

School of Public Administration

Boost your career with a better education

Designed for those who are currently employed by municipalities, regional districts, First Nations governments, improvement districts and supporting agencies in B.C., these programs are a great way to get the big picture, expand your skills and advance your career.

Learn in collaborative seminars

Through seminars, course readings and assignments, you'll examine a wide range of current practices in local government and develop your critical thinking, writing and presentation skills, helping you become a more effective leader, manager and agent for change.

Gain expertise from our experienced faculty

Local government programs at CapU have been taught by senior local government practitioners who enjoy sharing the knowledge they've gained from decades of experience on the job.
