultural context of the performing arts in Canada and around the world. They investigate, critique, and challenge the sociopolitical and cultural environment of the performing arts industry - what gets made, why, and how. At the same time, students do practical coursework in fundamental business skills, such as grant writing, founding an arts organization, and individual career development. While doing so, students also form a production company which creates, develops and mounts its own full production - an original, interdisciplinary performance event designed to reflect the creative interests and formal skills of the company members themselves. The program's 12-credit production phase challenges students to explore, master and apply the interdisciplinary performance theory and skills they have studied, putting it to highly practical use.

There will be considerable variety in the individual educational pathways students follow to be eligible for the BPA program. The program itself is the final (capstone) year, contributing 33 credits towards a bachelor's degree.

School of Performing Arts

The program is intended for students who want to practice as a professional performing artist, arts manager, administrator or cultural entrepreneur, or those who wish to continue on to graduate studies in the performing arts. To be eligible for admission, applicants will have some post-secondary education and training in at least one performing arts discipline.

Overview

The program will run May - January, with classes during the summer and fall semesters, and the capstone Interdisciplinary Production (project) in January.

In general, the 120 credits in the Bachelor of Performing Arts will comprise the following:

Film Crafts Department

- 60-90 credits in a performing arts program (depending on the p.a. credential)
- + 0-27 additional credits, as needed (breadth, English, upper-level electives)
- = 87 minimum credits needed prior to entry into the BPA capstone year
- + 33 credits 4th year BPA program course work
- = 120 minimum total credits (BPA degree earned)

Admission Requirements

- Diploma in an approved program, or equivalent, at one of the Partner Colleges, or at another post-secondary institution. GPA of 2.5.
- Interview, audition, portfolio
- CV, including relevant artistic/arts mgmt experience, primary artistic & other creative disciplines, number of years you have been practicing. Sample/portfolio of work; if primary discipline is performative, audition with interview. Can include image/data/audio/video samples of work (max 3). Two reference letters. Applicant's Statement of Intent: as you see your future, what are the ways you can imagine working as an artist.

Admission/Application Notes

Please note that as part of your application you will be required to attend an interview and/or audition. Auditions will be scheduled for those applicants whose background is in a performance discipline. JAZZ STUDIES PROGRAMS

General Information

Capilano University offers a four-year Bachelor of Music \(Jazz Studies\) and a two-year Jazz Studies Diploma.

The University also offers a four-year Bachelor of Music Therapy and a two-year university transfer program in classical music.

For more information, please see www.capilanou.ca/jazz-studies

General Information

The Bachelor of Music (Jazz Studies) teaches comprehensive abilities in jazz performance, composition, and pedagogy within the context of an enriched liberal arts education. Our goal is to educate musicians who understand and value the rich history and traditions of jazz, who will be prepared to contribute to the evolution and growth of the art form in the future, and who will be equipped to engage creatively with current trends in music. Jazz is an applied art form and the program demands the achievement of high standards in performance, improvisation, composition, and arranging.

Career Opportunities

The two-year Diploma program is intended to provide its students with the skills necessary to develop careers as self-employed music professionals.

The four-year Bachelor of Music (Jazz Studies) balances and integrates the instruction of jazz, traditional music, and general academic electives to provide a highly detailed and rich artistic education. Teaching music within the public school system will be a goal for many graduates and the Jazz Studies program may cover all the necessary music requirements for acceptance into fifth year teacher education programs. Capilano graduates teach in dozens of school districts across BC and beyond. For those who wish to teach at the college or university level, the Bachelor of Music (Jazz Studies) provides a thorough preparation for many graduate programs in music. Since 1995, graduates from the Jazz Studies program have been admitted into graduate programs at a variety of Canadian and American universities in the areas of composition, education, conducting, and performance. For those who wish to pursue music as self-employed professionals, this degree is a unique and attractive option. Graduates often build varied careers in music and related fields based upon a successful layering of skills. For example, some are following up the Jazz Studies degree with the Advanced Arts and Entertainment Management Certificate program (also offered at Capilano University), or with specialized training in business or technology relevant to the commercial music industry. Many graduates apply their musical skills in varied careers combining teaching, touring and performing music in a wide variety of styles, and working with music technology.

