COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Quiz de lecture:

Prior to each day where readings are due, there will be a short (online) quiz to gauge students' comprehension of the material on Moodle. The best of 8 marks will be taken into account. No make-up quizzes are allowed.

Lab:

Language labs provide the opportunity to further develop listening and pronunciation skills. Students must attend the Language Resource Centre (LRC in Arbutus 117) to complete assigned material (typically 45 min per week). The LRC will be open on a drop-in basis. Mark will be based on completion of weekly assignments.

Conversation:

During conversation classes students have the opportunity to practice speaking French in small groups. Mistakes and risk-taking are a normal part of the learning process; students are therefore encouraged to participate to the best of their ability. Students will participate in a one-hour conversation seminar on a weekly basis, during which oral exercises will be conducted based on lessons learned in the lecture.

Participation:

Classroom participation counts for 10% of the final mark. This mark is based on the quality of participation (in French) during individual and group work. Students will be required to read texts before the class, discuss texts in small groups, participate in communication activities, speak French at all times and work cooperatively with various partners

L'anthologie personnelle:

As an end-of-semester project, each student will be required to create an annotated bibliography of eight selected writings from the time period we will cover this semester (Middle Ages to contemporary literature). Students may choose readings from Moments littéraires or from other sources. However, not more than two readings can be extraits examined in class. In the last week of the course, students will team up with two other students and create a composite ('best of') bibliography.

Exams:

A mid-semester exam as well as a final exam will gauge grammar concepts seen in class and the reading.

GRADING PROFILE

Letter grades will be assigned according to the following guidelines:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D = 50-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	F = 0-49
A- = 80-84	B- = 70-72	C- = 60-62

Incomplete Grades

Grades of Incomplete "I" are assigned only in exceptional circumstances when a student requests extra time to complete their coursework. Such agreements are made only at the request of the student, who is responsible to determine from the instructor the outstanding requirements of the course.

Late Assignments

Assignments are due at the beginning of the class on the due date listed. If you anticipate handing in an assignment late, please consult with your instructor beforehand.

Missed Exams/Quizzes/Labs etc.

Make-up tests are given at the discretion of the instructor provided that the student contacts the instructor on or before the due date. They are generally given only in medical emergencies or severe personal crises. Some missed labs or other activities may not be able to be accommodated. Please consult with your instructor.

Attendance

Attendance in class, labs and conversation sessions are required. It is the student's responsibility to catch up on any material missed due to absence from class, including announcements, assigned reading/homework and handouts. Students are expected to adhere to class times so as not to disrupt the activity of the class.
