COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Quiz de lecture:

Prior to each day where readings are due, there will be a short (online) quiz to gauge students' comprehension of the material on Moodle. The best of 10 marks will be taken into account. No make-up quizzes are allowed.

Labs:

Language labs provide the opportunity to further develop listening and pronunciation skills. Students must attend the Language Resource Centre (LRC in Arbutus 117) to complete assigned material (typically 45 min per week). The LRC will be open on a drop-in basis. Mark will be based on completion of weekly assignments.

Conversation:	During conversation classes you have the opportunity to practice speaking French in small groups. Mistakes and risk-taking are a normal part of the learning process; you are therefore encouraged to participate to the best of your ability. Students will participate in a one hour conversation seminar on a weekly basis, during which oral exercises will be conducted based on lessons learned in the lecture.
Participation:	Classroom participation counts for 10% of the final mark. This mark is based on the quality of participation (in French) during individual and group work. Students will be required to read texts before the class, discuss texts in small groups, participate in communication activities, speak French at all times and work cooperatively with various partners
Séances d'écriture libre	Short 100-150 word writing assignments will be given in-class over the semester. These écriture libre sessions will vary widely in topic and leave much scope for interpretation. The use of dictionaries and word processing correction tools will be strongly encouraged. After the assignment is submitted, the instructor will identify grammatical or syntactic trouble areas which must be addressed and corrected within one week. To obtain full marks for this assignment, students must be in attendance when all paragraphs are written and have corrected them promptly. Students will rework one writing assignment as an outside of class project, expand it to 500- 750 words in length and resubmit it for grading on the last day of the semester. Further details of this assignment will be given in class.
Exams:	A mid-semester exam as well as a final exam will be given in-class gauging grammar concepts seen in class and the reading.

Attendance

Attendance in class, labs and conversation sessions are required. It is the student's responsibility to catch up on any material missed due to absence from class, including announcements, assigned reading/homework and handouts. Students are expected to adhere to class times so as not to disrupt the activity of the class.

Missed Exams

If absent for an exam, the student will receive a grade of zero. Special arrangements can only be made in case of documented illness or severe personal crisis and provided that the student contact the instructor on or before the due date. In the case of illness proper medical documentation must be given. Make-up tests are given at the discretion of the instructor.

Final Exams

There will be a final written exam during the final exam period, December DD to December DD (this includes Saturday, December DD). Students can expect to write exams at any time during this period. Individual exam times will not be rescheduled because of holidays, work, or other commitments.

Incomplete Grades

Incomplete grades ("I") are given only when special arrangements have been agreed upon with the instructor prior to the end of the semester. Since "I" grades are granted only in exceptional circumstances (usually health problems), their occurrence is rare.

Cheating and Plagiarism

All forms of cheating, including plagiarism, (on examinations, quizzes, in-class work and/or assignments) will result in a mark of "0" at the instructor's discretion. A repeat of cheating/plagiarism in this course may result in an "F" letter grade for the course.

Emergency Procedures

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the emergency procedures posted on the wall of the classroom.