Major Streams in the Third and Fourth Years

The four years of study required for the Bachelor of Music (Jazz Studies) are offered at Capilano University. Following completion of the Jazz Studies two-year Diploma program, students choose from five overlapping major streams for the remainder of the degree: Instrumental or Vocal Performance, General Studies, General Studies (Education Stream), and Composition/Arranging. These five streams share a core curriculum, but differ in the proportion of large and small ensembles, private lessons, improvisation, music and academic electives required for graduation. Students from other post-secondary jazz programs are welcome to apply to the Jazz Studies program (see Transfer of Credit in this section of the Calendar).

Facilities

The Jazz Studies program facilities include practice rooms, a recording studio, a 300 seat theatre, and specialized music classroom spaces. A Mac computer lab is also available and includes software for word processing, music notation, MIDI sequencing, and audio/video editing.

Faculty

Jazz Studies faculty members comprise some of Canada's top professional jazz performers and composers as well as renowned academic researchers and pedagogues.

Transfer Credit

The Jazz Studies program grants transfer credit for courses taken at other post-secondary institutions if they have suitable equivalency. Because of the wide variations that exist in approach and emphasis in music programs, the Jazz Studies program reserves the right to examine for competency according to our course requirements before transfer credit is approved.

Transfer of concentration performance instrument courses, keyboard skills, and ear training credits will be possible only up to the placement level determined by the audition and by keyboard and ear training test results.

Transfer Between Undergraduate Programs

While no formal articulation agreements are in place between Capilano University's Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies program and other undergraduate jazz diploma and degree programs, Capilano University has accepted applications for transfer into its Bachelor of Music (Jazz Studies) from other post secondary institutions.

Continuation Requirements

All Jazz Studies students must be enrolled in a full-time course of study (at least nine credit hours) that includes a reasonable number of courses specific to their major (normally three) and must achieve a grade point average above 1.8.

In addition, to qualify and continue in the specialized majors, Jazz Studies Degree students are expected to achieve a minimum grade of B+ in all courses directly related to that major. These courses are the following:

Arranging/Composition

- Concentration PMI (Composition)
- All required Theory courses
- Arranging I, II, III, IV
- Rhythm Section Writing

Instrumental Performance

- Concentration PPMI
- Improvisation I, II, III, IV
- All Small Ensembles
- All Large Instrumental Ensembles
- JAZZ 284 and 285

Vocal Performance

- Concentration PPMI
- Improvisation I, II
- Vocal Improvisation I, II, III, IV
- Vocal Jazz Master Class I, II, III, IV
- All Vocal Ensembles
- JAZZ 296 and 297
- All Small Ensembles

C grades (C-, C, C+) in these courses can be applied for credit toward the Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies only with the permission of the Jazz Studies Grade Appeals Committee. When unusual circumstances have resulted in lower than expected grades in a student's first term of a continuing course, instructors may recommend to the Committee that the student be given probationary acceptance into the next term of the course. If the student fails to achieve a minimum of B+ in the next level of the course, no credit for either course can be applied toward the specialized degree.

A student who does not meet the continuation requirement for a Jazz Studies program in any term may be denied permission to register in that program in a subsequent term, or be required to re-audition.

Students should refer to Academic Policies and Procedures for further information on academic standing.

Information for Prospective Students

Information meetings, auditions and placement tests are held in May. Please call 604.984.4951 for meeting times and audition appointments.

Admission/Application Notes

Upon completion of the two-year Jazz Studies Diploma or equivalent transfer credit, a student may apply to one of the degree options for third year entry. Students may be permitted to register into some upper level courses before the completion of their diploma with the permission of the instructors involved, but official acceptance into the degree program is necessary before any opportunity to graduate should be anticipated. Transfer students should not anticipate immediate acceptance into the third year of the degree program, as there are normally some diploma level courses that must be completed before admission to the degree. Admission to a Jazz Studies degree program will be reviewed after submission of an application for admission and the requirements for the two-year Jazz Studies diploma have been met. (See Graduation Requirements, Two-Year Diploma.)

