CONGRATULATIONS

PAUL DANGERFIELD

President &
Vice-Chancellor

As I address you on this special occasion, I'm filled with pride and gratitude. From the moment you applied to Capilano University, you embarked on a journey of self-discovery and growth. Your embrace of innovative learning and your interactions within our diverse community have enriched not only your education but also the fabric of our institution.

Just as those who came before you—our esteemed alumni—have left their mark on the world, I urge you to seize the boundless possibilities ahead. Amidst your pursuit of success and fulfillment, remember to prioritize your health and well-being.

As you head towards new adventures, let curiosity and imagination fuel your exploration. May your endeavours be guided by a commitment to serve others with compassion and mindfulness. Your unique perspectives and talents have the power to ignite positive change and shape a brighter future for generations to come.

Congratulations on your remarkable success, and may your journey ahead be filled with endless opportunities for fulfillment and well-being.

CONGRATULATIONS

YURI FULMER, OBC

Chancellor

As chancellor, I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the Class of 2024! Your journey at Capilano University reflects your dedication and perseverance. Now, as you stand on the threshold of a new chapter, take pride in your remarkable achievement.

Equipped with the knowledge and skills gained from CapU, you possess the tools to confront the challenges and seize the opportunities that lie ahead. Your journey has nurtured your self-awareness, fostered creative thinking and honed practical experience, all of which will serve you well in your future endeavours.

Looking ahead, remember the words of the Lorax: "Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better. It's not." As future leaders and innovators, you wield the power to transform lives, ignite inspiration and effect positive change within your communities and beyond.

Congratulations once again, and may your journey forward be filled with purpose, fulfillment and boundless success.

All the best,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Yuri Fulmer". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

HONORARY DEGREE

DEBRA DOUCETTE, OBC

Doctor of Laws
honoris causa

President & CEO,
Odlum Brown Limited

Debra Doucette is president and CEO of Odlum Brown, an independent, full-service investment firm that has been helping clients achieve their financial goals for over 100 years. With an accomplished career in the investment industry spanning over 35 years, Debra leads with objective and strategic insight. She joined Odlum Brown in 1991. Prior to becoming president and CEO in 2007, she was the chief operating officer for seven years.

Debra is lauded for her vision, passion and dedication as a leader in the business community. Currently, she is a board member of alumni UBC (past chair), Providence Health Care, Drug Free Kids Canada and the Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization (CIRO). Debra also served as the industry director and chair of the Canadian Investor Protection Fund.

Debra has received many accolades for her business and community leadership over the years. As a strong supporter of Odlum Brown's sponsorship and charitable giving programs, she was honoured with the Order of British Columbia in 2021 and given the Joseph and Rosalie Segal United Way Community Vision Award in 2016 for her work in the community. In 2016, Debra received the BC CEO Award from Business in Vancouver and Canada's Most Admired CEO™ in 2017. After being recognized in the top 100 for three consecutive years, Debra was also inducted into Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 Hall of Fame by the Women's Executive Network.

HONORARY DEGREE

RAYMOND HEUNG

Doctor of Laws
honoris causa

President,
Vanac Development Corp.

Co-founder and Trustee,
Y. P. Heung Foundation

Raymond Heung, born in Hong Kong, ventured to Canada in 1966 for higher education, earning a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Ottawa. He pursued further studies at the University of British Columbia, obtaining a MA in economics and a M.Sc. in urban land economics by the early 1970s.

Afterwards, Raymond continued in his father's footsteps in Hong Kong and began working in real estate in Vancouver at Daon Development Corp. in the late '70s. He later founded Vanac Development Corp. in 1982 and has since served as its president. Additionally, from 1998 to 2005, he held the position of president and CEO at Madison Pacific Properties Inc., a Vancouver-based public commercial real estate firm. He was also a member of the Real Estate Institute of British Columbia.

Raymond, alongside his wife Terry Heung, serves as a trustee of the Y. P. Heung Foundation, established in 2012 to honour his father and contribute to health, education and arts and culture initiatives. As an art collector himself, Raymond is passionate about giving back to the community through awarding arts grants and establishing post-secondary awards to encourage and support students with tuition fees.

Inspired by his father's values, the legacy of the Y. P. Heung Foundation reflects his father's belief in hard work, honesty, honour and humility; and it is these four principles that underscore Raymond's enduring success in commercial real estate spanning over four decades.

