OVERVIEW

Capilano University alumni contribute to the campus community and student success through the Capilano University Alumni Association (CUAA). One of the responsibilities of the CUAA is to ensure that alumni voices are represented throughout the university. For that reason, the CUAA is responsible for recommending members to sit on its board of directors and committees, as well as recommending alumni representatives to serve as members of the Senate and Board of Governors.

This package will provide information to candidates looking to serve as a member of the CUAA Finance committee. Within it you will learn more about the CUAA, the responsibilities associated with the role of a board member, and the associated governing documents.

The timelines associated with this particular call for nominations are outlined at the end of this document, please be sure to review them.

ABOUT THE CUAA

WHAT IS THE CUAA?

The CUAA, together with the Development and Alumni Relations Office (DAR), is committed to building and serving the community of present and future alumni. The CUAA works collaboratively with DAR to develop a strategy that brings current and former members of the Capilano University community together and towards an exciting future that creates connection, and inspires achievement and lifelong learning.

The CUAA envisions a future where our investment in students and alumni success inspires our members, strengthens the CAPU experience, and fosters excellence in all communities CUAA will achieve this vision by supporting and developing our members, fostering student success, and celebrating achievements.