MUSIC DIPLOMA PROGRAM

General Information

Capilano University offers five music programs: a two-year Diploma in Music (Classical Music), a two-year Diploma in Jazz Studies, a one-year Conducting in Music certificate, a four-year Bachelor of Music (Jazz Studies) and a four-year Bachelor of Music Therapy.

The Diploma in Music program provides a rich learning environment, which nurtures the artistic and creative potential within each student. The program integrates theoretical, historical and performance studies, offering concentrations in piano, voice, guitar, strings, woodwinds, brass, percussion and composition. Students benefit from frequent recitals and masterclasses on their primary instrument, allowing them to develop confidence and self-expression in performance. Small class sizes with innovative and creative teaching enhance the students' educational experience and prepare them for a wide array of professions in the music field. Participation in the university's award-winning choir allows for concert and touring opportunities, while developing ensemble skills and rehearsal techniques. This two-year Diploma is transferable toward a Bachelor of Music Degree and also provides the foundation for further studies in Music Therapy, Music Education and the Liberal Arts. All courses in the Diploma in Music program are transferable to the School of Music at the University of British Columbia and to the Faculty of Music at the University of Victoria. Mission and Goals

The Theatre department and its production company are committed to inspire bold, passionate and dedicated exploration of the art of performance and entertainment technology. We embrace the values of collaboration, discovery and the pursuit of excellence through practical skills taught in a variety of professional environments. Our highest aim is to graduate dedicated and ethical artists who will contribute positively to the Canadian and global entertainment industries.

Facilities

Performance classes are held in the Arbutus Studio adjacent to the Capilano University's Performing Arts Theatre, which houses the department's season of plays. The Performing Arts Theatre is complete with a rehearsal hall, changing rooms, technical workshops, a fly-tower, and a 372-seat house.

Students in the Theatre department enjoy exceptional access to these facilities and assist in running the theatres in a hands-on educational experience.

Each year, the Capilano University Theatre department produces a season of full length plays in the Performing Arts Theatre. These productions also offer students practical experience in technical theatre and design, as well as exposure to guest directors and designers. Students may participate in productions by registering in a practicum course. Students who wish to participate in productions should not register in any courses which are scheduled Monday - Friday, 5:30 - 10:30 p.m. or Saturdays, 10:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Acting for Stage and Screen Diploma Program

General Information

The diploma in Acting for Stage and Screen provides three years of integrated training in acting for theatre, film and television. The goal is to provide each student with the skills necessary to begin a professional acting career in live theatre, television and film. The first year is comprehensive and introduces students to acting, improvisation, technical basics, history, and analysis for both the stage and screen. In the second and third years of the program students study directing and increasingly specialize in performance and professional skills. Upon graduation, students will have developed the actor's instrument of voice and body, learned text interpretation, and the scale of delivery for film, television and stage. Students will have performed in safe classroom environments, student produced theatre and film projects, and Theatre Department productions. Students will have met with professionals for master classes and assessment, and will have developed audition material and a résumé. This training will prepare them to enter the industry.

Technical Theatre Diploma Program

General Information

The Technical Theatre diploma program at Capilano University prepares graduates to work behind the scenes in the live entertainment industry and some areas of the film and television industry. This two-year program offers practical, hands-on training in lighting, painting, props, sound, set construction and stage management.

Our graduates are currently working for theatre companies, festivals, scene shops, special events, and lighting and sound companies. Some are also working in the film and television industry as grips, carpenters, painters and props people.

Technical Theatre Goals

The Technical Theatre program provides a thorough grounding in technical production skills required by a variety of entertainment media.

Facilities

Performance classes are held in the Arbutus Studio adjacent to the Capilano University Performing Arts Theatre, which houses the department's season of plays. The Performing Arts Theatre is complete with a rehearsal hall, changing rooms, technical workshops, a fly-tower, and a 372-seat house.

Theatre students enjoy exceptional access to these facilities and assist in running the theatres in a hands-on, educational experience.

