

Spring 2021 Adapted Delivery Methods

Courses for the Spring 2021 term will be offered in a similar remote adapted delivery format as the Fall 2020 term. However, unlike the Fall term, the delivery method of each course will be listed on MyCap Schedule (see example below).

The screenshot shows a course entry for MT 511 Pre-Professional Practicum. The course is offered in the Fall 2020 term (Sep 8 - Dec 17) as a Full Term session. It is located in North Vancouver and has a delivery method of Remote Async+Sync. The course number is 33425, and it is worth 15.0 credits. The status is 'Seats: Full', 'Waitlist: None', and 'Attributes: CCAP'. A warning icon indicates that not all classes have seats available. Below the course entry, there is a search bar with the course number 33425 and a yellow tooltip explaining that access to the schedule is subject to requirements. At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Register *' and 'Get Fee Details'.

The delivery methods for Spring 2021 are as follows:

- RA - Remote Asynchronous: Sections do not require students to join the class online on any specific day/time.
- RS - Remote Synchronous: Sections require that students join the class online on specified days/times. Sections that are delivered synchronously are scheduled in Pacific Time.
- RAS - Remote Asynchronous + Synchronous: Sections are delivered using both asynchronous and synchronous methods in combination. These sections require that students join the class online on specified days/times, but not exclusively.
- DD - Dual Delivery (In-person + Remote): Sections are delivered using BOTH in-person and remote methods in combination. These sections require that students join the class in-person on specified days/times, but not exclusively. Remote classes may be synchronous and/or asynchronous.

- IP - In-person: Sections require that students join the class on specified days/times and location.
- OF- Off-campus: Sections delivered off-campus
- ON- Online: Sections that had been approved to run online prior to COVID-19. Please note online sections do not have specific synchronous days/times.

Additional Information

- DD (Dual Delivery) sections will have additional information about meeting times listed in the course registration notes in MyCap Schedule.
- All North Vancouver remote sections (RA, RS, RAS) will appear with the building and room listed as “REMOTE-None”, while Mount Currie, Sechelt, Squamish campus sections will display as “MC-Remote”, “SE-Remote”, “SQ-Remote”, respectively.
- All IP (In-Person) and DD (Dual Delivery) sections will appear with specific building and rooms.

Viewing Registration Notes

To View Registration Notes:

1. Select a course e.g. ENGL 100
2. Click the ‘Show More’ link in Course Description to view the detailed course information.

The screenshot shows a course selection interface. At the top, there are filters for 'Campuses: All (7) Select...' and 'Instructional Methods: All Select...'. Below these is a search box labeled 'Select Course' with a 'Select' button and a 'Filter my Course Selection...' link. The main content area shows a course entry for 'ENGL 100' at 'North Vancouver'. It includes a warning icon and text: 'All classes are full (10 waitlistable classes available)'. Below this is the course title 'University Writing Strategies' and a 'Try all sections (10)' button. The 'Course Description' is partially visible, ending with a red box around the 'Show More' link. At the bottom, there are links for 'Start Over', 'Increase Accessibility', 'View My Class Schedule', and 'A-Z List of Courses'.

Course Description: This university writing course introduces students to foundational strategies for critical reading, analytical thinking, and clear writing. Through the exploration of topical questions in local and global contemporary culture, the course teaches core skills for active reading and discussion, and provides students with opportunities to write in a range of forms and genres from blog posts to critical analysis to research projects. Revision and detailed individual feedback are fundamental components of the course. Modules on research literacy are taught in collaboration with the university library. Modules on editing, revision, and digital literacy are taught in collaboration with the Capilano Writing Centre.
