

Services for Students

Accessibility Services	Birch 267	604.983.7526
Services, accommodations, and educational planning are available for students with documented disabilities (including learning disabilities).
Admissions' & Registration Office	Birch 230	604.984.4900
Admissions, registration, tuition fees, course changes and course withdrawals, graduation information, and official transcripts are all handled by this office.
Advising Centre	Birch 230	604.984.4900
Advisors help students with educational planning, choosing courses and planning transfers to other institutions. A designated advisor is available to assist international students.
Athletics	Sportsplex 114	604.984.4977
Students can participate in various sports and recreation activities on campus. Services include: a gym, weight room and fitness centre, aerobics classes, intramural programs and intercollegiate sports.
Capilano Student Union (CSU)	Maple 116 Library 195	604.984.4969
The students' union offers a variety of services for students including student handbooks, transit passes, a housing registry, two student lounges, locker access, photocopying, resume printing, and more.
Career Development Centre	LB 149	604.984.4965
Career Services provides up-to-date career success preparation and job services for all students and alumni, whether looking for a full-time career, part-time employment, or volunteer work. Students may access services through scheduled appointments, drop-in appointments or electronically via the website. All services are available to alumni at no charge. For more information, please see www.capilano.ca/student-life/academic-support/career-development-centre/
Centre for International Experience	Library 127	604.990.7914
The centre provides information concerning student visas, immigration policies, medical insurance, home stay, and other issues of concern to international students.
Counselling & Learning Support	Birch 267	604.984.1744
Counsellors assist students with personal problems and difficulties that interfere with their success as students. They also provide career counselling and workshops on various student success topics.
English Language Support	Library Main Floor	els@capilano.ca (to make appointment)
ELS is a support service for non-native speakers of English enrolled in courses at Capilano University. In these sessions students can help with their Reading/Vocabulary, Grammar/Writing, and Listening/Speaking skills. To make an appointment, check the ELS Moodle site or email els@capilano.ca .
Financial Aid	Birch 230	604.984.4900
Provides information and applications for student loans and grants, scholarships and bursaries. Financial counselling and emergency aid is also available.
First Nations Student Services	Library 196	604.986.1911 ext. 3067
Services available for First Nations students including assistance with registration and course selection, information on resources and liaison with Band educational officers.

Harassment/Conflict Resolution Advisor	Birch 270D	604.983.7547
The conflict resolution advisor assists campus members to resolve disputes, including sexual harassment and other harassment issues.
Health Services	Birch 249	604.984.4964
General medical services are available to students. In addition, the clinic offers physiotherapy, massage therapy, fitness consultation, and sports medicine.
International Student Counsellor	Birch 267	604.984.1744
This counsellor provides personal, career and student success counselling for international students. You can also contact him to find out about the international club.
IT Services & Classroom Support	Library 125	604.984.4952
IT Services provides assistance with computer problems, Moodle, login ID's, internet access, email services, printing, photo-copying, equipment loans, & student information web services.
Learning Services	Birch 267	604.984.1744
Learning Services assists students to develop effective learning skills and strategies. The services available include individual learning skills consultations, study skills workshops, and on-line resources. The university also offers a 100 level student success course called USS100 - Introduction to the Personal and Academic skills for success. This course is offered in the Fall and Spring terms.
Library	Library 110	604.984.4944
In addition to research resources - books, online article databases, e-books and research guides - the Library offers instruction, individual research assistance, computer workstations, printers and copiers, and audio visual materials.
Lost & Found	Arbutus 017	604.984.1763
Students may inquire about lost-or-found items with Security.
Math Learning Centre	Library Main Floor	604.983.7502
Students may obtain individual assistance from the math instructor on duty. The centre also contains many learning materials such as software, videos, and reference texts.
Security	Arbutus 017	604.984.1763
Security on campus is provided by uniformed officers. These officers are available to escort any member of the University community, provide necessary first aid and are responsible for the Lost-&-Found.
Study Abroad Office	LB 127	604.984.4936
This office provides students with the opportunities to go abroad either on a short term study tour or a full semester exchange. Destinations include Australia, Austria, China, Finland, Denmark, France, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Japan, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States and Vietnam.
Writing Centre	Library Main Floor	604.984.4956
Provides advice on written assignments or help with writing problems. Also offers resources such as reference books, information sheets & exercises, and computers with word processing and printing facilities.		