School of Performing Arts

The Theatre department produces a series of plays in which students work in settings simulating professional conditions. The goal is to foster professional discipline and to provide opportunities for students to practise skills learned in the classroom.

Faculty and professional guest artists are the directors and designers for the plays produced by the Theatre department in the Performing Arts Theatre. Shows in this facility are technically challenging and provide valuable experience for student technicians.

In addition to the department productions, students have the opportunity to work on a wide variety of events that take place in the Performing Arts Theatre. Students are involved with the set up and operation of professional, touring theatre productions, folk, jazz, and pop concerts, and a host of other events.

Revues produced in the Arbutus Studio have different goals. They resemble the kind of theatre produced for Fringe Festivals and small companies. In this more intimate venue, students have the freedom to explore. Students are given the opportunity to assume leadership roles, and the production teams are expected to be self-reliant.

Admission Requirements

- BC Secondary School Graduation (Grade 12) or equivalent OR Mature Student status.

practice; or for students with experience but little formal training. The program can accommodate directors as well as stage managers and production specialists.

The Theatre Institute is open to students who have graduated with a theatre diploma from Capilano University or an equivalent program at another institution, or students who have equivalent performance experience but no formal certification.

Students are given the opportunity to work on Theatre department productions and in its facilities. Each year the department mounts productions in the 376-seat Capilano University Performing Arts Theatre and also in its well equipped, flexible studio theatre. Directors include experienced faculty, renowned guest artists, and directing students in the program. Each student will receive guidance through semi-private instruction or seminars, and practical experience in productions.

Completion of the Theatre Institute program signifies an intensive year of directing, or production experience. Outcomes will vary depending on the student's ability at entry but all students can expect an intensive exposure to the craft and the opportunity to develop personal skill.

PHIL 101 Introductory Philosophy: Ethics
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

An introduction to both ethical theory and applied ethics. The emphasis of the course varies among instructors, with all focusing to some extent on improving moral reasoning. The course covers the following issues: (a) What makes right actions right and wrong actions wrong? Utilitarianism, Kantianism, and virtue ethics are usually considered. (b) Why should I be moral, rather than merely self-interested? (c) In what sense, if any, are moral values objective? (d) If any of the following are wrong, what makes them wrong: private wealth, deception, capital punishment, euthanasia, assisted-suicide, meat-eating, abortion, cloning, polygamy, etc? (e) What are our moral obligations to children, the frail and elderly, future generations, and other species?

PHIL 102 Introductory Philosophy: Knowledge and Reality
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

An introduction to the part of philosophy concerned with questions about the ultimate nature of the world we live in and our knowledge of it (traditionally called Metaphysics and Epistemology). The issues discussed include: the existence and nature of God, the place of human beings in the universe, the nature of reality, human nature, human knowledge and skepticism, freedom and determinism, and the relationship between mind and body. The emphasis of the course varies from instructor to instructor.

PHIL 110 Critical Thinking
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

An introduction to the basic rules of clear and rational thought. The student will be taught, through extensive examples, how to detect false reasoning, illegitimate appeals to emotions, inconsistencies and contradictions. The goal is to develop our logical awareness to the point that we can no longer be victimized by the rhetoric of everyday life, and can develop our own arguments with clarity and confidence. At the instructor's discretion, the course may introduce students to classical syllogistic logic.

Note: PHIL 120 is a natural continuation of this course and is recommended for those who want a thorough introduction to the concepts and principles of rational thought.

Note: This is an approved Quantitative/Analytical course for baccalaureate degrees.

PHIL 117 Philosophy of Religion
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

Are there any good reasons for believing in God? Is there a conflict between faith and reason? What is fundamentalism? Is spirituality important for human flourishing? This course begins by examining the major arguments for theism. These include the teleological argument, the cosmological argument, the ontological argument, the argument from religious experience, the moral argument, and the cumulative case argument. The arguments are flawed, but they help us understand religious attitudes towards the limits of human knowledge, the nature of reality, the nature of persons, the objectivity of moral values, and questions such as why there is something rather than nothing. Arguments for atheism are also examined, including the problem of evil and reductive accounts of religious belief. The popular views of Richard Dawkins and other neo-atheists are introduced, as well as the claim that these writers fail to distinguish between informed religiosity and uninformed fundamentalism. In addition, the voluntarism of William James and the reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga are considered. These non-evidentialist positions are contrasted with the evidentialism of theists such as Richard Swinburne and atheists such as John Mackie. Finally, the possibility of religion without metaphysics is explored. The course is relevant to all, with or without religious faith. The emphasis of the course varies from instructor to instructor.