HONORARY DEGREE

LISA WOLVERTON

Doctor of Laws,
honoris causa

Co-Owner,
Pacific Investment
Corporation

President,
Forward Global Canada
& Wolverton Family
Foundation

Lisa Wolverton is one of three owners of Pacific Investment Corporation, a family-owned real estate holdings and investment firm, holding multiple governance roles within the company. She also leads the family's private foundation, the Wolverton Foundation, headquartered in Vancouver. The foundation is dedicated to elevating exposure to the arts and facilitating artistic programs for children who would otherwise be excluded from these opportunities. Notably, it has housed The Sarah McLachlan School of Music, its primary grantee partner, for over a decade.

Beyond her family business, Lisa serves as the president of Forward Global Canada, overseeing Canadian membership development for its parent organization, Forward Global. This global community of 400 philanthropic funders is dedicated to addressing today's challenges through education, community engagement and actionable initiatives.

Lisa also contributes to various boards and councils. She sits on the board of directors for The Fuller Project, a global newsroom focused on catalyzing positive change for women. She was a member of the Council of Advocates for the Freedom Fund, striving to eradicate slavery and exploitation worldwide, and was involved with the President's Council of the International Crisis Group.

A passionate advocate for youth, Lisa served on the board of directors of UNICEF Canada, Family Services of the North Shore and mentored for the Loran Scholarship Foundation of Canada. With roots on the North Shore, Lisa is an admired philanthropist and respected leader where CapU's campuses are located.

ELDER
LATASH-MAURICE NAHANEE

Doctor of Letters
honoris causa

Elder,
Capilano University
Elders' Circle

Elder Latash-Maurice Nahanee of the Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation epitomizes a life dedicated to cultural preservation, education and reconciliation.

As a CapU alum with a bachelor's degree in English literature (SFU), Elder Latash has had a multifaceted career. He spent a decade as a journalist before becoming the CEO of the Native Communications Society of BC. His entrepreneurial spirit led him to establish All Write Productions, a PR company, and Latash Native Arts, a company selling Indigenous art and providing cross-cultural workshops.

Elder Latash's true passion lies in nurturing young minds. For over 25 years, he has been actively involved in education, working with school districts across Metro Vancouver to impart Indigenous teachings and promote reconciliation. In 2016, he retired as a First Nations support worker in the North Vancouver School District.

Since 2012, Elder Latash has been an integral part of CapU's Elders' Circle, where he mentors Indigenous students and participates in many aspects of campus life. He was pivotal in guiding Chérichenstway, a living document outlining CapU's journey of reconciliACTION and learning.

As a world-renowned traditional artist and cultural ambassador, Elder Latash showcases Skwxwú7mesh culture through wood sculpture, painting, music and storytelling. Over the years, he has performed with the Chinook Songcatchers, a cultural group created with his wife and daughters.

His dedication to cultural authenticity and reconciliation is evident in his workshops and commissioned artworks, which continue to inspire and educate audiences worldwide.

HONORARY DEGREE

ALEX CUBA

Doctor of Letters
honoris causa

Singer-Songwriter

Living in Smithers, B.C. with his wife and three kids, Alex Cuba, a Cuban-Canadian Grammy/Latin Grammy and Juno-winning singer-songwriter/producer, embodies a musical vision unbounded by tradition. Immersed in music from an early age through his father, Alex pursued studies in electric and upright bass and has toured and recorded globally. His sound is a fusion of traditional and global influences, crafting emotive melodies and lyrics that combine folk, rock, pop and funk together in both Spanish and English.

As a highly-respected international artist, Alex garnered numerous awards and accolades from the music industry, particularly with the release of Mendó (2021). His collaborations span a wide spectrum, from Ron Sexsmith and Nelly Furtado to Latin American artists like Leonel Garcia and Lila Downs. Among his awards are two Junos, a BMI award and four Latin Grammys, including Best New Artist. With his vibrant performances with Grammy winner Lila Downs and world-renowned flamenco artist Antonio Carmona, Alex's eighth studio album Mendó earned him his first Grammy for Best Latin Pop Album in 2022, marking a tremendous accomplishment for an independent artist.

Alex Cuba shares a long history with CapU. In 2001, the BlueShore at CapU presented his Vancouver debut as a solo artist, as part of its inaugural North Shore Jazz Series in partnership with the Vancouver International Jazz Festival. It is with immense pride that the University has witnessed the evolution of Alex as an artist with all his recognition over the years.

