

Tourism Management International Diploma

Build management skills for a global career

Designed for international students with English as a second language, this program will improve your abilities in sales, marketing, leadership, human resources and cross-cultural tourism. You'll participate in networking events, field trips and learn from industry experts. Program completion, along with English language support, enables direct transfer into the third year of the Bachelor of Tourism Management program.

Join 50 years of successful graduates

For five decades, Capilano University has been a leader in tourism education, with alumni in successful careers at industry-leading companies, including Arc'teryx, Expedia, Fairmont Hotels, the Vancouver Airport Authority, Westin Resorts and Whistler Blackcomb.

Test your skills on the job

To ensure you are job-ready before graduation, the final stage of the Tourism Management International diploma is a mandatory eight-week, 280-hour work experience at a leading tourism company in Vancouver.

Career paths

- Customer service agent
- Event planner and coordinator
- Hotel operations, sales and management
- Marketing manager
- Tourism information officer
- Travel agent

Programs

Tourism Management International Diploma

2 years | 280-hour work experience | Starts in September or January