PHIL 120 Scientific Reasoning
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

This course focuses attention on the analysis and evaluation of inductive arguments. We begin by exploring the basic principles of inductive reasoning and then utilize these principles to explore such topics as rational decision making, the nature and testing of scientific theories in both the natural and social sciences and the difference between causal relations and correlations. Attention will also be given to the fallacies involved in the appeal to polls and statistics.

Note: There are no prerequisites, but the course is a natural continuation of PHIL 110, and will appeal especially to students who have an interest in either the natural or social sciences.

Note: This is an approved Quantitative/Analytical course for baccalaureate degrees.

PHIL 140 Philosophy and Law: Introduction to Canadian Law
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

A general introduction to the fundamental principles of jurisprudence and to the basic legal institutions of Canada. The course addresses such philosophical topics as what a law is; whether it is what legislators say it is or what courts say it is; and how to determine whether a law is good or bad. It also examines the history and theory of Canadian law (including the development of the Canadian Constitution), the system of Canadian courts, and the roles of members of the legal profession. Consideration is given to the nature of legal reasoning, the doctrine of precedent, and principles of statutory interpretation. An introduction is provided to the fields of contract, torts, administrative and family law, and the process of law reform.

PHIL 141 Philosophy and Law: Introduction to Criminal Justice System
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

An introduction to an analysis of theories of punishment and rehabilitation through an examination of the operational practices of the Canadian criminal justice system. In the course of studying the structure and operations of the criminal justice system in its various stages from the moment of initial police involvement to the correctional disposition of convicted offenders, the course focuses on both theoretical and practical decision making. Theoretical concerns include: individual civil liberties in relation to police procedures, notions of evidence, sentencing theory, and current correctional strategies.

Note: The above two courses are modelled on SFU's Criminology 131/135 and are intended for both philosophy students and those interested in pursuing further studies in the field of criminology.

PHIL 150 History of Philosophy: Ancient and Medieval

PHIL 200 Political Philosophy: Classic Theories

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

This course surveys major political theories in the Western tradition. It introduces students to the principal issues in political philosophy by looking at the writings of some of history's most important philosophers, possibly including Plato, Aristotle, Machiavelli, Hobbes, Locke, Rousseau, Mill, and Marx. The general question addressed is: How should society be organized? In considering answers to this question we investigate the grounds for political and social structures like the state, government, laws, property, and principles of justice.

PHIL 201 Political Philosophy: Problems and Issues

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

This course adopts a problems and issues approach to political philosophy. Rather than focusing on particular philosophers in the history of political thought (as in PHIL 200), we consider answers to some of the most pressing questions facing political theorists. Topics addressed might include: the justification of authority; the value and limits of rights; liberty and equality; the advantages and disadvantages of democracy; the nature and scope of justice; and nationalism and globalization. A contemporary perspective will be emphasized.

PHIL 202 Introduction to Formal Logic

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

A standard introduction to the formal techniques of argument analysis. Formal logic was invented to mirror and evaluate mathematical reasoning and is now a separate branch of Mathematics. Our interest in it will, however, not be mathematical. Instead we will concentrate on the relation of formal logic to everyday reasoning and language in general. The course is essential for students thinking of majoring in Philosophy, but also very useful to Computing Science and Mathematics majors. It is designed to transfer to SFU as their Philosophy 210 (required for both Philosophy and Computing Science majors), and to UBC as Philosophy 302. There are no prerequisites, although students may find Philosophy 110 provides useful background. Please note that this is not an introductory philosophy course, but one which introduces mathematical methods of argument analysis. It is not suitable for students merely seeking a general understanding of what philosophy has to offer.

