

Early Childhood Educator (On-Call)

Capilano University is named after Chief Joe Capilano (1854–1910), an important leader of the Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation of the Coast Salish Peoples. We respectfully acknowledge that our campuses are located on the unceded territories of the səlilwətaɬ (Tsleil-Waututh), shíshálh (Sechelt), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam) Nations.

At Capilano University we are committed to supporting a campus community that is both diverse and inclusive. We believe that diversity within our workforce is essential in creating both an exceptional student and employee experience. As part of our ongoing commitment to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI), we strive to ensure that our recruitment campaigns authentically reflect the diverse community we serve. We actively encourage applications from Indigenous Peoples, Black and racialized persons, persons with disabilities, women, and members of the 2SLGBTQIA+ community, as we value the unique perspectives, lived experiences, and skillsets each individual brings to CapU.

To help us focus our efforts, we encourage all applicants to complete a short anonymous questionnaire, if they wish. The results of the questionnaire are not linked to you or your application and do not form part of the selection process. The goal of collecting this anonymous data is to gain a better understanding our organizational reach, while continuously working to improve the diversity of our applicant pool.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Should you require accommodations during the hiring process please reach out to jeremyorsted@capilanou.ca (faculty), or mimibuan@capilanou.ca (Ad/Ex and Staff).

Working with us

Capilano University's Children's Centre is a vibrant and inspiring workplace where a passion for early childhood education meets a culture of collaboration, experimentation, and inclusion. Guided by the Reggio Emilia pedagogical approach, we honor children and families as active participants in education. Here, educators co-construct curriculum with children, materials, and place; here living inquiries take life and allow us to respond collectively to problems and curiosities generated in their daily lives. The Children's Centre works in partnership with the Centre for Research and Childhood Studies acting as an academic living laboratory where educators, atelierista, pedagogist, students, faculty, children and families are in collaborative, generative and reciprocal partnerships that inform curriculum and course development.

As a member of our dedicated team, you will be part of a supportive community that values diversity, mutual respect, and teamwork, while also celebrating your unique contributions as an educator. Our brand new, licensed, accredited facility is thoughtfully designed to inspire both children and staff, providing the resources and environment to implement innovative, relationship-centered teaching practices. At the Children's Centre, we prioritize professional growth, offering opportunities for ongoing learning and development to support your career aspirations.

As part of Capilano University, you'll enjoy a workplace culture that emphasizes well-being, work-life balance, and a commitment to sustainability and community engagement. Joining our team means being part of a larger mission to shape thoughtful and engaged youth of the future, while creating meaningful educational experiences that inspire lifelong learning. Your passion for early childhood education will be celebrated, your professional journey will be supported, and your impact will be transformative.

Discover a workplace where your dedication to pedagogical work is celebrated, and your contributions make a lasting impact. Apply now to join Capilano University's Children's Centre team and help shape the next generation of learners!

About the role

NATURE AND SCOPE OF WORK

The Early Childhood Educator is an Early Childhood Care and Education position in the Capilano University Children's Centre. The position is responsible for the care, education and well-being of children age 0-5. Early Childhood Educators work collaboratively with other educators, and with the Centre for Childhood Studies, to provide a nurturing, inclusive and rich early learning environment for young children. The position reports to the Manager of the Children's Centre and to the Dean of the faculty of Education, Health and Human Development.

ECEs demonstrate sound ethical and professional practices, which reflect the ECEBC Code of Ethics and the BC Early Learning Framework. They are in dialogue with, and guided by, the Early Learning Frameworks focus on 1) well-being and belonging, 2) engagement with others, materials and the world, 3) communication and literacies, and 4) identities, social responsibility and diversity in daily classroom practice. ECEs and the Children's Centre stand as allies with the BC Aboriginal Child Care Society, working in all ways to honour the Indigenous Early Learning and Care Framework in daily practice.

The Children's Centre works in partnership with the Centre for Childhood Studies acting as an academic, living laboratory where educators, students, faculty, children and families are in collaborative, generative and reciprocal partnerships that inform curriculum and course development. Early Childhood Educators actively engage in the mentorship of ECCE students, bringing classroom theories into practice.
