Most Fall 2020 term courses will be offered in an adapted delivery method including online, mixed-mode (a mix of in-person and online) and in-person. The delivery method of these courses will be listed in the course's Registration Notes in MyCap Schedule.

You will need to refer to the Registration Notes of each course to ensure that you are registering for the course with your preferred delivery method.

The Registration Notes for each delivery method will be as follows:

- For online courses with specific virtual meeting times:
 - Registration Note: "Online. This section has specific meeting times as displayed."
- For online courses without specific virtual meeting times:
 - Registration Note: "Online. This section has no specific meeting times."
- For mixed-mode courses:
 - Registration Note: "A combination of on-campus and online meetings. Meeting times will be determined by the instructor."
- For in-person courses:
 - Registration Note: "In-person. This section has specific meeting times as displayed."

To View Registration Notes:

1. Select a course e.g. ENGL 100
2. Click the 'Show More' link in Course Description to view the detailed course information.

The screenshot shows a course selection interface. At the top, there are filters for 'Campuses: All (7) Select...' and 'Instructional Methods: All Select...'. Below these is a search box labeled 'Select Course' with a 'Select' button and a 'Filter my Course Selection...' link. The main content area shows a course card for 'ENGL 100' at 'North Vancouver'. The card includes a warning icon and text: 'All classes are full (10 waitlistable classes available)'. Below this is the course title 'University Writing Strategies' and a 'Try all sections (10)' button. The 'Course Description' is partially visible, ending with a red box around the 'Show More' link. At the bottom of the card are links for 'Start Over', 'Increase Accessibility', 'View My Class Schedule', and 'A-Z List of Courses'.

Course Description: This university writing course introduces students to foundational strategies for critical reading, analytical thinking, and clear writing. Through the exploration of topical questions in local and global contemporary culture, the course teaches core skills for active reading and discussion, and provides students with opportunities to write in a range of forms and genres from blog posts to critical analysis to research projects. Revision and detailed individual feedback are fundamental components of the course. Modules on research literacy are taught in collaboration with the university library. Modules on editing, revision, and digital literacy are taught in collaboration with the Capilano Writing Centre.
