

Bachelor of Motion Picture Arts

Bosa Centre for Film and Animation

Become a visual storyteller

Films have the power to transport people out of their daily lives with escapist excitement, inspire us with visual effects and flourishes, and spur social change with compelling narratives. In Capilano University's Bachelor of Motion Picture Arts program, you'll learn how to tell stories that evoke emotions and change lives.

Work like the pros

You'll be working on sets and in studios to produce, direct and write your own productions. Our well-connected, experienced faculty will help you develop the technical knowledge and creative confidence to succeed in the film industry and thrive creatively.

Learn in quality facilities with top equipment

Gain vital hands-on skills before starting theoretical training at CapU's state-of-the art Bosa Centre for Film and Animation. You'll have access to professional equipment, including 4K and 3D cameras, sound recording and mixing suites, an 8,000-square-foot sound stage, editing labs, visual effects studio, as well as advanced camera equipment and software.
