COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course explores topics from an interdisciplinary perspective. Drawing on the disciplines traditionally housed in the Arts and Sciences, individual offerings of the course engage in a sustained examination of a range of historical, theoretical and current issues relevant to the selected topic. The course topic will typically correspond with the Liberal Studies term theme -- e.g. sustainability, memory, and revolution.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Differentiate between intradisciplinary, crossdisciplinary, multidisciplinary, interdisciplinary, and transdisciplinary research and knowledge production;
- Explore historical and contemporary issues relevant to the topic under investigation;
- Engage with global and national aspects of the topic under investigation;
- Review and analyze current literature in the topic under investigation;
- Demonstrate use of relevant quantitative and/or qualitative reasoning and research methods.