Alex Cuba's musical journey reflects an ongoing exploration of Cuban roots intertwined with global influences, a testament to his boundless creativity and dedication to crafting fresh, soulful compositions.

FACULTY EMERITUS

GRAHAM FANE

Faculty Emeritus

Faculty of Business & Professional Studies

Graham Fane earned his bachelor's degree and MBA at Washington State University. He joined Capilano University in 1978 and worked for over 30 years as an instructor in the School of Business. In 2009, he was appointed dean of the Faculty of Business & Professional Studies.

In his role as dean, Graham oversaw the School of Business, paralegal studies and communications departments. As faculty, he authored two textbooks on strategic planning and contemporary business management and created 400-level curricula. Through his leadership, Graham supported the development of two new degrees in the paralegal and communications programs, and the bid to earn accreditation from the Northwest Commission of Colleges and Universities (NWCCU), making CapU the first Canadian university accredited by the organization. He also developed curriculum on the economic impacts of the Vancouver 2010 Winter Olympics which was shared with future Olympic committees.

Since 1989, Graham has maintained his own part-time consulting practice in strategic management and training to over 10,000 managers. He also served three terms on the board for CMA BC and the Lindell Beach Residents Association.

Since retirement, Graham has continued his personal business practice and is an active member with the Chilliwack Tourism Advisory Panel, Cultus Lake Area Stewardship Society and the Cultus Lake Trail Society, providing his management expertise and supporting a $1M walking trail development project for the lake.

FACULTY EMERITUS

NANCY MCMASTER

Faculty Emeritus (Posthumous)

Music Therapy,
Faculty of Education, Health
& Human Development

Nancy McMaster was an accredited music therapist and a fellow of the Association for Music & Imagery—She was a Canadian music therapy pioneer.

Together with Carolyn Kenny in 1976, she co-founded Canada's first music therapy training program at Capilano University. Nancy worked tirelessly to promote the program and the profession until she retired in July 2022. During her time at the University, she saw the department evolve from a two-year diploma program to a bachelor's degree in 1990, marking CapU's first degree offering.

Nancy's clinical expertise was eclectic, including the Nordoff-Robbins Institute, Fellowship with the Association for Music & Imagery and graduate studies in music therapy at NYU. Nancy was invited to present locally and abroad and contributed to several international music therapy publications. In addition to teaching, she worked with youth and adults in private practice for over 45 years.

As a founding director and board member for the Music Therapy Association of BC, and while sitting on several national committees with the Canadian Association of Music Therapists, Nancy was instrumental in establishing national undergraduate curriculum standards in the early years of the organization.

Beyond academics, she was a musician who played and recorded music, and was a member of several choral ensembles in her community.

FACULTY EMERITUS

CRYSTAL HURDLE

Faculty Emeritus

English,
Faculty of Arts & Sciences

Crystal Hurdle earned her bachelor's (honours) and master's degrees in English literature from the University of Victoria and holds a Secondary School Teaching Certificate as well as a Diploma in Applied Linguistics. She taught English at CapU from 1985 until her retirement in 2020.

Crystal engaged hundreds of students, from those in English for Academic Purposes (EAP) and remedial writing through to those in her creative writing, academic writing and literature classes. She created many courses, including English 292, Writing for Children (along with KinderText, a reading series); English 209, Literary Analysis, Poetry of Ted Hughes and Sylvia Plath; and English 290, Creative Writing, Poetry, with an emphasis on the same poets. She served as the English department coordinator and was a member of the Capilano Press Society Board for The Capilano Review. Additionally, Crystal was actively involved as chair and member of the School of Humanities Evaluation and Paid Educational Leave committees. She also taught at the University of Victoria, UBC and worked at SFU as the technical writing director for the School of Engineering. Throughout her career, Crystal facilitated instructional skills workshops at CapU.

She is author of the poetry books, After Ted & Sylvia, Sick Witch and Teacher's Pets, a novel in verse. Her poetry and prose were published in several journals, including Canadian Literature, The Literary Review of Canada, Event, Bogg, Vallum, Transverse, Ars Medica and The Dalhousie Review. She was guest poet and only featured speaker from Canada, respectively, at two different international Sylvia Plath symposia, at Oxford and Bloomington.

Since retirement, Crystal has served as a writing mentor to students through the Writers Union of Canada, Canadian Artists Network, League of Canadian Poets, and at Silver Harbour Seniors' Centre. She's given poetry readings and continues to write both poetry and novels.