Note: This is an approved Quantitative/Analytical course for baccalaureate degrees.

PHIL 207 Business Ethics

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

The course will also introduce students to a number of classical ethical theories and theories of economic justice. Open to anyone in first or second year.

PHIL 208 Environmental Ethics
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

This course deals with ethical and political issues arising from the relationship between humans and their natural surroundings. Typical questions that will be addressed are: Do animals have rights? Is using animals for food and clothing morally wrong? Do we have an obligation to the natural environment such as an obligation to preserve species? What are our obligations to future generations? What is sustainable development? Are environmental problems fundamentally personal or are they fundamentally political and social? Open to anyone in first or second year.

All moral problems will be examined from both an applied and theoretical point of view. Open to anyone in first or second year.

PHIL 211 Metaphysics and Epistemology
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

Prerequisite: At least one philosophy course

An introduction to some of the traditional problems of metaphysics and epistemology. Some of the questions considered are: Does God exist? What is the relationship between faith and reason? Does free will exist? Is sense perception a reliable source of knowledge? What is the nature of causality? Is materialism true? What is the nature of mind? What is the relationship between mind and body? What is the scientific method? While this is not a course in the history of philosophy, it will cover many of the classical attempts to answer these questions.

Note: Prerequisite may be waived by permission of instructor.

PHIL 220 Philosophy in Literature

Textual sources will range from the classical Greek plays to last month's best seller. Open to anyone in first or second year.

PHIL 221 Existentialism in Literature
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

This course is, in spirit, a continuation of PHIL 220, but it is centred on the Philosophy of Existentialism in literature. Philosophy

An introduction to philosophical analysis of cultural works. One of the objectives of the course is to make sense of what a society is "saying" through its popular culture. Open to anyone in first or second year.

PHIL 230 Minds, Brains, and Machines

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

This course is an introduction to contemporary philosophy of mind. We will investigate the major philosophical theories of mind, but consider also if or how recent developments in neuroscience, biology, psychology, and the study of artificial intelligence influence the philosophical evaluation of these theories. Philosophy of mind is not psychology (although obviously there are connections). Rather, it is the attempt to understand what mental phenomena are and how they might relate to the physical (or material) realm. In the course, we will address questions like the following. What is the nature of mental states? What is the relationship between the mind and the body? Will a physical explanation of consciousness explain consciousness? Are 'zombies' possible? Is the brain just a computer? Is genuine artificial intelligence possible?

PHIL 240 Philosophy and Gender Relations

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

Founded on a wide range of philosophical readings, this course will focus on questions such as: What is the good life and its relation to intimacy and family? What is the good person? Are there different models for different genders? What constitutes a good relationship? How important are mutuality, respect, affection, sex, and interdependence to such a relationship? What counts as equality/equity? How should the answers to such questions influence our views on such social issues as affirmative action, prostitution and pornography?

The impact of "Women's Liberation" and the "Men's Movement" will be discussed, as will varying suggestions for overcoming the "gender gap". This course should be of interest to men and women equally; indeed, it is assumed that the quality of class discussion will be a function of the degree to which the perspectives of both genders are well represented. Open to anyone in first or second year.

PHIL 242 Philosophy of Human Nature

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

This course tackles a broad spectrum of questions and approaches the issue of human nature. Among the questions to be considered are: Are we, by nature, morally good or evil? Are we purely egocentric beings-biological machines of some sort - or are we spiritual, immaterial beings? Is there some enduring entity that defines the self? Are we free to do as we choose? Or are we essentially passionate creatures who act strictly on the basis of our feelings? Ultimately, our goal will be to learn to think critically and independently about these issues.

Prerequisite: 45 credits of 100 level or higher coursework including PHIL 101

This course examines recent philosophical literature on what makes human lives significant and important. It considers naturalist, supernaturalist, non-naturalist, and nihilist perspectives. It asks in what sense moral virtue and spirituality are central to a meaningful life. It also asks if meaning is threatened by scientific explanations of virtues and values, and if the seriousness with which we take our projects is in some sense absurd.

