

Musical Theatre Diploma

Enter stage left

If you're serious about a career in the performing arts, the three-year Musical Theatre diploma at Capilano University is the right place to start.

Become a triple threat

The Musical Theatre Diploma is an immersive training program that prepares you for a career in musical theatre and the performing arts. You'll become a well-rounded performer through courses in acting, singing and dancing with instructors who are professionals in their fields.

Showcase your skills

Before graduation, you'll perform in the graduation showcase, a chance to introduce yourself to industry members eager to see the culmination of your training in acting, musicianship, dance, ensemble and solo vocals.

"The Capilano University Musical Theatre program taught me the importance of living my life authentically and with integrity. It is because of the incredible faculty there who believed in my potential and further nurtured my abilities that I got to where I am today."
