BlueShore at CapU is located at: 2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver, BC

How to get here:

The BlueShore Financial Centre for the Performing Arts is located in the Birch Building on the Capilano University campus in North Vancouver. We are across from the Centre for Sport and Wellness

This picture shows our location (with a red mark) on a map of the surrounding area.

By Car – parking info

There are two parking meters located inside the Birch building (the building that houses the theatre). The only exception to this is if you are parking in the Short Term Lot (#7) where there is an outside meter specific to that location. Please note there is no flat rate in the short-term lot unless you are parking in the accessible parking spots with a designated SPARC permit.

BlueShore at CapU is located at: 2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver, BC

Before proceeding to the theatre you will need to note your license plate number. The flat rate for the evening (after 5 p.m.) and weekends/stats is $4.75*

To save time and for your convenience, we highly recommend pre-paying your parking using the Pay by Phone option. The lot number for Parking Lot #1, the main theatre parking lot, is 5783.

Getting Here:

Northbound on Hwy 1 (Trans-Canada Highway):

Take Exit 22b at the north end of the Iron Workers Memorial (Second Narrows) Bridge. From Exit 22b, proceed through the first intersection in the centre lanes and continue up the hill on Lillooet Road to main entrance on Purcell Way (.5km). Turn right on Purcell Way.

Southbound on Hwy 1 (Trans-Canada Highway):

Take Exit 22b toward Lynn Creek, use the left two lanes to turn left onto Fern St. (signs for Mount Seymour Parkway/Lillooet Rd.), then proceed straight on to Lillooet Rd. to the main entrance on Purcell Way (.5km). Turn right on Purcell Way.

The Lobby

This is where you will enter from outside. In the lobby you can pick up tickets, use the washroom or access the theatre.

Before the show starts people may be waiting outside in a line to keep the lobby clear. There may be some people who have asked to sit in the lobby instead of waiting outside. These people may be talking loudly. You are safe in the lobby.

If you need to leave during a show for whatever reason you are welcome to sit in the lobby and you can ask the Front of House Manager for help if you need it. You may still hear some of the sounds from the show while you are in the lobby but it should be quieter than inside the theatre space.

The Box Office

BlueShore at CapU is located at: 2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver, BC

If you are visiting The BlueShore at CapU, you will need a ticket for your event. You might have purchased tickets in advance or be buying them when you arrive. You can pick up purchased tickets or buy a ticket at the Box Office from the Box Office Associate.

When you enter the theatre you will show your Print At Home ticket or the ticket from the box office. Your ticket may also be on your mobile device. An usher will scan your ticket QR or Barcode to count your attendance at the show.

The Concession

This is a picture of the concession

You may wish to purchase a drink or snack to enjoy in the theatre. The concession sells coffee, cold drinks, wine and beer. They also have snacks like chips and cookies. At the time this document was written, the concession can accept cash payment only.

The Washrooms

When facing the theatre if you turn to the right, there is a hallway to the washrooms.

This is the hallway to the washrooms.

There is one gender neutral/accessible washroom and one men's and one women's with stalls inside

There are accessible stalls in each washroom. There is an accessible push button on the bathroom door on the right side of the washroom hallway.

The theatre doors will be opened half an hour before your show is set to start for the audience to enter. Sometimes the stage or seating looks a little bit different depending on the show. If you need to leave the space at any time you can exit through the door to the lobby.

People you might see

Front of House Manager: This person will be moving around the space to answer questions plus will make sure you get into the performance and see the show. They will have an ID tag and are there to assist you.

Here is a picture of a Front of House Manager at the entrance to the theatre.

Box Office Associate: This is the person that will be sitting in the box office and will welcome you when you enter the lobby. They will help you pick up your tickets to the show or help you buy tickets if you have not purchased tickets before coming to the theatre.

Volunteer Usher: This person will take your ticket from you before you enter the theatre space and will return it to you, they are a good person to ask if you have questions.

House Technicians: This person will run the lights and sound for the show and they sit in the “booth” which is a small room up high in the back of the theatre. You may also see a technician using the sound board in the back right side of the theatre. This person controls the sound levels for the show