PHIL 302 Knowledge and Truth

Prerequisite: 45 credits of 100 level or higher coursework including PHIL 102 and 3 additional credits of 100 or 200 level PHIL

This course deals with a core area of philosophy - the theory of knowledge: epistemology. Epistemology deals with knowledge in its most general terms - its nature, scope, and limits. Central questions addressed include: What is knowledge? What does it take for a belief to be justified? Does justification depend on providing some reason supporting the belief, or can we know something without know that (or how) we know it? This course will examine these and related questions through a selection of papers and articles from many of the key figures in epistemology, focusing primarily on the arguments of epistemologists in contemporary debate.

PHIL 305 Philosophy Through Film
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

Prerequisite: 45 credits of 100 level or higher coursework including 6 credits of 100 or 200 level PHIL

This course examines and evaluates central philosophical themes and problems by means of the visual medium of film. Philosophical topics examined through the medium of film are as broad and varied as philosophy itself, but themes that have been more extensively explored include the nature of personal identity, what it is to be human, the existence and limits of free will, the existence of God, the meaning of life, as well as a wide array of issues in ethics and political philosophy. Philosophical texts and essays will be integrated with the viewing of the films in order to bring additional focus and depth to the philosophical examination of the films. Specific films and readings assigned will vary from instructor to instructor.

Sociology

SOC 100 Social Structures
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

The course systematically covers major topics and issues of concern to anyone who wishes to begin to understand and come to terms with the modern world in a personally and sociologically relevant way. The basic theme of the course is that we are, to a greater extent than generally imagined, produced, structured and run by the social machine or social or societal determinants. This structured aspect of society is comprised of institutions such as the family, religion, the mass media and education, for example, as well as rules, customs, laws, ideologies, etc. Our society is also embedded with structural inequalities related to gender, social class and ethnicity. Utilizing what has been termed "the sociological imagination," the course looks at how we are influenced by these aspects of society and in turn how we react to these influences.

Note: Both SOC 100 and SOC 101 are required for students intending to major in Sociology at SFU or UBC.

SOC 101 Concepts and Theories of Society
3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

With current social conditions in mind, this course analyzes the general development of sociological thought in the 19th and 20th centuries. We will look at a variety of sociological theories and approaches to understanding society (structural functionalism, conflict theory, symbolic interactionism, feminism, and others) and employ these approaches to analyze events of current interest, importance and impact in society.

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

Prerequisite: 45 credits of 100 level or higher coursework including 3 credits of SOC

SOC 301 Social Inequality

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

Prerequisite: 45 credits of 100 level or higher coursework

Canadian society faces numerous social divisions, such as those between rich and poor, women and men, and Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people. These differences lead to important social outcomes, as in access to health care, seniors' pensions, or the wages we earn in our jobs. The student will use theories and research to understand social inequality in Canada today.

The social effects of this crisis will be experienced depending on whether you are rich or poor, or live in the global South or North. SOC 351 Modernism, Postmodernism, and Society

Prerequisite: 45 credits of 100 level or higher coursework including SOC 101

Sociological tradition argues that empirical social science can be used as a tool to change society for the better. "Postmodern" social theories emerged in the 1970s to criticize these mainstream assumptions, about rational science, revolutionary politics, and the "grand narrative" of progress. The debate continues, and this course will provide an overview of the social theories involved and the social changes that provide the context for these theories.

SOC 352 Marxism and Social Theory

3.00 credits (4,0,0) hrs 15 wks

Prerequisite: 45 credits of 100 level or higher coursework including SOC 101

While Karl Marx's ideas seemed to collapse with the fall of communism in the Soviet Union and Eastern Bloc, this course will argue that Marx is better seen as a critic of capitalism rather than a theorist of communism. His analysis of subjects such as class struggle, the magical lure of commodities, and the spread of globalization remain relevant today. Indeed, many contemporary thinkers have taken Marx's ideas and reworked them in ways that provide an original and critical view of our society.

Cognition is the ability to take in information, whereas memory is the ability to bring back information. Memory is often assumed to be present, but if it is not, it can cause significant frustrations to both students and instructors. This course is designed to develop memory.

VISN 070 Preparation for Reading
